ACKNOWLEDGMENTS AND APOLOGIES

Much of this book is the work of other people. A singling out of some for special recognition seems in order on the one hand and impossible on the other. Starting the list would be easy, but bringing it to an end would be to draw a fine line somewhere between two people of virtually equal deserts. Having not been able to master this quandary, I refer the reader to the sources which begin on page 631 and which list some 340 contributors to this genealogy. Without their help, the scope of this book would have been impossible.

My apology to any contributor whose name is not listed in the sources. I began my method of noting sources in the left margin of the pages as a convenience. In the beginning, I typed the notations in as material was compiled, where they served as a quick reference but were not in the way of making revisions. Later when I began using a computer, the notation had to be deferred until printouts were made, because they were in the way. Making revisions complicated the matter; therefore, some sources may have escaped notation.

I promised in a circular letter to the "Tichenor family" in 1983 that this book would be published as soon as possible after I retired in 1986. Although it is more than one and one-half years since that date, it has, in fact, been published as soon as possible. Continued research and letter writing were necessary for many weeks and the difficult format of the book took extra time. I hope the book is better for it.

My great-grandfather, James Tichenor, to my knowledge, compiled the only genealogy of his family line before this one. He prefaced it with the hope that someone in the future would make necessary additions and pass it on to future generations. Perhaps this book fulfills his wish.

INTRODUCTION

We Americans are proud of our country. We are thrilled by the history of the Colonies. We have all but deified the leaders of the Revolution. We love the stories of the growth of the nation and we revere the pioneers, who settled the west. To many of us, as we think of these things, a question comes to mind: where were my people when all of this happened? But to some of us there is an even more absorbing question: who were my people when all of this happened?

This book is an attempt to answer these questions for the Tichenor family. It contains the material, revised and corrected, from my book Descendants of Martin Tichenor; A History in the Making published in 1977. After 1977, I continued to collect material for this book. Tichenor data (of all variations of spelling) has been collected wherever found, assuming that the probability of its pertaining to descendants of Martin Tichenor was great. I have personally researched county records where Tichenors have lived, and used libraries and archives both personally and by mail. I have visited 65 county court houses and office buildings and an uncounted number of libraries. I have acquired a mailing list of more than 1700 Tichenor descendants, to whom I have mailed notices about the genealogy, and have corresponded with many family members.

Family members are the sole source of information for the younger generations in many cases, while much that family members have supplied about older generations is confirmed by research or is supported by published sources. Some previously unknown connections of families to descendants of Martin Tichenor[1] have been made. In the 1977 book, I included only those families whose connection to Martin Tichenor was known to me at the time. This book contains families whose connections are not known; and contains all Tichenor families for whom there is data in my collection, unless there are good reasons to believe they are not connected. These follow the first chapter "Descendants of Martin Tichenor."

To aid the reader in following his family line through the book, page headings have the names of Tichenor ancestors with the page number on which the ancestor's sketch appears. For those with two Tichenor ancestral lines, a reference to the page containing the second line is given in the text when known. The headings provide that, with few exceptions, all Tichenor ancestors (of one line) of each person named on a given page are named on that page. The exception occurs when the sketch of a parent begins on the page preceding the person's own and the parent's name is not repeated on the page on which the sketch ends.

"Tichenor" in the title of this book and elsewhere in "Tichenor family" or as Tichenors in general is intended to indicate or refer to families of all variations of spelling of the name. The spellings other than Tichenor which are in use today are: Teachenor, Tichinel, Tichnell, Tishner, Titchenal, Titchenell, Titchnell, and possibly others. To have listed all spellings in the title would have been cumbersome.

"MARTIN TICHENOR[1] came, tradition says from France." This statement first appeared in print, to the writer's knowledge, in Collections of the New Jersey Historical Society, Volume VI, Supplement, in 1866. The source was possibly the Tichenor families living in New Jersey at the time, as local families had some input in this volume. The tradition of French origin has since been handed down in RBT 9 print a number of times, most notably in Richard Bennington Teachenor's A Partial History of the Tichenor family in America, Descendants of Martin Tichenor, the most widely distributed Tichenor history at the time (1918). A footnote by Isaac Taylor Tichenor[6], son of James Tichenor, qv., whose genealogy Teachenor used in his book, states, however, that "this tradition is opposed to the one most generally accepted -- that the ancestry is English (although of Dutch-Flemish derivation). A close study of the Connecticut and New Jersey Colonial records convinces the writer that Martin was a Puritan, and most probably came from England. In Atwater's "History of New Haven," Chapters II, III and IV, reference several times is made to the fact that members of the colony settling at Milford and New Haven like those of Massachusetts Bay, came from Kent and Canterbury..."

DAFM, 511 Several dictionaries of names support the English origin of the Tichenor name but not without some contradition. One lists Tichenor as of English origin and a variant of Ticknor "one who came from Tichnor, (Tyca's shore), in Kent."

TNO 273 Another states that Tichenor is "An English name of local origin from Tichenor, a village in Hampshire, southern England, situated on the river Itchen near Southhampton. The name of the place was originally written: 'At Itchen.' A resident there was known as 'At Itchenor': one who lived by the river Itchen. Ticknor is sometimes a variant of Tichenor; and may also be a form of Tickner ('a draghtsman'), a name of Dutch origin".

ED 248 In another dictionary of names, we find similarly that Tichenor, was "local, probably a corruption of At Itchenor, 'T Itchenor, from the River Itchen, the name of a village in Sussex, England.

PDS 284 In yet another dictionary Tichenor is given as a form of Titchener. Titchener is given as a locality name, " 'dweller at the crossroads'... (yet the Chichester origin of one family tempts us to associate the surname with at Itchenor nearby -- 'Ycca'a Landing-place' Old English."

HSE 204 From a history of Sussex, England, we learn that West Itchenor is a "small parish, of 546 acres," lying "at the mouth of Chichester Harbour, whose waters bound it on the north and west" and its history as "Itchenor" predates the Conquest in 1066.

COD 255 A history of English place names, gives West Itchenor as existing originally as Iccanore "Yucca's ORA or landing-place."

HI JWW The common origin of Ticknor and Tichenor families is assumed by concerns which sell copies of what is purported to be a Tichenor Coat-of-Arms, it being based on the Ticknor name. A search of the International Genealogical Index (IGI) of the Genealogical Society of Utah reveals that there are many Tichenor like, as well as Ticknor and Tickner names in England in Surrey Co. and counties surrounding Surrey. Tickner and Ticknor names predominate. Only a few are Tichenor or very similar to it. In compiling the lists that follow, names spelled with a "k" were considered "Tichenor like" if the "k" was followed with a vowel. In the 16th century the IGI records the following Tichenor and Tichenor like names in England:

These records suggest the English origin for the Tichenor name. What can we say about the tradition that Martin Tichenor came from France? The IGI lists no Tichenor names there, however, the lack of records does not prove that he did not live there. It became popular in America after the Revolution to claim French ancestry. Could it have been wishful thinking in the Tichenor family?

Martin Tichenor was a Puritan and must have lived in England for a time whatever his roots. The evidence we have does not allow us to say more.

VRC 2 MARTIN TICHENOR[1] took the oath of allegiance at New Haven Colony August 1644. This is the first known record of him. He was married by the governor to Mary Charles, daughter of John Charles, May 16, 1651. New Haven records give us the names of two children in addition to those named in his will. They are Nathaniel, who was born Feb 25, 1652 and died Feb 27, 1652 and Sarah b 1663.

GMNJ v __ 82 The spelling of Martin Tichenor's name varied in New Haven records as is seen below, but his will was signed "Tichenor" and, in general, that is the spelling in the Newark records with one notable exception during Newark's brief rule by the Dutch. His name on a list of the inhabitants of Newark, who took the Oath of Allegiance to the States General of Holland in 1763, was Tichnell. Although the names in a few records pertaining to his sons, end with one or two letters "l" the Tichenor spelling prevailed. A great-grandson, Moses, revived the spelling ending with "l" and signed his name Tichenal after leaving New Jersey (see page 107).

NJA-W Children named in his will dated Oct 19, 1681 (Tichenor):

1. John[2] (page 9)
2. Abigail[2] (page 9)
3. Daniel[2] (page 40)
4. Hannah[2] (page 8)
5. Samuel[2] (page 40)
6. Jonathan[2] (page 8)

FANH NHCH, v I John Charles was in Charleston, MA, in 1636 amd moved to New Haven before 1640, possibly in 1638. His lot in New Haven was adjacent to the lot of John Moss, his brother-in-law. He moved to Branford where he joined in the compact of settlement in 1667 and died in 1673. The New Haven Colony records contain several pages of court proceedings concerning a John Charles, a mariner. Presumbly, he was John Charles, father of Mary Tichenor.

NHTR v I 271 272 Martin and Mary Tichenor were members of the New Haven church. In parish and township meetings the men and women sat in separate divisions and the seating is recorded for the year 1655 as follows: "in ye seats on ye stile on both sides the dore: Martin Tichennor... In ye side seats all along: Goodw Tichennor." On Feb 10, 1961 their seatings were "Below the doore" for "Martine Titchnell" and "Sister Tichnell."

Martin Tichenor had a five acre lot in New Haven which he sold in 1666, having joined the party that founded Newark, NJ. The sale was recorded as follows:

NHTR, v 2 193 October 2nd 1666
Martin Tichenor doth Alienate forever to Henry Glover one house & land & medow formerly belonging to john Charles, as by a deed of Sale from ye sd Charles unto ye sd Tichinor doth more fully appeare.

201 The location of the lot was recorded when it changed hands the following year:

Henry Glover doth alienate to George Ross, one house & Barne & Homelott with five acres of Land, be it more or less, lieing at ye lower end of the subburbs quarter next Milford highway, as by writeing bearing Date 5th 1st 1666/7... this formerly was in ye possession of Martin Tichenor.

NON 4 In 1665 New Haven and Connecticut were merged into one colony. The new constitution allowed baptism of children irrespective of parents' church membership. This was displeasing to the strict church members of New Haven; the Puritan practice permitting this ordinance only for children of "the 5 elect." Robert Treat was chairman of a committee acting for them in their desire to migrate from this religious environment which was intolerable for them. When Governor Carteret of New Jersey sent agents to New England, seeking homesteaders for colonization, and carrying the constitution of the Government, entitled "The Concessions of the Lord Proprietors of New Jersey," which granted the essentials, religious and otherwise, sought by the Puritans, Treat accepted. A yearly quit-rent of a halfpenny per acre, to be paid the Lord Proprietors, was agreed upon. After a visit in the late
3, 6 winter of 1665 to the site that would become Newark, Treat returned with a glowing report of the country's possibilities. A group of about thirty families from Milford made immediate plans for the exodus. They traveled by sea and in early May 1666 arrived at the Passaic River. As they unloaded their goods, they were met by a tribe of Hackensack Indians who claimed the land. The Puritans learned that the Governor had not attended to the treaty price with the Indians, as he had guaranteed. Reluctantly it was decided to return to Milford. As they prepared to reload their goods, the Governor arrived on the scene. He acknowledged failure on his part to fulfill the RTN 679 contract, but implored the people to remain. They consented to stay; dealt with the Indians, purchasing the land for "fifty double-hands of powder, one hundred barrs of lead, twenty Axes, twenty Coats, ten Guns, twenty pistolls, ten Kettles, ten Swoards, four blanks, four barrells of beere, ten paire of breeches, fifty knives, twenty howes, eight hundred and fifty fathem of wampem, two Ankors of licquers or something Equivolent, and three Troopers Coats." The Indians agreed that the bill of sale be held up until the companies from Branford and Guilford arrived in the spring of 1667.

NON 5 The Proprietors of New Jersey held the land under a grant from the Duke of York, brother of King Charles II. The Duke in turn held it under a grant from the King who claimed the land by right of discovery. Newark lived under the proprietory government until April 15, 1702 when "The Jerseys" were put under English government authority.

Under the constitution (The concessions of the Lord Proprietors of New Jersey) the inhabitants of Newark made many of their laws. The first articles of government, known as the Fundamental Agreement, were made October 30, 1666:

RTN 2 1st. That none shall be admitted freemen or free Burgesses (Deut. 1-25) within our Town upon Passaick River in the Province (Exod. 18-31) of New Jersey, but such Planters as are members (Deut. 17-15) of some or other of the Congregational Churches, nor shall (Jer. 36-21) any but such be chosen to Magistracy or to Carry on any part of Civil Judicature, or as deputies or assistants, to have power to Vote In establishing Laws, and making or Repealing them or to any Chief Military Trust or Office. Nor shall any But such Church Members have any Vote in any such elections; Tho' all others admitted to Be planters have Right to their proper Inheritance, and do and shall enjoy all other Civil Liberties and Privileges, According to all Laws, Orders, Grants which are, or hereafter shall be made for this Town.

2nd. We shall with Care and Diligence provide for the maintenance of the purity of Religion professed in the Congregational Churches. Whereunto subscribed the Inhabitants from Branford.

RTN 3 And upon the Reception of their Letters and Subscriptions, the present Inhabitants in November following declared their consents and readiness to do likewise; and at a meeting the twenty fourth of next June following in 1667, they also subscribed with their own Hands unto the two fundamental agreements Expressed on the other side...

NON 10 Unanimously adopted at the first town meeting on May 21, 1666, by the Milford company and delegates representing Branford and Guilford, the document was then forwarded to the two latter places for the signatures of their residents. The document was then returned to Newark where in June, 1667, the original settlers from Milford signed it. Credit is therefore given the men of Branford and Guilford 11 for signing first. Of these there were 23 signers. Martin and Daniel Tichenor were among the 41 "present inhabitants" who signed it in 1667.

16 On June 24, 1667 several items were attached to the Fundmental Agreement. Among them one provided that "in case any shall come into or rise up amongst us that shall willingly and wilfully disturb us in our Peace and Settlements, and especially that would subvert us from the true Religion and worship of God, and cannot or will not keep their opinions to themselves or be reclaimed after due Time and means of Conviction and reclaiming hath been used," shall depart the Town considerations being made
12 for their property. Another item provided for drawing lots to assign ownership of home lots. These lots consisted of six acres, except that of Captain Treat. He was allowed not only two additional acres, but also the privilege of first choice. "Martin Tichenor had the grant of his lot, next
5 beyond that was John Plum's."

7 Another item provided for the valuation of estates for tax purposes. "The Town agreed that a rate should be made, for Payment of every Man's Share of the Purchase" and to meet other expenses, "and that they would referr the Matter to Seven Men, that should have full Power to hear, examine and judge of every Man's Estate and Persons, as their Rule..., any five of whom shall have full Power to act herein; and for their Direction herein, the Town saw cause to allow and pass upon every Head of a Family, or that takes up Allotment in the Town, to be valued at 50 pounds, and for every Child or Servant in the Family besides, Ten Pounds by the Head, which shall be allowed as good Estate; and for all other Kinds of Goods" the rate to be made by the men appointed. "A sure List of Every Man's Estate" was approved.

NON 54 The manner of paying the tax was indicated at the same meeting. "The One Half of it that is to be Paid between this and the first of January next, and the other half Between this and the Last of March Next, in any Current pay that will pass and is Accepted Between Man and Man upon the Place."
55 The tax was paid with, among other things, wheat, corn, pork, wood and pelts. Five years later some
57 were dilatory in squaring their account with the tax collector. The way of "rating" and collecting
RTN 14 provided the basis for some lively town meetings. Martin Tichenor's estate was valued at 169 pounds. Fifty of this was for himself and 50 was for his five children, leaving 69 pounds as the valuation of his property.

NON 14 The first houses in Newark averaged thirty feet in length and sixteen feet in width, and were one and 15 a half stories in height. Cavernous or double chimneys with which every house was equipped were made of clay and timber for a few years until stone and mortar were used exclusively in the construction. The hearthstone was in the main or living room, used also as a kitchen. The door opened on a level with the yard. Wood was the only fuel. Water used for laundry was stored in rain barrels as it dripped from the roof. Water for other uses came from spring or brook, or where these were not available, from a well dug on the premises.

51 The first industry was the corn mill built in 1671. Wheat and rye were brought to the mill but corn

NON 50 was the largest item of grist. The miller got a twelfth part of corn and a sixteenth of all other 88 grain. Encouragement was officially given artisans of neighboring and even distant settlements, by
87 offering them homestead grants. Very early the town had three weavers. By 1695 the town had two sawmills. Cooperage was a profitable industry, requiring skilled labor. Thousands of handmade barrels were produced in Newark every year. Those used for holding liquids were of white oak, while the ones for storing dry commodities were of red oak. The staves were bound by hickory hoops. The soil was especially adapted to growth of apple trees which were very numerous. Apples were readily disposed of in other colonies and large consignments were sent to the West Indies. Late in the 17th
86 century, more than 1000 barrels of cider were exported each year. Shoemaking, later Newark's chief industry, was done by the traveling shoemaker, who as a rule, made the rounds of the settlements in early autumn. They were welcome not only for their skill but also for the gossip they brought with them. Food and shelter were provided for him at the home during his employment. Soap, made from
87 wood ashes and scraps of fat, was a home industry. Tallow candles were made from scraps of fat boiled in a large kettle into which hempen strings were dipped, a half dozen or more at a time as a
85 labor saving device, 200 to 250 being a day's product. Spinning wheels were used in the latter part of the 17th century. Dyeing of wearing apparel was a domestic industry in which the women were experts. Feathers of wild geese were made into bedding and pillows, which were used year around.
88 Beehives were generally possessed by householders, honey being used as a medicine as well as food. Slaves were permitted in the province, but there is no record of slaves being imported into Puritan Newark.

12 In the town meeting of Sept 10, 1667 the town "Bargained" with three townsmen "for the sum of Seventeen Pounds to Build a Meeting House... with a Lenter to it all the Length which will make it Thirty Six foot Square, with Flue Boards at the Gable ends: only the Town is to Hew and Bring all the 35 rest of the Timber upon the place..." In 1669 the town paid five pounds to have the building raised, the four sides having been laid out on the ground and oak pins and a few nails used in fastening the timbers. The lentel, roof and other accessories were afterward added. In Jan. 1670 the town engaged
37 carpenters to floor the Meeting House with good "Chestnut or Oak, of 2 inches and a Half Plank... on 36 Seven Good Sleepers." When the building was completed it was the most pretentious structure in town. Townsmen were assigned seats according to "office, age, estate, infirmity, and descent of parentage."
38 Attendance was compulsory winter and summer. The only protection against the chilly atmosphere of the barren edifice was a footstove made of metal. This was filled with wood coals and brought by the 28 people from their homes. The first minister, Rev. Abraham Pierson, was accorded respect wherever and whenever he appeared. Boys and girls were enjoined by their parents to stand by the roadside in attitude of attention until he passed. Men and women also stood aside when meeting him on the 16 highways or in other public places, bowing low, almost obsequiously. The town had been named in his honor. He had received his ministerial orders at Newark-on-the-Trent, in England.

42 There was a gradual lessening of Puritan restraint and practice. In 1684 the second pastor, son of 43 the first, wanted a general revision of Puritan practices. The people were arrayed for and against 27 him, and even his salary was withheld. From the first the pastor's salary was "Eighty Pounds by the 43 Year," every planter being required to contribute. By 1687 this requirement had been "desisted from." In January of that year, the pastor's supporters having a majority, the town voted to pay him
44 "by way of rating, as formerly." Among more than fifty who signed an agreement to pay "his Proportion in the Rate" were Samuel and John Tichenor. The church remained nominally Puritan until October 22, 1719, when Presbyterian form of church government was instituted.

OFC The first meeting house was replaced by a second building probably between 1714 and 1716. It was still referred to as the "meeting house" and served as a town hall as well as a house of worship. The building was 40 feet square and made of stone. Complete separation of church and state occurred on June 7, 1753 when the governor of NJ granted a charter of incorporation to the "First Presbyterian Church." The third and present church was built beginning in 1787 and completed in 1794. Additions have been made in more recent times.

MEKT The first generations in Newark were buried in the burial ground near the meeting house. It was later called the "Old Burial Ground." The records of deaths and burial "were lost when the British took the town in 1777 and the burial ground itself was left to neglect and destruction. The red Sandstone tombstones in use at that date were carried away to serve as stones at doorsteps by enterprising depredators... Newark in later years made several efforts to reclaim the Old Burying Grounds, but finally removed and recorded what names and tombstones were left, disinterred the remains buried there; (then only a few bones) in each grave, and a plot near the entrance in Fairmount Cemetery Newark, having been designated, the City Government buried the remains in one grave and erected over it a large and imposing monument of a metal compound instead of stone one which many of the citizens desired and expected. It is surmounted by the figure of a settler of that era, and has a tablet on each side containing the names of the colonist and towns from which they came. - Branford, Milford, Guilford, New Haven. Since then the city has used the [old burial] ground for various purposes and now, 1921, it has been laid in streets which are used to build stores and others buildings on, now named Brantford Place. There was much controversy and legislation over the MEKT property and the legal right of the city to it. It was finally settled in favor of the City; the city which was not grateful enough for, nor appreciative of, the broad streets, the substantial government, and the wise laws of the men who planned it many years before."

NON 62 The anouncement by the Governor, July 30, 1674, that granting of letters of admissions to towns in the province would only be through the Governor and Council, was the end of the Puritan ideal of voting rights for members of the Established Church only. Although taking no action offically for a time, the town adopted a resolution Mar 1, 1677, "that all and every Man, that improves Land in the Town of Newark, shall make their appearance at Town Meeting, and there attend to any Business as shall be proposed as any of the Planters do..."

NON 63 Attendance was often poor at town meetings and fines were levied on those "remiss." In 1683 the town
64 provided a means of judging each case of absence. "We do now agree and think it most fit that Three Men in each End of Town be Chosen for each Person, that is remiss to repair to within two or three Days at the most after the Meeting, and if their Reasons are satisfying to them why they were absent they shall be remitted their Fine; otherwise within three Days after such Town Meetings their Names
64 are remiss shall be returned to the Constable, who is to gather up such Fines, and shall have half for his Pains." On the roll of more than 50 men who voted for this "agreement," we find the names of John and Samuel Tichenor.

Notwithstanding the Governor's taking over admissions, freedom of the town was not granted strangers.
80 The town meeting on Feb 25, 1680, "To prevent sundry Inconveniences which may grow to this Town of Newark, by the inconsiderate receiving and entertaining of Strangers amongst us... Voted, That henceforward no Planter belonging to us or within our Bounds of limits, receive or entertain any Man or Woman of what Age or Quality soever" to settle upon their land, nor sell, lease or give them any property, nor permit any "to stay or abide above one Month, without License from" the town.

81 A resolution concerning town morals was adopted Oct 19, 1681, "to prevent disorderly Meeting of Young People at unseasonable times, it is voted as a Town Act, that no Housekeeper or Master of a Family, shall harbor or entertain any Person or Persons in the Night after Nine o'clock, or at other unseasonable Times (extraordinary occasions excepted), nor shall they suffer them disorderly to meet any Place, within their Power, to spend their Time, Money or Provisions inordinately in drinking, gaming or such like; nor shall they suffer any Carriage, Conference of Council, which tends to Corrupt one another, All such persons so transgressing shall be liable to such fines the Authority shall think fit."

112 The first school of Newark opened, probably in the Meeting House, in 1676, the town having made the
113 following authorizations at the Feb 7th meeting: "The Town hath consented that the Town's Men should perfect the Bargain with the School Master for this Year, upon Condition that he will come for this Year and do his faithful, honest and true endeavor, to teach the Children or Servants of those as have subscribed, the reading and writing of English, and also Arethmetick if they desire it; as much as they are capable to learn and he capable to teach them within the Compass of this Year -- nowise hindering, but that he may make what bargain he please, with those as have not subscribed..."

68 The animal pound was one of the first institutions and was authorized May 24, 1669. "The Town Ordered and Agreed that for all unruly Cattle or Horses that are turned in or voluntarily Left in the Neck or Com'on Field, that they shall pay Five Shillings by the Head Poundage; half to the Pounder and half to the Town, besides all damages that they shall do to any Man in his Corn, Grass, or Hay, or otherwise, and for all Cattle that are not unruly, Horses, Oxen or Cows, Four Pence by the Head Poundage, Besides any damages."

There were Indian scares from time to time. The town was particularly apprehensive in the late
RTN 51 summer of 1673. Every man between the age of sixteen and sixty was required to have their arms ready and have a "Half a Pound of Pouder and Twelve Bullets, fit for his gun, or Two Pounds of Pistol
60 Bullets." In 1675 plans were made to turn the meeting house into a fort. "It's agreed that the Meeting House be lathed, and filled up with thin Stone and Morter below the Girts..." Also "two Flankers shall be made at two Corners of the Meeting House with Palisades of Stockades..." A watch
75 was provided in June 1679. "Three in a Night, at some House appointed by the Sargents, and one of the Three to stand Centry, one at one Time and another at another; and at the break of Day or thereabouts all Three of them to be walking, that if there be danger it may be timely discovered and prevented, and about half an hour after Daybreak to call the Drummer and he is to beat the Drum. It is also agreed that one fourth Part of the Town at a Time, and so taking their Turns, shall carry arms to Meeting on the Lord's Day -- and two to Ward, and to stand Centry."

The beating of the drum in this was to scare the Indians. The drummer had an important role in the life of the town, calling people to church and town meetings.

CCG JONATHAN[2], b in New Haven, CT, about 1663; named a minor in his father's will. He was admitted a Planter in Newark Mar 5, 1693 or 1694. The town records show that he was chosen with three other townsmen as "Surveyors of Highways" in 1846 or 1847.

In 1697 he with his brothers, John and Daniel, received land in right of his father. 10 lots of 6 acres or less each, were apparently deeded to Jonathan and his brother, Daniel, jointly. They included four acres in "Tichenall's neck," bounded on the north by "Widow Tichenall;" a four acre lot at the mouth of and west of "the river" and bounded on the south by "Widow Tichenall;" two acres which were bounded on the south by Oyster Creek, north by "Widow Tichenall", and west by John Treat, their brother-in -law. On Aug 3, 1697 he sold 2 acres on the east side of Bound Creek which had been one half of his father's second division of Salt Meadow. His name on the deed was Jonathan Tichanall. His name was spelled Tichenall the same year in a deed of his nephew, Martin Tichenor, where he (Jonathan) was named in the boundary of the property. Other records spelled his name Tichenor and Tichnor.

In 1741 at the August term of New Jersey Superior Court at Perth Amboy, he testified at the trial of "Jno. Penn, Thos Penn & Rich. Penn agst. Jno Chambers" as to what he knew about the boundary between Newark and Elizabeth. The account of his testimony in a sworn statement by three men who heard the testimony as follows:

> Jonathan Tichnor (who being 77 years of age as he then declared) Testified that when about 26 years of age was present at a Meeting of the Principall Men of Newark and Eliz. Town which was at the head of the Cove of Bound Creek and was then and there shown a Tree marked for the South Bounds of Newark Purchase and not questioned by any one of the said Towns, and the West Line was partly run from the head of the Cove for the Bounds of Newark, but a Dispute then arose between people of said Towns under pretence of a former agreement made between said Towns which was as the said Tichnor was then and at severall other times informed by severall of the people of Eliz. Town and Newark that the partition Line between said Towns should be a Northwest Line from Divident Hill to the Mountain on condition the people of Eliz. Town Should purchase for the People of Newark a neck of land now called New Barbadoes Neck in Lieu of the Land lying between a West Line from the head of the Cove aforesaid and said Northwest Line from Divident Hill, and at the said Meeting it was allowed by all there present that Eliz. Town people had not purchased any lands to the Northward of the head of the said Cove but the claim of the people of Eliz. Town of said Lands was founded only on the agreement aforesaid. And that he often heard from the Antient people of Eliz. Town and Newark the Eliz. Towns first Purchase no farther Northward than a Brook called Brackets Brook and that the People of Eliz. Town afterwards, and after Newark Purchase was made a second purchase of the Indians of those Lands lying between Brackets Brook and Newark Line and that he never heard of the Eliz. Town people purchasing or claiming any meadows lying on Northward of Bound Creek."

Jonathan Tichenor's horse was stolen at the trial. At the Council of Proprietors March 30, 1742: "It haveing been under Consideration last Week that Jonathan Tichenor, a very old man, at the Perswasion of David Ogden, Came to Amboy, to give Evidence on Penns Tryall in August Last, and that his Horse was then carried away by Persons unknown, and never heard of since, And that David Ogden Alledged the Horse to be worth about seven or eight Pounds, and thought himself under some Obligation, that some Reparation should be made for the said Loss suffered in the Proprietors Service, and the rather for that the said Tichener was poor, haveing Given over all his Estate to his Children Except the said Horse, it was then agreed that a Warrant do Issue for Mr. Johnson, to Pay to said David Ogden for the use of said Tichener, the sum of five Pounds towards repairing the said loss, which is Confirmed now by this Board."

Mar 22, 1741/2 he testified on the same subject. The record of his testimony is described as the "Disposition of Jonathan Tichenor." It contains the statement that he (Jonathan) had a son, Jonathan Tichenor, and a nephew, Daniel Tichenor.

All we know as to the number of his children is in this sketch: he had a son, Jonathan, and one or more other children. A Morris Co. Court confirms the existance of the son, Jonathan. The record reveals that on Sept 18, 1751, John Low sued Jonathan Tichenor Junr for a debt of 22 pounds-10-3.

VRC 11 ABIGAIL[2], b Feb 1, 1654 in New Haven; m John Treat, son of Robert Treat and Jane (Tapp) Treat. Abigail's gravestone reads: "Here lies ye body of Mrs. Abigail Treat, wife of John Treat, Esq., who departed this life April 1, 1713, in her 59th year." John Treat died Aug 1, 1714. He was one of the NON 73 most prominent leaders of early Newark, NJ. He was a deputy to the Provential Assembly, from 1694 to 1702; in 1709 he was representative of Essex Co. in the Assembly when one qualification was 1000
71 acres or 500 pounds in personal estate; in 1712 was Presiding Judge in court: and in 1713 was Major Treat.

Source Pg CHILDREN OF MARTIN[1] AND MARY (CHARLES) TICHENOR

Robert Treat was born in England, the son of Richard Treat. By about 1640 he was a resident of 4 Milford, CT. He led the first settlers from Milford in the founding of Newark. He was chairman of NON 72 the committee, chosen by the settlers of Newark, from Milford, Guilford and Branford, CT, making "one township," to manage the affairs of the town "in the name and behalf of the inhabitants." He returned to CT about 1674 where he was later chosen Governor. He is famous in connection with Charter Oak. According to tradition, Sir Edmond Andros, in 1686, attempted while Governor of New England to seize the Charter of Connecticut during a session of the Assembly. Governor Treat would not give up his office, put out the light and handed the charter to Captain Wadsworth who deposited 73 it in a hollow tree, now known as Charter Oak of Hartford. Robert Treat's children remained in Newark.

CCG John and Abigail Treat had a daughter, Sarah, who married Jonathan Crane. John Treat married a second time to Mary _____, who died Sept 16, 1731 in her 78 year. His will proved Oct 6, 1714 named his wife, Mary, the sole executor and gave real and personal estate to his daughter, Sarah. Sarah died July 1, 1766.

MKT JOHN[2], b Apr 14, 1653 in New Haven; baptized in the Milford Church Feb. 8, 1657; m Hannah Baldwin,
RTN 2 dau of John and Hannah (Osborne) Baldwin. John Baldwin, b 1644; d 1688. He was the son of Nathaniel
3 and Abigail (Camp) Baldwin. He was a member of the company from Milford and a signer of the Fundamental Agreement at the founding of Newark, NJ. Hannah Osborne was the daughter of Captain
MKT Richard Osborne, who was an officer in the Indian Wars--Pequot Wars 1637. He was born in 1612 and died in Newten, L.I. in 1686.

CCG Hannah Baldwin was bequeathed 15 acres of land by the will of her father, but the court apparently decided that the land belonged to her brother, John. The Newark Town Records reveal that on Feb 13,
RTN 74 1678/9 "John Tichenor doth freely lay down and resign to the town's dispose, his right to any land which he hath illegally taken up contrary to a Town agreement." and "the Town granted that he may have that land before William Camp's, provided he prejudice not the Highway; also, he doth freely leave himself with a Committee to Lay it out, and also to lay out a Highway." Also from the town
92 records: Jan 1, 1683/4 John Tichenor was made "Warner of Town Meetings at the end of Town where he
93 lives." Jan 9, 1683/4 John Tichenor signed agreement that fines be imposed on men not attending meetings. On Jan 9, 1687/8 John Tichenor was one of many who agreed "that they will from Time to 102 Time pay or cause to be paid yearly, in their full Proportion equally, in a Rate that may be agreed on by the Major Part of the Town, to the Maintainence and Allowance now agreed upon for the upholding and preaching of the Word in our Town."

CCG John Tichenor was to receive 54 acres of land in right of his father, but died before it was deeded to him. The land was "confirmed" to his son, Martin, May 1, 1697. On the same date 106 acres were confirmed to Daniel and Jonathan Tichenor, brothers of John. Some of the lots mentioned property of "Widow Tichenall" in the boundries. It is not known if she was John's widow, but possibly so.

EJ-D, The will of John Tichenor dated May 18, 1695 named his wife, Hannah, his son, Martin, "daughters" and
E 270 expected child. He mentioned in the will land that "doth of right belong to me by my father's purchase." Ensign John Treat and Daniel Tichenor were "overseers" of his estate. His brother, Jonathan, was one of the witnesses. John Tichenor may have had several daughters as in evidence in the will of his son, Martin, and the will of Mary Ball, widow of Moses Ball, brother-in-law of Martin. Martin Tichenor named brother-in-law, Moses Ball, in his will. How was he related? The following reasoning on the matter is taken, paraphrased, from the Charles C. Gardner Collection (see CCG source CCG).

If "brother-in-law" is used as we use it, either:
1. Moses Ball married a sister of Martin Tichenor; or
2. Martin Tichenor married sister of Moses Ball (Not so. He married Susanna Williams); or
3. Martin Tichenor and Moses Ball married sisters. Not so. The father of Susanna Williams in his will named daughters but not the ones that Mary Ball named as sisters. The will of Mary Ball, dated Nov 17, 1747, named cousin, Mary, wife of Christopher Seely and sisters: Abigail Hencock, Rachel Samson, Sarah Tichenor, Hannah Shingilton and Elizabeth Day.

The term "brother-in-law" could not mean "step brother" because the fathers of both men were living several years after both men were born. Therefore, if "brother-in-law" is used as we use it, Mary Ball and her sisters were the children of John Tichenor and sisters of Martin Tichenor.

John Tichenor was a Revolutionary soldier and was wounded in a battle on Peck Hill, East Orange, NJ, Jan 1, 1777. Josiah Pierson of N.J. Troops 1775-81. Several deeds to the property of Stephen Tichenor, 1809 to 1813, record his residence as Orange Tp, Essex Co., NJ. Earlier deeds have only Essex Co. as his residence. An 1809 deed describes a 1.73 acre lot "where said Stephen Tichenor now lives," as on the main road leading from Samuel Munn's to Newark. The lot was being sold. Another 10.54 acre tract sold in 1811 was in Orange Tp "lying between the first and second mountain." Other land was on the main road leading from Bloomfield to Cranetown.

Obt & MKT ALBERT MONROE[8], b Sept 19, 1832 in Orange, NJ; d July 24, 1901 in San Diego, CA; m Sarah Louise Kent. She, b Oct 12, 1834; d Dec 18, 1915. In 1850-52 he and his family went to CA by the Isthmus route and settled in San Francisco. In 1857 they returned to New Jersey but like most people who once lived on the coast has had such a desire to return that in two years they were again headed for CA where they arrived safely and, after a brief stop in San Francisco, moved to the Sacramento Valley where he was engaged in mining and merchandising in some early mining towns. While on a buying trip to San Francisco, he was held up by a storm from reaching his wife and children, and for about a week thought that they were all drowned by a flood that swept the store away; but the family had been rescued by the miners of the community. They afterward lived in Portland, OR, a few years then returned to San Francisco in 1865 remaining until 1870 when they again went to OR, locating in Marshland. In 1883 or before, the family settled in Clatskanie, OR, where they engaged in the manufacture of lumber and other enterprises.

Albert Monroe Tichenor and his son, Wilson Kent, ran one of the first sawmills in the Clatskanie community, the first mill being built near the cemetery on the Conyers place near town, and later moved to other locations near there and operated for a number of years after his death by other members of the family. Probably all the Clatskanie, OR, Tichenors were descendants of Albert Monroe. He and his sons have been identified with the history of the locality and known as progressive business men. He was several times elected president of the city council. In his later years he was active in church matters and a pronounced Christian. He suffered with Brights disease the last three years of his life and spent the winters in San Diego, CA, for his health.

LLT When Wilson was eighteen years old he came from the San Francisco Bay area with a family called Gillihan. Gillihan raised cattle on Sauvies Island, near Portland OR. Wilson stayed and worked on the farm until the island was flooded. Wilson being born in 1853 and coming to Oregon when eighteen he must have come and worked for Gillihan in the year 1871. The flood had to be between 1871 and 1874 when Wilson married Mary Ellen Conyers. Anyway, the flood put Gillihan out of cattle business, and Wilson went to Marshland, Oregon, where he taught school.

From 1874 to 1877 when Wilson married a second time he lived and worked about Clatskanie. After marrying Nancy Ann he moved to Astoria, Oregon, where he did fishing from a rowboat along the Columbia River. Vincent, their first child, was born in Astoria in 1881. Their second child, Vivian, was born in April 1883 in Eagle Cliff, Washington where Wilson now was caretaker and ran a fish cannery. He hired mostly Chinese help, and as Lillie recalls, Wilson hired Chinese cooks for the logging camps and to help in the hotel which he ran and owned in Clatskanie.

From 1885 to 1895 Wilson must have worked three logging operations in and around Clatskanie, and owned and operated the hotel and store adjacent to the river, as Lillie said Vincent was age four to age eight during the logging operations. She recalled that a boat "Manznella" which carried supplies from Portland to Clatskanie, docked by the hotel. She said that today where the hotel stood there is now a restaurant called "Humps Restaurant."

The Clatskanie River flooded and destroyed the hotel and store business. Wilson moved his family to LaGrand, Oregon. where he hauled mining timber to use in mining and where Veglia was born.

When Veglia was still a baby, Wilson moved the family back to Clatskanie where he logged and ran a sawmill. He ran cattle on his own and on rented property. He was, at one time, Columbia County commissioner.

MKT Sdx-San, 1880 STEPHEN JAMES[8], b July 4, 1836 in Orange, NJ; d Dec 21, 1919; ; m Eleanor Leonore Brady Sept 15, 1859. She, b 1836-37 in Ireland; d Mar 16, 1923. He lived more than 60 years in San Francisco. He took an active part in the civic and commercial affairs of the city, having been a member of the famous committee of Vigilance and of the volunteer fire department. We have an account of the life of the family by his grandson, Sherman Day Tichenor[10]. It is slightly altered to put the birth and death dates above:

SDT Grandpa Tichenor sailed for California Oct 6, 1856 and arrived in San Francisco Nov 2, 1856 aboard the old steamship, Sonora, from Panama after crossing the Isthmus of Panama. The steamship, Sonora, returned to Panama and returned with my grandmother, then the Miss Eleanor Leanore Brady, who also crossed the Isthmus of Panama. From Philadelphia, PA, she sailed for California Nov 20, 1856 and arrived in San Francisco Dec 16, 1856. For many years after their marriage, they used to picnic in Marin Co. on the old ship that was rotting away in the graveyard of old ships.

Grandpa came to San Francisco to meet his brother, Albert (Uncle Bert) Monroe Tichenor. Both being hatters, they expected to open a branch of Tichenor Hat Co. of Newark and later of Philadephia. But their plans were shattered to find that, water being so scarce and selling at 50 cents a bucket, it would be too costly. Water had to be brought to San Francisco from Marin Co. in the north across the San Francisco Bay.

Uncle Bert went to Oregon and Grandpa got a job with J.C. Horn Co., liquor dealers. Being a carefully raised boy of strict Protestant parentage, he did not want his family to know he was working for a liquor dealer so when corresponding he said he was in the grocery business. Every morning while sweeping the sidewalks in front of J.C. Horn's he used to make it a point to be there when a nice looking little Miss used to pass there on her way to work at the book bindery (Eleanor Leanor Brady). She used to speak to him and say good morning very politely. Being in the liquor business, he knew her brother-in-law, who was working in a bar, and asked who she was. He in answer, "lay off boy, she wouldn't even look at you."

It so happened that the boy and the girl got well acquainted and, in time, were married. The marriage was kept secret until, in time they expected an increase in the family, and had to make it known that they had been married on Sept 15, 1859 in the old French Church on Bush St. If not mistaken, their first home was on Nob Hill (about where the Fairmont Hotel is today). Grandma was so lonely there, as then it was so far away from the city, and she used to cry. She used to watch down the hill for Grandpa to come home and when she saw a man with a load of sticks on his back she knew it was Grandpa, who used to bring home the firewood. They moved down to 5th and Mission St just before the first baby, Albert Ross, was born.

After a few years they bought a home on Clay St., between Larkin and Polk Streets; all the rest of the children were born here. They were George Ellsworth, Mary Caroline (Sissy May) and Stephen SDT Jackson. Clay St. was a home of both joys and sorrows for a while: joys at the birth of the three children above and sorrows at their deaths when they were taken by what was then called the plague (diphtheria) which too may have taken Albert Ross, if it were not that the servant girl (Molly Earl) took him to the home of her folks in Marin County.

Clay St. again became a joy when Edwin Day, Cyrus Colfax and Austin were born. Grandma was home under the doctor's care for months after the birth of Edwin (Ed). Clay St. was home for them until about 1872 when they moved down to Jessie St.; for a while Clay St. was leased. While they were at Jesse St., the new San Francisco Mint was built, and Ed, like all boys had to play too, and suffered a severe accident; had his head split open. He was taken for first aid to a drugstore on Mission St. where his parents were then notified and came and got him.

It was not too long before they were home again on Clay St. where they remained until Grandpa sold the property and with the proceeds, bought the Summer Home Ranch, and property on California St. and two pieces of adjoining property at the corner of Jackson and Webster Streets. They moved to their new home at Summer Home Ranch near La Honda in San Mateo Co. At that time it was part of Santa Cruz Co. as San Mateo Co. had not been made; it was formed by parts of San Francisco, Santa Cruz and Santa Clara Counties. They arrived at their new home on the ranch Dec. 20, 1882, and witnessed a heavy snow storm at La Honda on Dec 31, 1882. They divided their time by staying at the ranch in the summers and California St. the rest of the time in San Francisco.

Stephen James Tichenor's job at a liquor store gave way to considerable success in business. His great-grandson, Austin Kent Tichenor[11] writes:

AKT I recall my grandfather, A.K. Tichenor, telling me of his ride through downtown San Francisco in the eighteen seventies with his father, Stephen James[8], whose commercial interests included ownership of the Oriental and Occidental Hotels, and the Blue Wing Saloon. The elegant free lunch buffet customary in that day was an unforgettable wonder to a small boy, while father satisfied a passing thirst and checked the books.

Bay Area press reports have identified the Blue Saloon as the place of origin of the Martini Cocktail, created hurriedly by the bartender there for a miner with impatient thirst about to leave on the next boat to Martinez.

Children (Tichenor):

1. Sherman Day[10], b May 2, 1904 in San Francisco, CA; m Mary Rachael Knox, daughter of Rufus Betts and Alice (Bates) Knox, Dec 13, 1952. Mary Rachael Knox, b June 9, 1913.

   Rufus Betts Knox was a pharmacist in Chicago, IL, and a graduate of Purdue University in Indiana. His ancestors were early settlers in Ross Co., OH, migrating from western Pennsylvania about 1810, some years after being released from Indian capture in 1755 by Col. Bouquer in 1764. The mother and children were held captive for about 9 years, and as the mother signed the release, it is presumed that the father, William Knox, was killed during the Indian attack on the family near Big Cove.

   Alice Bates was the daughter of Nathaniel Sampson Bates and Mary Havens. Nathaniel Bates was a Union soldier during the American Civil War. His ancestors go directly back to Clement Bates and his wife, Anna, who came to American from England in 1635 on the ship Elizabeth and settled in Hingman, MA. Alice's mother, Mary Havens, was a daughter of Rev. George Havens and granddaughter of Rev. James Havens. Both were much revered for their devotion to the saving of souls in the rustic backwoods settlements of early Indiana. Rev. James Havens was well-known as "Shoutin Jimmy" and "Old Sorrel" and for the temper that went with his unruly red hair. One historian called him the Napoleon of Methodism in Indiana. The little circuit rider was a terror to wrongdoers and a gentle sympathetic friend to those in need of his moral courage and strength. He raised a family of 15 children so he must have had much patience.

   Mary Knox was retired from Marine Corps Base in Barstow where she was a civilian supervisory draftsman in the engineering department. She was associated with the Marine Corps for 16 years. Previous to that she was a commercial artist trained in Chicago. She worked her way west during World War II when her sister, Nathalia Knox, returned from duty in the Pacific. It was a wonderful reunion for the two sisters. Nathalia is now a retired Navy nurse. After over 20 years service with the Navy she retired with the rank of Lt. Commander and is now living (1979) in western Washington and contributing her nursing capabilities and know how to a small backwoods clinic in an area that is isolated from the emergency health care so many of us expect on a routine basis.

   At the time of their marriage, Mary Knox was living in one of the Tichenor apartments on Jackson St., San Francisco, an interesting little building that had withstood the fire and earthquake of 1906. Sherman and Mary lived there after they were married in 1952 until they bought their own home in Sunset District of San Francisco. Then in 1958 they moved to Barstow, CA., where they now (1986) live. After moving to Barstow, Sherman continued his interest in gardening. This was quite a change from foggy San Francisco to the middle of the Mojave Desert. He enjoys gathering varieties of cactus and continues his cultivation of roses. He has also continued his hobby of stamp collecting in spite of his failing eyesight. He is still active in the Knights of Columbus and has recently received his 25 year pin and life membership in the Fraternal Organization of Catholic Men in Barstow where he is now one of the older members.

Austin Kent Tichenor was president of the Alaska Packers Assn, the Assn. of Pacific Fisheries, and a director of Del Monte. The Alaska Packers Assn., headquartered in San Francisco with a yard and anchorage in Alameda, engaged in the Alaska salmon trade and was one of the merging companies evolving into the corporate canning giant, Del Monte. The packers operated over two dozen salmon canneries in Alaska in addition to its fleet of nineteen square riggers and dozens of smaller steam and diesel vessels in support of the fisheries. Two of their ships, "Star of Alaska" and "Star of India," are now the featured attractions at the San Francisco and San Diego Maritime Museums.

Austin Kent Tichenor wrote in May, 1928 in answer to an inquiry about the square rigged vessels belonging to the Alaska Packers Assn.:

> The fleet of the Alaska Packers Association is used entirely in our industry, namely the catching and canning of salmon in Alaska. The advent of the steamer in our business has displaced many of these vessels, and we are now operating only six or seven sailors. We believe that we shall operate this number for many years in our business.
> Most of the fleet of the Alaska Packers Association was foreign built, and acquired American registry by suffering some disaster, after which a certain amount was spent on the hull in American shipyards for re-conditioning, that amount being sufficient, under the laws of our country, to permit them to obtain American registry.

The Association's fleet was the last great sailing fleet under sail. Austin Kent and Matilda Ann Tichenor lived in Alameda, CA, for more than 40 years. He was a member of the SAR.

NTT & NORWOOD THOMPSON[8], b Dec 17, 1839 in Orange, NJ; d Sept 12, 1925; bur at Colestown, NJ; m Celestia Kate Appleton, dau of Jonathan and Mary (King) Appleton, Mar 15, 1867, at Oskaloosa, IA. Celestia Kate Appleton, b Oct 22, 1849 in IA; d Nov 22, 1930 in Philadelphia, PA. Norwood Thompson Tichenor left school July 1, 1858, and took a position as a clerk with Archibald T. Finn & Co., #47 Broadway, New York, wholesale hat manufacturers, to learn the business. He enlisted in the Fifth NY Volunteers when twenty years old and, according to his obituary, served in 15 battles in the Civil War. He escaped uninjured and continued in service until mustered out at the close of the War.

He compiled family records and other memoranda which include some nostalgic notes about his service in the Civil War. He listed some of the battles in which he fought: "... was with Durgee Zouaves, 5th New York Infantry, Participated in the battle of of Big Bethel, 1861; Siege of Yorktown, Spring 1862; Battle of Antietam, Sept 1862; Fredericksburg, VA, Dec. 1862." Long after the war he recorded a visit to the Antietam Battlefield: "Sunday, Sept 11th, 1910, visited Antietam Battlefield. Crossed Burnside's Bridge and along the 40 acre cornfield to the Confederate Line on the Harper's Ferry Road. The Blackford House and barn on the saw mill road was still there the same as Sept. 17, 1862." Just how bloody the Second Battle of Bull Run was is evident in this note: "The 2nd Bull Run Battle on August 30th, 1862, about 4 o'clock P.M. on the Warrentown Pike the 5th New York Zouaves was supporting Capt. Haflets U. S. Battery. Men engaged, 462; Killed, 124; Wounded, 223; Bal., 115. Attacked by Hoods Brigade: 1st, 4 and 5 Texas, 3rd Arkansas, 18th Louisianna. Both Color Sergeants killed. All color corporals killed or wounded. Brought both colors off the Field."

The memoranda of Norwood Thompson Tichenor also includes the muster roll of Company I, 5th Regiment of Zouaves mustered into service at Fort Schuyler, May 9, 1861, which, of course, included his name. He described the Zouave uniform and followed it with this note signed and dated June 10, 1917: "The undersigned wore this uniform at the Battle of Big Bethel, 56 years ago today, June 10, 1861."

Nwk Dir Norwood T. Tichenor is listed in the Newark, NJ, Directories in 1865/6 as salesman; 1869-70 and 1876 to 1878 and 1881-1883. His occupation was hatter in each case. The 1880 census gives his address as Irvington, NJ. Named in his household were: wife, Celestia K., 32; and Myra A., 12; Arthur N., 10;

NTT Edgar, 8; Albert R., 6; and Clarence B., 2, all children and born in NJ. He afterward lived in west Philadelphia for many years. He recorded his last days work: "Resigned from Grim Automobile Supply House #236 N. Broad St., Philadelphia, April 6th, 1918, age 78 years." On Dec 17th that year he made this note: "Kittie, the wife of my youth, still with me. Living with her and daughter, Myrtis."

His son, Albert Ross Tichenor, entered a note in his father's writings on Sunday Dec 17th, 1922 as follows: "Father's 83rd birthday. In good health and spirits, 'for the condition he is in', - blind, feeble, palsy, stomach disorder, etc. But was up and dressed himself at 7 o'clock, although had a wakeful night. In a discourse on books, authors, etc. he recited the above in the entirety and distinctly." The "above" was this poem by Thomas Moore: "When I remember all/ The friends so linked together/ I've seen around me fall/ Like leaves in wintry weather/ I feel like one/ Who treads alone/ Some banquet hall deserted/ Whose lights are fled/ Whose garlands dead/ And all but we departed."

In 1840 he was in Galveston, TX. The 1840 census lists "Tichenor Myres and Co." and "S. W. Tichenor, Agt. for John Howels" in Galveston. On Oct 25, 1841, he sold three lots in Clinton and two in Orange, the deed giving his residence as "City of Galveston in the Republic of Texas." In Texas he became the owner and captain of steamboats plying between Galveston and other gulf and river points. Just how long he lived in Texas is not known, but from there he went to CA where he was successful in gold mining. After returning to NJ, and his marriage to Mary E. Mulford, they lived in Orange. His many real estate transactions include a subdivision in Orange from which he sold many lots in the 1860s.

Stephen W. Tichenor was twice mayor of Orange and served as lay judge under appointment of Gov. McClelland. The Newark Directories list him judge of the county court, 1878 to 1882 and living in Orange. The first town meeting following the approval of the act setting apart Orange and East Orange, was held at his office. His will written Mar 14, 1879, named only his wife, Mary E.

In 1850 he was living in the household of Jonathan T. Squire, age 55, a farmer living in Clinton T., Essex Co., NJ. Also in the household were "widow" Mary Harrison, 58, and Daniel W. Condit, a farmer, age 31. In 1843, Jonathan T. Squire was made guardian of Waldo B. and in 1857 his father became his guardian. In 1851 and 1852 Waldo B. Tichenor and Daniel H. Condit as heirs of Daniel Condit, Jr. received the proceeds of the sale of several pieces of property of his estate. The 1860 census records Waldo's residence as the Third Ward, Newark, NJ. He, age 20 (?), was a merchant having $3200 in real estate and $4000 in personal property. Henry M. Tichenor, age 1, was living in his household. Several deeds to their property recorded in Essex Co., NJ, in the 1860s and 1870s give the residence of Waldo B. and Phebe J. Tichenor as the "Town of Orange," NJ. Presumably this was their residence thereafter.

His will, written in 1878 names only his wife, Phebe Jane, and father, Stephen W. Tichenor, both as executors. A Stephen W. Tichenor died in Essex Co., NJ, Oct 16, 1938. Henry Mulford Tichenor, having in early life been strongly influenced by the reading of Paine's Age of Reason and by subsequent study of the history of religion and particularly of Marxian socialism, became an ardent socialist, and began in Dec 1900, the publication of a magazine called The New Dispensation. It enjoyed but a brief existence, and after a few years in the commercial world as a salesman in 1913, he established, with Phil Wagner, in St. Louis, MO, another socialistic magazine, The Melting Pot, of which he was the editor until it ceased publication in 1920. In the conduct of this journal, he found a medium which afforded the fullest expression of his ideas and through which his work reached its highest creativeness.

He was the author of four books: Life of Jehovah, a satire on the Jewish God Jehovah; The Creed of Constantine, The Sorceries and Scandals of Satan, a satire on the Satan of the Bible, and Mythologies, dealing with ancient mythological lore. It was said that in his special field of writing he had no rivals, and one reviewer said of his Creed of Constantine, "He writes with a felicity of style entirely his own and when it comes to satire he is an apt pupil of Voltaire himself." He was also the author of many pamphlets dealing with the sciences and religious history. Aside from being a member of the Socialist party, he belonged to no societies or clubs. His favorite recreation was the study of the sciences, history, art and drama.

JABEZ[5], b Jan 6, 1752 in Newark, NJ; d Mar 10, 1825 in Morris Co., NJ; m Mary Darsey, sister of General John S. Darsey (or Dorsey, Darcy). A tax list Oct 1, 1798 shows Jabez Tichenor living in Hanover Township; his house 36' by 28', 1 story, 6 windows, adobe; one out house; 22 acres of improved land and 20 acres unimproved. Deeds to the first property he acquired in Hanover Tp are not available, but on Dec 14, 1799 he sold a tract "that I purchased of Isaac Beach" located in Troy in Hanover Tp, adjacent to the Troy road. In 1802 and 1803 he bought several lots near where he lived. The description of one of these lots which reveals the location of his house began: "in the middle of the road that leads from Troy to Parsippany Meeting house, being the most north west corner of said Jabez Tichenor's house." This lot of one fourth acre was bought from George Bowlsby, Jr. and was formerly owned by George Bowlsby, Sr. Three other lots of 4, 6, and 15 acres were bought from Isaac Beach. One was adjacent to the road from Troy to "Parsipaning" meeting house. This lot and one of the others were adjacent to property of George Bowlsby. Two other lots of 4 and 6+ acres near by were purchased from John and Ann Cobb. The latter was sold in 1823, two years before Jabez died, Mary also signing the deed. He bought other lots in 1819 and 1820.

Jabez Tichenor was a minute man in the Essex Co., NJ militia, during the Revolutionary War. He, and presumably, his family attended the Parsippany Presbyterian Church. The minutes of the church meeting Sept 29, 1786 show that he was chosen overseer of the building of galleries at the meeting house. His will dated Jan 2, 1822 gave his residence as Hanover. He gave his wife's name as Polly in the will. She signed her name, Mary, in her will dated June 18, 1832, and named her granddaughter, Jane, daughter of Samuel W. Tichenor.

They moved to Ohio. John D. and Sarah Tichenor owned land near his father in Hanover, and some which he inherited from his father. The description of one tract mentions a run of water near the tannery of John D. Tichenor, the road from Jabez Tichenor to George Bowlsby's and the Parsippany and Rockaway turnpikes; and one tract was the "Homested farm of the late Samuel Lyon, dec'd." In 1843, David Tichenor and Caleb Tichenor, grandsons of Jabez Tichenor, dec'd, sold a tract in Hanover Tp, being the same land which Patrick "Darcy" gave to Jabez Tichenor. This suggests the question: was Patrick Darsey the father of Mary Darsey? The lot was called the mob lot and was the 4th lot which Jabez Tichenor by his will gave to son, John D. Tichenor, for his natural life and to David and Caleb Tichenor after his death.

IST ZENAS[5], b 1762 in NJ; d Nov 27, 1838 in Tompkins Co., NY; buried in the Asbury church yard; m Electa Pierson, dau of Joseph and Rebecca (Smith) Pierson. Electa Pierson, b 1765 in Orange, NJ; d Mar 22, 1843 at Lansing, NY; bur in the Asbury church yard. The Newtown Battle Chapter, Sons of the American Revolution, of Elmira, NJ, placed the official SAR bronze emblem on Zenas's grave, July 29, 1933. This was brought about through the efforts of his great-grandson, Charles S. Sellen, who was a member of the Elmira Chapter. The marker is still in place.

Joseph Pierson was a descendant of Thomas Pierson, Sr., one of the original settlers of Newark, NJ, in 1666, and a brother of Rev. Abraham Pierson, Newark's first minister. Joseph Pierson served in the American Revolution as a Pvt. in the Second Regiment, Essex Co., NJ.

ZTPen Zenas Tichenor served in the American Revolution as a private. His pension application, made July 18, 1832, states that he "enlisted under Capt. Morrison in Col. Ogdens Regt., being the 1st Regt. of the New Jersey line." He served three months when he became sick and was later taken to his father's home. He enlisted again Jan, 1778. He served several times, in all 11 months, under several captains 1779 to 1781. He moved to Lansing, New York, according to his pension application, in 1801. He was the first school teacher in Lansing and lived and died on the farm near the Asbury Church where he first settled.

Cay-D, OG 413 A Cayuga Co., NY, deed (Tompkins Co., was created in 1817 from Cayuga and Seneca Counties) gives Zenas's residence Jan 8, 1798 as Newark Tp, Essex Co., NJ. The deed from Isaac Ward, of the same place, to Zenas Tichenor was for 100 acres "in the County of Onondaga [Cayuga Co. was created from Onondaga in 1799] and in a tract of land set apart by the State of New York as a gratuity to the line of said State lately serving in the Army of the United States which said piece or parcel of land is known and distinguished on the map of the Military Township filed in the Secretary's office of this State by lot Number ninety two in the Township of Milton, the said one hundred acres to be taken out of the said lot on the Northern side thereof..."

ZT The only record we have of Zenas in NJ., other than being named in his father's will is a deed dated Jan 1, 1791, Orange, Essex Co., NJ, by which he bought 18.75 acres in Orange. The deed was not recorded, but the original deed was found in 1932 in a "dispatch box" by his great-grandson, Charles S. Sellen. Whether the dispatch box was a family possession or was found elswhere is not known.

LMTC 332 Published articles state that Zenas settled on land he received for service in the Revolutionary War about 1789 or 90. The above data shows this date to be a mistake. The statement that he received land for military service is probably a mistake also. As we have seen, he purchased land which was

MTCNY originally military land. New York did set aside military land which includes what is now Tompkins Co. This land, with few exceptions, was given as a bounty to men serving as New York troops, or were TBB citizens of New York, serving in the United States Army. There is no record of Zenas Tichenor receiving New York bounty land. The story that Zenas settled on military land, which he did, probably got altered in the telling to say that he received it for his service.

ZT IZT CCG Another mistake which appeared in print several times is that Zenas was one of 12 brothers, who served in the Revolution. Isaac Selover Tichenor, qv., grandson of Zenas, corrected one such article in his scrap book to "four brothers." The Charles C. Gardner Collection also states that the 12 brothers story is a mistake.

Joseph Smith Tichenor moved to Ithaca early in 1819 as an apprentice to Ackley and Hibbard, hatters, then in business in Ithaca. He remained and finished his time with Ackley after the firm went out of business, and was employed as a journeyman about age 21. He then removed to Trumansburg and entered into partnership with Philemon Thompson, the firm being Thompson & Tichenor. In Sept 1825 he was commissioned as paymaster in the artillery service of NY by Gov. Dewitt Clinton, in which capacity he served for a number of years. He remained in Trumansburg until 1830, when he sold his interest in the business to Thompson and returned to Ithaca where he entered into business for himself. He was educated in Tompkins Co., NY. He served in the Civil War enlisting as a private in the 105th Regiment, New York State Volunteers, Nov 15, 1861. In less than a month he was elected a lieutenant. The following March he was elected a captain for gallant conduct at battles of Bull Run, South Mountain, and Antietam. He was made a brevet major and brevet Lt. colonel for meritorious service at the battle of Chantilly, VA., Sept 1, 1862, and for like service at Fredericksburg, VA., he was made a brevet colonel.

   At the close of the war Isaac Selover Tichenor was appointed to the third auditor's office of the Treasury Dept. and served many years as chief of one of the largest divisions of the Dept. In 1882 he received an appointment as auditor and comptroller of the District of Columbia and resigned his office in the Treasury Dept. to accept the position. He served in this capacity until the beginning of the Cleveland administration when a Democrat superseded him. He was a member of the military order of the Loyal Legion; a Mason, being past master of Harmony Lodge, A.F.A.M.; and a member of Mount Vernon Chapter and Columbia Commandery, Knight Templar. He was a member of the bar of the District of Columbia. He was interested in family history and kept a scrap book of newspaper articles about his family and others and added comments and corrections to some of them. James Henry Tichenor was educated at the Ithaca academy and took a college preparatory course, but was induced by Ezra Cornell to learn telegraphy. He was first employed on the old line running from Albany to Buffalo. Later when the Erie Railroad line was completed, he was made division operator. He was studying law in the offices of Dana and Beers when the Civil War broke out. He is said to be the first enlisted soldier of Tompkins Co. He raised Company A of the 32nd Regiment NY Volunteers. After the war he resumed the study of law. In 1868 he was appointed commissary of the 5th Regiment of the National Guard, State of NY. In 1869 he was in the mercantile business in Ithaca. From 1870 to 1972 he was superintendent of motive power and telegraphy for the Geneva, Ithaca, and Sayre Railroad Co.

TCTS, 427 438 In 1871 James Henry Tichenor was appointed judge advocate on the staff of General Charles F. He was one of the originators of the Grand Army of the Republic Post in Ithaca, and filled all the offices of the order except commander. He served several terms as justice of the peace and acting recorder of Ithaca. He was admitted to the bar in 1878 and afterward followed that profession.

Cen-Tom, 1860 The sources available disagree on the names of their children. The 1860 census lists James H. Titchenor, 28, in Ithaca, Tompkins Co., NY, with occupation as "telegraph office." Named in his household were: Eliza Titchenor, 28; Frances Titchenor, 7; and Edwin Titchenor, 2.

SAMUEL[2], baptized Oct 14, 1660 in New Haven Colony; d in Newark, NJ, ca Sept 1688, an inventory of his estate having been made in Essex Co., NJ, Sept. 28, 1688; m Hannah _____. He was named in his father's will. He died intestate and on Jan 5, 1688/9 letters of administration on the estate of "Samuel Tichenal" were issued to his widow, Hannah. The inventory valued his estate at 47 pounds. The one reference we have to the real estate of Samuel Tichenor was a "survey" (date 1670 or 80s, uncertain) to Thomas Brown of 30 acres of "upland" which was bounded on the east by Rahway River, on the west by top of a hill, on the north by Samuel Tichenor and Thomas Brown. The Newark Town Records mention Samuel Tichenor twice. Jan 9, 1683/4 he signed an agreement with 56 others that fines be levied on those not attending town meetings. On Jan 9, 1687/8 he agreed with 50 others to pay "their full Proportion equally" to the minister. These are the only records that have been found concerning Samuel Tichenor.

NJApub, v XXI, 264

In 1697 Jonathan, Daniel and John Tichenor received land in right of their father. John being deceased in 1697, his son, Martin, inherited his part. Samuel is not mentioned, which makes it likely that he had no male heirs living in 1697. Daughters did not inherit equally with sons in those days, so we cannot say that Samuel did not have a daughter on the strength of this record.

Two contradictory undocumented accounts of descendants of Samuel Tichenor do exist however. These are discussed in the sketch of James Tichenor of Newark, NJ (see page 537).

DANIEL[2], b Aug 9, 1656 in New Haven Colony; d 1728; m Elizabeth Baldwin, daughter of John Jr. and Hannah (Bruen) Baldwin, 1690 in Newark, NJ. The Fundamental Agreement of the first settlers of Newark was signed by a Daniel Tichenor. It is generally considered improbable that the signer was Daniel[2] as he was only eleven years old at the time. However, no Daniel Tichenor got land in the first division of land or was on the first tax list as would be expected of a man of age. The name, Daniel Tichenor, does not appear in the records of the town meetings of Newark, after the signing of the Fundamental Agreement, until 1680. Here the record shows Daniel requesting land. This was surely Daniel[2] as he was 23 years of age at the time. The records therefore give no evidence of an older Daniel Tichenor.

RTN 3, 82 103, 104 107, 111 116

What the rules concerning the age of voters were in the colony is not known, but there seems no good reason that a minor could not have signed the Fundamental Agreement. Although temporarily in effect, it did not have the force of law, and in fact its principal provision that only members of the established church would be "admitted freemen or free Burgesses" was ignored by the governor in 1674 when he anounced that letters of admissions to towns in the province would be through the Governor and Council.

RTN 103 104, 107 111, 116

Daniel Tichenor's name appears six times between 1680 and 1700 in the town records. In 1684 he had "Liberty...to take up a piece of land in the Common..." He was chosen fence viewer in 1689 and was chosen pounder in 1690. One item in the town record Mar 5, 1693 as follows: "Whereas, there is much Prophanation of the Lord's Day in the Time of Worship, by the playing of Boys and Girls; therefore Daniel Tichenor and Thomas Lyon are chosen to look after them, and to correct them, or call them by Name as they shall see occasion, for the Year ensuing."

June 1, 1680 Daniel Tichenor was deeded 2 acres in his father's home lot. Daniel bought 4 1/2 acres in "Little or Tichenor's Neck" adjacent to that lot, May 2, 1694. In 1697 he received land, evidently jointly with his brother, Jonathan, qv., in right of their father. Sept 3, 1701 he had an "interest of one right" in purchase agreement covering Indian lands west of Newark. His will, written Nov 4, 1727, named his wife, Elizabeth, and children.

Daniel Tichenor and both wives were buried in the Old First Presbyterian Church Cem, Newark. The Newark Town Records have six references to Daniel Tichenor between 1734 and 1755 which we may assume were Daniel[3] as there is no evidence of another Daniel Tichenor living at that time who was of age. In 1734/5 and again in 1735/6 he was chosen overseer of the poor, and in 1739/40 he was collector. In 1749/50 he was on a committee to "manage the affair with Hugh Roberts relating to the Bounds of the Parsonage Medow." In 1753 he was surveyor of highways and in 1755 overseer of highways. In each case he served with one or more other men. His will dated Oct. 1, 1759, named his wife, Susanna, and children. He received by his father's will, house where his father formerly lived with all land and meadow adjoining it on the west side of the road that leads down to Maple Island, also part of his father's land west of Two Mile Brook. Mar 16, 1767 Aaron Tichenor bought 37 3/10 acres from Joseph Crowell located on the road from Newark to "Bethuel Pierson's Mill and the Mountain." A 1790 deed to a neighbor's farm also gives the location of Aaron's land as on the road from Newark to "Pierson's Grist Mill."

Ess-W, C 52

He made his will in Nov, 1816 giving his residence as Orange Township, Essex Co., NJ. The will gave household goods to his wife, Sarah; the "farm whereon he now lives" to son, Thomas B.; and money from the sale of 19 acres to his daughters, Sarah Campbell and Hannah Earl. To Lucretia Edwards, Nancy Howell and Prussia Osborn, $5 each "which shall be their portions." Their relationship was not given. To his sons he gave: to Isaac, for life and then to his children, "my place of 10 or 11 acres;" to Enos, a lot off the southwest end of homestead farm, next to the road; to Silas, two acres next to Richard Combs and "the road between my house and his;" to William, four acres "on the other side of the road and adjoining sd Richard Combs;" to Lewis the residue of his land.

Thomas B. and Susanna Tichenor mortgaged that 19 acres as well as 37 acres Orange Tp, in what is now Maplewood, Jan 11, 1820, which was described as on the road from "Newark to Bethuel Pierson's grist mill and the mountain" and was the land which he inherited from his father. They were sued by the mortgagee and the land was sold Oct 9, 1824. Eighteen acres of the 37 were bought by his son, Daniel A. Tichenor. They had sold a house and lot in Orange Tp, described as the lot where "the parties now live" on the north side of the road from Job Crowell's to Joseph B. Ball and adjacent to property "late of Juniah Beach," to David Tichenor and Daniel Tichenor, presumably their sons, Oct 9, 1824.

   In 1832 Susanna Tichenor bought 19 acres in Orange which was sold on the application of Daniel (?) Beach of Orange Tp for the partition of the property, the land being held by Daniel Beach, David Tichenor, Betsey Hand, Daniel Tichenor, Job Tichenor and "persons unknown." Other deeds also identify Daniel [A.] as her son. The 1840 census lists Susanna Tichenor, age between 60 and 70 living in Clinton Tp, Essex Co., NJ. Two males, ages 40 to 50 and 50 to 60 were living with her. Her neighbors (the four households preceeding hers in the census) were Abner Crowell, David J. Beach, Job Crowell and Benjamin Meeker. In 1842 Susanna sold three lots in Clinton Tp. near where she lived to David A. Tichenor of Clinton Tp.

She was Elizabeth Hand on Oct 14, 1864 when she was one of the grantors of a deed to eight acres of the estate of Lewis Tichenor. A Maplewood, NJ, history describes a house known as the "Widow Tichenor's Dower House" as also known as the Betsey Hand house. Evidently Betsey fell heir to or purchased the Tichenor home. An 1858 deed reveals that Elizabeth Hand, wife of Joseph B. Hand (and he) sold property in Clinton Tp, being part of land sold to Susannah Tichenor by commissioners appointed to sell land of the heirs of Thomas Tichenor July 16, 1831. The deed also included four acres adjacent to that land which was bequeathed to "Elizabeth Hand, then Elizabeth Baldwin," by the will of David A. Tichenor. Joseph B. One female 15 to 20 was living with them in Orange Tp. In 1850 he, age 57, was living with Jacob and Prussia Canfield in the West Ward, Newark, NJ. His occupation was physician. He named Prussia, wife of Jacob Canfield, in his will but did not give relationship, if any. He had a sister, Prussia, who was Prussia Osborne in 1816. We have no more data on her unless she later married Jacob Canfield. The 1850 census gives Jacob's age as 59 and Prussia's as 52. He was a cabinet maker. Enos and Dorothy Tichenor were living in Orange Tp, Essex Co., NJ, as revealed by deeds and mortgages to their property, dated 1818, and located near his father's home. Lyman S. Tichenor was an heir of Lewis Tichenor[5], qv, and may have been a third son of Aaron and Anna. In 1860 he, age 44, a shoemaker was living alone in Newark. He was listed in the Newark Directories in 1849/50, 1857/8, 1865/6, and 1870 to 1872.

Anna may have married again in 1862 or 1863. This is suggested by an Essex Co., deed dated June 2, 1863 by which John W. Blackledge, and his wife, Anna Blackledge, "formerly Anna Tichenor", sold some property to James H. Tichenor of Elizabeth, NJ, and Lyman S. Tichenor of Newark. She had once mortgaged this property to James T. Meeker.

The Newark Directories list Ambrose Tichenor in that city from 1850/51 to 1853/4, his occupation as shoemaker. The 1850 census (Sept 7) lists Ambrose Tichenor in West Milford, Passaic Co., NJ, age 21, and a carpenter. Living in his household were Emily, 19 and William L., 6/12. All were born in NJ. Evidently he moved to Newark soon afterward as he was listed in the household of Lyman S. Tichenor on Oct 11 (see above).

In May, 1848 he purchased a parcel of land in the Town of Essex, Ulster Co., NY. In 1859 he sold it to W.M. Tichenor, presumably his son. Still in the Town of Esopus in 1850, the census of that year names the following Tichenors in his household: Eliza A., 38; William, 17; James A., 11; Elizabeth, 8; and David O., 6. He was a ship carpenter with real estate valued at $800 in 1850. Most of his neighbors were also occupied in ship building. He died before 1870, in which year Ann Eliza was living with her son, David. Her real estate valuation in 1870 was $2500.

Ess-D, U 76 — Archibald Tichenor's ancestry is not known, but an 1829 deed reveals the possibility that he was a descendant of Aaron Tichenor[4]. E 489 Coe 102 Benjamin Coe was born in Jamacia, Long Island, and moved to Newark, NJ, when a boy. When he became of age he sold land in Jamacia and bought six acres in Newark on which he settled and which was occupied by descendants as late as 1900. He was a farmer and tailor and held various town offices in Newark. His will, Apr 30, 1783, named daughter, Abigail Tichenor, leaving her 50 pounds and a share in several tracts of land. He named son-in-law, Daniel Tichenor, as one of his executors.

JTBJC Daniel Tichenor was a soldier in the Revolutionary War with the rank of Lt. He entered the service in June, 1776 in Captain Elephalet Johnson's regiment. He was in the Battles of Monmouth, Connecticut Farms and other engagements. John T. Beach, a descendant of Daniel's sister, Susannah, recalled a story about Daniel: "...Daniel was up from Newark to visit his brother [Isaac in Vermont]. It must have been a crisp fall day. In the afternoon several men went to walk across the fields after a hearty dinner. They came to a rail fence and one man put his hand on the top rail and jumped over. All did likewise. After Daniel jumped somebody said, 'Dan'l, your foot touched the rail.' The reply was firm, 'It did not, but it was entitled to because it was frozen at Valley Forge'."

ATG Ess-D, K10 371 NJHSman Daniel Tichenor owned property in Newark including some of the original land of Martin Tichenor. He also owned land in Newfoundland, Bergen Co., NJ. He is said by a descendant, Anna T. Groshong, to have lived on South Broad St., Newark, in a large double house, set back from the street, the lot extending from Pennington to Tichenor St. It was later owned by Asa Whitehead. Descriptions of various pieces of his property in Newark mention land of James Tichenor, Mulberry St., Broad St., Tichenor's Lane, Tichenor St., Orchard St. and Rail Road Ave. in the boundaries. The vendue book of his estate contains a long list of personal property. The book, which has both the inventory and sale of his personal property, was given to the New Jersey Historical Society by Mrs. Alex M. Linnett in 1921. Presumably she is a descendant, but, if so, her relationship is not known. Daniel Tichenor's will, written Oct 20, 1830, named daughters, Sarah Lyon, Rachel Harrison and Abby Freeman; sons, Isaac and Gabriel; and Julia, daughter of Rachel Harrison.

books, record several lots in Newark purchased by Isaac Coe Tichenor. One lot on Broad street for which he paid $850 in 1808, he sold for $2000 in 1825. Some of his property was bought from his brother and sisters after the death of their father. One lot which had been his father's was at Broad and Thomas Street, being west of Broad and north of Thomas, fronting 90 feet on Broad and was 99 feet, 6 inches deep. Isaac Coe Tichenor was a carpenter according to the Newark Directories in the 1830s, and afterward he was a "box maker" at the "rear of 38 Walnut." Presumably this was a business. In 1850 his daughter, Harriet, and husband were living with him.

Some of the land in Newark adjacent to Tichenor's Lane which had been owned by his grandfather, Daniel Tichenor, was in the family until 1951. His will was written July 25, 1878 and proved June 3, 1886. It was recorded in Essex Co., NJ, as well as in Lee Co., IA, because he had financial interest there. In 1878 she and Charles Tichenor "the only surviving descendants fo Isaac Coe Tichenor" claimed to have an interest in property on Thomas St., in Newark, that was formerly Isaac Coe Tichenor's. GABRIEL[5], b Dec 29, 1781; d Feb 2, 1855 at Walnut Hills, Cincinnati, OH; m Elizabeth (Overaker) Wallace, dau of George Overaker. Gabriel Tichenor was a lawyer and lived in Newark, NJ, until 1806. In 1807 he was a resident of Natches, MS. In 1816 he was living in Adams Co., MS, where a state census lists in his household, two white males and one white female over the age of 21 and two females under the age of 21, and four slaves. He was still there in 1820 according to the federal census and in Natches, MS, in 1830. Essex Co., NJ, deeds by which he sold property in Newark give his residence as Natchez in 1829, 1831 and 1832, in Newark in 1833, Natches again in 1834, and Newark again in 1835. His father had named him one of the executors of his estate. Gabriel declined to serve, perhaps because he was not living permanently in Newark.

Although Gabriel Tichenor owned other property in Newark, most of what he sold in 1831 to 1835 was from his father's estate and sold to his brothers and sisters. One lot he held until 1854 was sold to one, Andrew Johnson, presumably not related. It was described as lot number 5 in the division of the farm of the late Daniel Tichenor, set off as part of the share of Gabriel Tichenor, and adjacent to "the main driftway to the salt meadow known as Tichenor's lane." Other property was described as part of the homestead of Daniel Tichenor and adjacent to the Essex and Middlesex turnpike.

Gabriel Tichenor was an officer in the Bank of the State of Mississippi which was chartered in 1809 as the Bank of Mississippi, renamed in 1818, and liquidated in 1831. The correspondence and records of the bank are now held by the Mississippi Department of Archives and History, Jackson, MS, and contain approximately 6,000 Gabriel Tichenor items which span the years 1810 to 1833.

NJHSman

Although Gabriel Tichenor was not in Mississippi long before he became connected with the Bank of Mississippi, he evidently began his career there in the practice of law. His letter of June 14, 1807 to "Joseph C. Hornblower, Esq., Counsellor at Law, Newark, New Jersey" is interesting for what it tells about him but also for the style of writing. It is as follows:

"Natchez, June 14th 1807

My dear Sir,

"If your recollection of our former intimacy had been as powerful as mine, I should have not been the first to renew it, and I feel disposed to intrude myself at this time even if the consequence should be ever so fatal.

"I do not presume to add anything to your knowledge by any fanciful or elaborate description of my adopted country either in the encomiums on its prolific soil or ready facility in accumulating a fortune - you doubtless know its geographical situation too well and believe its soil too rich to rank inferior to any portion of the United States. The Mississippi River affords an avenue thru which the Western World must rid themselves of their produce and manufactures; increasing their own importance and adding no less to the Southern settlements. From what is collected in the course of my limited observations, I do not regret the adoption of the plan of settling here. Although the present prospect is not very flattering, yet I anticipate much from the future. Like other places this territory swarms with attornies more numerous to the population than in Jersey, But they are young, inexperienced, of moderate talents, & some of them resigned to the enjoyments of idleness and intemperance. No place affords according to its number of inhabitants so much business and we are no where perhaps better rewarded. We have no superiority of talents at the bar, adding much

NJHSman encouragement to the industrious and attentive & with fortune's smiles it is probable I may procure a subsistence amidst all this causes of despondency. I feel the necessity of study and experience more than you can imagine because questions of the greatest moment daily occur before our courts in which a client may suffer by the ignorance of his advocate & the principal consolation in these difficulties arises from a conviction that my opponents know equally as much!! May that Power which guarded in many perilous hours thy humble friend during his voyage to this country, still guard & protect him from dangers during his residence in it.

"We have been amused with the remnant of Burr's expedition, becalmed or embargoed by the tide waiters or properly speaking the time fervors of the president. After the elopement of the leader, the expedition like all other bodies whether natural or corporate could not perform its functions - it travelled in various directions of the territory in search of nourishment, chiefly centering in this place, until the unlucky orders from Burr contained in the note addressed to C.T. & D. F. alarmed the executive by whose orders it was handed over to the holy care of Mr. Jefferson's Judges. These poor devils with the discernment of asses cautiously preserved it to this time until the corruption (if it ever was infected with any putridity) has corrupted our Judiciary -- in short after a detention of four months all of Burr's former friends have been discharged from the custody of the law. I was counsel for Col. Tyler against whom government possessed no evidence & an unfortunately deprived of an opportunity of shewing forth in his behalf. Our Judiciary is wretchedly constituted and miserably executed. One of the Judges has frequently been charged with forging records & other misdeeds & if conscious of the truth of the charge submits in silence.

"Our mutual friend McWhorter is no more. May Heaven secure him from trouble equal to what he suffered on earth. No other material changes I believe have happened in my absence; indeed my friend W.W. has discharged the duties of faithful correspondent so well that I soon am acquainted with the domestic matters of your town.

"Pray present my wishes for the health and happiness of Mrs. H. & the little family. No one can regret the loss of such society more than

Your constant friend and admirer,
Gab Tichenor"

Jenk Ess-M, H2 342 Ham-W Gabriel Tichenor and presumably his wife were members of the Presbyterian Church. His address in Natchez is unknown, but he once owned the property on which the house, "Hawthorne", of Mr. and Mrs. Hyde Jenkins now stands (1983). He was living in Walnut Hills, Cincinnati, OH, in 1840 as revealed by an Essex Co., NJ, mortgage. He died in Cincinnati, and his will named no descendants. The will written Dec 28, 1853, and probated in 1855, named his wife, Elizabeth; "Julia and Sarah, daughters of my sister, Harrison, and ...their brother, Jesse;" and "nephew Henry C. Freeman and his heirs." To Henry C. Freeman and heirs, he gave "my lot of land in Newark, New Jersey, being a part of the family property called the Cove". He made bequests to the Trustees of Lane (?) Seminary, Western Female Seminary at Oxford, the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions, the American Home Missionary Society, the American Tract Society, and "Christian and Ministerial Education."

The grantee was Samuel Huntington and wife,

Margaret. The deed was for part of the property of Joseph Sergeant, deceased. A 1779 deed gives the same people plus Samuel Huntington and wife, Margaret, all heirs at law of Joseph Sergeant. This leads one to speculate that this is a Camp family, and that Elizabeth's maiden name was Camp and that her mother may have been a Sergeant.

While serving as commissary general, charges were brought against Isaac Tichenor. General
W of W8 v 13 & 17 Washington, in a letter to Colonel Stephen Moylan, Head Quarters, Morris Town, March 8, 1780, wrote in part: "A court martial is to be held on the 15th April next at Springfield for the trial of Mr. Tychnor Dy. Commy. of purchases at Coos [Vermont], on sundry charges brought agt. him by Colo Hazen. I have directed the Commanding Officer at Danbury to furnish a Field Officer for president and six Captains and Subs. Six Captains and Subs are to be furnished from the two Regiments of Cavalry. You will therefore be pleased to order that number upon that duty, and direct them to be punctual in their attendance at that time."

Washington's "General Orders" Oct 16, 1780 which acquitted Tichenor give some insight in to the nature and problems of his job:

v 20 "At a General court martial at Springfield (Massachusetts) April 1780, Lieutenant Colonel Commandant Reid, President, Mr. Isaac Tichenea, Assistant Commissary for the Northern department was tried on the following charges. '1st For not complying with the orders received from proper authority - for forming a magazine of provisions on the upper part of Connecticut river in the latter part of the year 1778 and in the beginning of 1779. Second Making frequent and repeated misrepresentations of the ability of that part of the country which was assigned him as purchasing district as an excuse for such neglect and disobedience of orders. 3dly The delivery or causing to be delivered over to the issuing Commissary at Charlestown and Coos a quantity of salted Beef in a state improper to be received by him and in a condition in which it could not be saved and afterwards neglecting to provide (tho' frequently requested) the necessary articles and means to save that species of provisions by which the public have sustained a loss. 4thly A misapplication of public money in not procuring a proportion of the several and different species of provisions necessary to form a Magazine of Provisions and in particular neglecting to secure the article of flour, the most essential. 5thly The want of a proper exertion in procuring the allowance of Provisions and Rum for the troops who were serving the whole course of the summer on short allowance, and frequently without bread or flour. 6thly Not supplying his Assistant, Major Child, with money to comply with orders he had received and adequate to the Wants to fulfill the bargains and Contracts made for the public by Major Child, by which the good people of that district have been greatly deceived and injured to the prejudice of the public service. 7thly Preventing Mr. Child, his assistant, from puchasing Rum for the troops at and about Coos which was offered him at a reasonable rate and at or about the same time selling a quantity of Rum (which had been bought up for public use) at an advanced price, the Profits of which it is presumed were then intended for his own private emolument. 8thly For changing the district of Mr. Jonathan Child, his Assistant, to the prejudice of the public service and neglecting the public Provisions brought up this season and now at Charlestown in danger of being lost, all which tend to discover a want of inclination to serve the public; Judgement or Capacity to fill the office of a purchasing commissary.

"The court are of the opinion that the first second third fourth and sixth and eight are not supported, from which Mr. Tichenea is of consequence acquitted; in respect to the fifth charge the court are of the opinion that no exertion on the part of Mr. Tichenea was wanting in procuring provisions but think he wanted a proper exertion in procuring the Article of Rum. In respect to the seventh charge the court are of the opinion that Mr. Tichenea did prevent Mr. Child from purchasing Rum for the troops in about Coos but are clearly of the opinion that his selling the public rum was not only justifiable but necessary; and that the profits arising therefrom were not converted to his own emolument, but to the use and much to the advantage of the public, but for want of a proper exertion in procuring the Article of Rum the Court are of the opinion that he received a reprimand from the Commander in Chief in general orders.

"The Commander in Chief is sorry that he cannot agree with the court in the propriety of reprimanding Mr. Tichenea for not making proper exertions to procure the necessary quantity of Rum as it does not appear that he was furnished with the means of purchasing, on the contrary the court in their opinion upon the seventh charge find that Mr. Tichenea was justified in disposing of part of the Rum on hand to defray some of the expenses of the Department and which was on or about the time that the Quantity alluded to was offer'd to his Assistant Mr. Child for sale. Mr. Tichenea is released from his Arrest."

Cen-Ben, 1790 & 1800
1820 114 Isaac Tichenor was a resident of Bennington, VT, in 1790 as revealed by the census for that year. He lived there the rest of his life. Living in his household in 1790 were five males 16 years of age or older and two females. After the death of his wife, he invited Catherine Beach, his niece and the daughter of Susannah (Tichenor) Beach, into his home and virtually made her a daughter. Catherine Beach had married a Robinson and early became a widow. She later married George Lyman of Troy, NY.

Ben-W, 18(?) 154 Isaac's Tichenor's will written Jan 2, 1839, bequeathed "to my niece Catherine Lyman the wife of George Lyman and to her heirs, all my real and personal estate, subject nevertheless, to the several reservations, restrictions and payments duly to be satisfied and enforced as herein mentioned..." He reserved two rooms in the house and $30 per year for Deliverance Squires. He gave David Tichenor $500 in trust for the children of his deceased niece, Phebe Meeker, the daughter of his sister, Susannah Beach. To his nephew, Isaac N. Beach, he gave $500. Also, "It is my desire that the plate for my tea table be sent to Mrs. Betsey Tunis of Newark, State of New Jersey, with a request that she receive it in rememberence of and as a gift from her beloved Aunt. The plate was the special property of my dear wife, and I give it the direction she intended."

NAGSV The Isaac Tichenor mansion in Bennington still stands and is on a knoll and is fenced with white pickets. It is said to have been built for him prior to 1790.

Ess-W, H 347 DAVID[4], d Apr 8, 1846. His will, dated July 13, 1839, named neither children nor wife, but did name: two adopted nieces, Mary and Jane Crane; Mary Beach, widow of Isaac N. Tichenor, Rachel Harrison, Sarah Lyon and Abby Freeman, children of his brother, Daniel; Julia Lyon, granddaughter of his brother, Daniel; Samuel Meeker, David Meeker, Dorcas Chandler (wife of David Chandler), Mary Crane (wife of David Crane), children of his sister, Mary Meeker; Enos Meeker, son of his sister, Phebe; Joanna, daughter of Putnam Meeker, Rachel (wife of John Sweasey) and Nicholas Meeker, grandchildren of his sister, Phebe; Betsy, widow of Timothy Johnson, Charity, wife of John [Jonathan] Aandrus and widow, Hannah Baldwin, children of his sister, Betsy; William, Joseph and Isaac Davis, sons of Joseph Davis, deceased; Charles W. David Tichenor was buried in the First Presbyterian Church Cemetery. The inscription on his grave stone stated that he was a "patriot of 1776" and "In Battles of Monmouth and Conn. Farms." His grave was next to Daniel Tichenor, presumably his father, who died 1776.

He was a blacksmith. He was married twice and had a family of eighteen children, of whom Daniel S. is the only one now living in town." 4. Abby Susannah[6], m Lewis Pierson, son of Samuel Pierson. Lewis Pierson, b 1801; d 1889. Both he and Abby Susannah are buried in the South Orange Cemetery. They lived in what was then Jefferson Village, now Maplewood, which became part of South Orange Township in 1863. In 1843, he built a 10 room house which, in the words of nephew, David Nelson Beach, was, "in one of the Grecian orders of architecture, with great pillars and Ionic capitals" which he named Vaux Hall. He installed running water from a hillside spring on his farm and also installed "a somewhat pretentious fountain, the admiration of the neighborhood."

HPM

Lewis Pierson was successful in the milling business. He constructed a 300 foot dam across the east branch of the Rahway River, flooding 15 acres. Early in 1831, he built a three story mill with water turbine to rotate a large granite millstone. Both the mill and house are still standing and occupied by members of the Pierson family which have operated the mill for six generations. After electricity was installed in the mill in 1909 and the pond was no longer needed for power, some of the property was leased and sold. Eventually all of it was sold except where the house and mill stand.

Lewis and Abby Susannah Pierson had six children but only one, Hubert Lewis[7], (1847-1908), grew to manhood. Hubert Lewis married Emma Kays. He operated the mill but gradually left the running of it to his father and only son, Lewis Henry, (1872-1944) to take up a career in banking and was the second president of the National Bank of Orange despite blindness from a blasting accident. He also opened a boarding stable on the property which was operated for about 30 years until the automobile replaced horses.

Lewis Henry Pierson[8] took over the mill at the age of 18. The business changed with the times. Lawn seed and fertilizer were added in the 1930s, and today it is a lawn and garden business with a lawn mower repair shop. Lewis Henry married Eva Brown and had three children, Hubert Lewis, Mildred, Carleton Wellington. Hubert Lewis Pierson[9] (1898-1958) became the fourth generation to operate the mill when his father died. He worked in the mill all of his life but also had banking interest as did his father. He married Mildred Gothberg and had two sons, Hubert Lewis and Donald Edwin. Hubert Lewis Pierson[10] became sole owner of the mill in 1970. He and his wife, Sara Deems, have two sons, Lewis Gregory and Mark Hubert, who became the sixth generation to join the mill business in the 1970s.

CCG & NJHSman JOHN[3], m Esther Brown, dau of Daniel Brown. She was named in her father's will, dated Feb 9, 1730/1, as Esther Tichenor. On Apr 21, 1733, John Tichenor and wife, Esther, made a quit claim deed to David Ward for the property which was inherited by Esther and her three sisters from their father, Daniel Brown. These documents establish her as the wife of John Tichenor although another source (RTNS, page 134) does not have her name. That source names three sons, John, Ezekiel, and Daniel, all of whom made wills. Another deed dated Feb 2, 1767 reveals the name of a fourth son. In this deed, "John and Esther Tichenor, for and in consideration of the Natural love and affection which we bare unto our beloved son, Jedediah Tichenor" gives him a tract of land "joining to the high way Northerly, Southerly by J. (?) Pierson, Easterly by Obadiah Bruen, Westerly by his own land."

Ess-W, B 97 John Tichenor was named in his father's will, which gave to him the tract "where he [John] now dwells" & all land at Log Hill now within fence, and meadow at Tompkins Point, and 1/2 of a tract of salt meadow by Canfield's Creek, the other half going to his (John's) brother, Daniel. The Newark town records Apr 9, 1740 record that John Tichenor was chosen as Overseer of Highways for Newark Tp on that date. This is presumably John Tichenor of this sketch, although there was another John Tichenor, son of Martin[3] in Newark at the time.

MEKT One family historian of the NJ area in a short history she compiled in 1921 wrote: "Martin Tichenor's grandson, John Tichenor, was located in Irvington Ave. between Irvington and South Orange and built the stone house in 1753, still standing there in 1884 and some years later. An aged man named Crowell told Mr. Oscar Tichenor in 1873 the stone house still standing was the homestead of John Tichenor..." The Crowells and Tichenors had been neighbors and friends for several generations.

They then lived on Kinney St. until 1850. He bought lot 38 on Kinney St. from Isaac C. Winans in 1834. The mortgage to Winans described the lot as on the south side of a new street laid out from Washington to High Street, called Kinney St. and adjacent to lot 39 sold to Joseph Tichenor and lot 37 sold to Zadoc Tichenor. Presumably this was their residence. He paid off the mortgage of $120 the next year (1835) and mortgaged it again for $700. The lot was sold in 1851 for $1250. They then lived on Nichols near South Prospect and Garden near South Prospect, owning property at those locations until about 1857 when they moved to 13 Warwick, where they lived the rest of his life. He bought and sold other property in Newark, 1850 to 1852. The Newark Directories give Moses Tichenor's occupation as shoemaker most years but as justice of peace 1857 to 1860/61. He and Joanna had a daughter, Mary, who married Aaron Crilley and had a son, Fred.

He inherited with his younger brother, Nathaniel, their father's homestead farm and Isaac T. also received one fourth of his father's land in Bergen Co., by his father's will. He served in the Revolutionary War. His pension application made Aug 17, 1832 stated that he was living in Orange Tp, Essex Co., NJ; that he served 14 days in July 1776 as private in Capt. Matthias Lyon's Company, as substitute for his father, John Tichenor; and that from Apr 1777 till late in 1781 he served at various times, 2 years, 1 1/2 months in all, under several officers.

Deeds and mortgages to his property give Orange as his residence 1809 to 1836. The 1830 census reveals that two close neighbors in that year were Rachel Tichenor and Mary Tichenor in Orange Tp. In 1833 he made an affidavit in support of the pension application of Simon Hedden, his residence being Clinton, Tp. He made such an affadavit in 1834 for Zephaniale Hedden, his residence being Clinton Tp. Clinton Tp was created in 1834 and presumably he had not moved. David Tichenor was described as a mason living in Orange Tp, Essex Co., NJ, in a Feb 1808 deed to property from his father's estate. He owned several lots in Essex Co. and owned six or more at the time of his death. In Aug 1853 his son, Alfred, bought the interest of his brothers and sisters in six lots. Three of these had been owned by David's father. One of these three lots in Clinton Tp was described as being in "Wolf Harbor", and one was in Newark Meadows in "a place called Club" on the west side of Maple Island Creek. Two of the lots David had bought from his brothers. These may also have been part of his father's estate. The grantors of the six lots to Alfred were Daniel D. K4 125 A4 144 K4 457 L4 420 Tal-W, __ 134 TBT & Daniel D. Tichenor was married again two or three times. Only a few details are available. Several deeds are recorded in Essex Co., NJ, to Daniel D. Tichenor of Newark, NJ, in the 1830s. Two of these in 1835 and 1836, Daniel D. Tichenor and wife, Deborah, grantors, are presumably Daniel D., subject of this sketch. In 1853 he and wife, Mariana, were living in Youngsville, Tallapoosa Co., AL. Her will written in June, 1848 names her husband, Daniel D. Tichenor, and "children of my present marriage," which indicates that the marriage had been of several years duration at that time. She did not name the children but named her "oldest son Joseph R. Luke." Her will was probated June 14, 1858, indicating that she had died a few weeks previous.

Ess-D, X13 450 C16 92 Z8 127 R8 272 Another Essex Co., NJ, deed also gives the Youngsville, AL, address and his wife as Evalina, in May 1868. Yet another Essex Co. deed, May 1871, gives the address of Daniel D. Tichenor, widower, as Cussets, Davis Co., TX. (Davis Co. became part of Cass Co. shortly after this date). This deed was made to clear up the title of the property of the May 1867 deed which was sold to David C. Tichenor. The 1880 census lists him as a clerk (cleric ?), age 72, born in NJ and living in Dallas, TX. Living in his household were sons, A.J., 29, a night watchman for a R.R., born in AL; and James L., 26, confectioner, born in AL. The mothers of both sons were born in AL according to the census.

TBT Daniel D. Tichenor, as the above date indicates, moved to AL before the Civil War and to TX after 1868 and in 1871 or before. He and his three sons are known to have been in Dallas in 1878. He was a Methodist evangelist and helped lay the groundwork for Grace Methodist Church in Dallas. The first congregation met in a frame building and he died before the present brick building was built. A stained glass window was included in the building which reads, "In loving memory of Rev. D.D. Tichenor."

The available data indicates that Marianna L. was the mother of Alfred Joseph and that the children (after the first marriage), named below, are incomplete unless David was also her son.

Children (Tichenor) (Alfred Joseph out of order for better grouping):

1. David[8], d 1889 to 1891. He was a water commissioner of Dallas, TX, in 1889. He was not listed in the 1880 census but the 1880-81 Dallas City Directory indicated that he was an engineer with Dallas Compress and made his home with his father.
2. James L.[8], b Jan 6, 1861 in AL; d Mar 19, 1926 in Dallas, TX; bur in the Greenwood Cem, Dallas, TX; m Fannie _____ in 1918 (?). They had no children. He became acquainted with a member of the Kentucky branch of the Tichenors, Mary Vitula Tichenor[7] and her husband, Dr. Slade J.K. Taylor and assisted them in publishing a Taylor genealogy. His birth date above, as per the funeral director, does not agree with the 1890 census.

Tichenor and Edith M., his wife, of New York, NY, sold what is presumably inherited property on S. 11th St. in Newark.

Children (Tichenor):

Sdx-Ess, 1900 1. Ida[8], b Aug 19, 1855; d after 1921. She was single and living in Irvington, NJ, in 1900 and 1921 and wrote letters which are quoted by CCG (see sources).

Sdx-Ess, 1900 2. Minturn Hayes[8], b Mar 2, 1857; m Hettie or Hester _____, who was born Oct 1867 in NJ. The 1900 census lists him in Irvington, NJ. Living in his household besides his wife were children: Rowland W., b April 1884; Charlotte W., b Apr 1887; Robert (?) W. age 10; Charles M., age 2; and another son age 3 whose name was not readable in the source available; and one boarder. All were born in NJ. In 1921, Minturn Hayes Tichenor was living near Hackettstown, NJ. The probate record of the estate of his brother, Bryan Ward, in 1922 reveals the names of three of his (Minturn's) children: Charlotte Harris, Gertrude, and Jessie.

Nwk Dir Sdx-Ess, 1900 3. Herbert Ward[8], b Dec 21, 1858; m Jennie A. _____, who was born Oct 1859 in NJ. The 1883 Newark Directory described him as a machinist living at 61 Tichenor St. He was listed again in the directories in 1905, 1906, 1917 and 1918, living in Irvington. The 1900 census lists them in Irvington, NJ, with two daughters, Edith, b Feb 1882 in NJ and Helen, b Feb 1895 in NJ. Edith married a Sharwell and Helen married a Weber as revealed by the will of their uncle, Bryan Ward Tichenor.

Nwk Dir, 1878 to 1887 4. Bryan Ward[8], b Sept 27, 1861; d Aug 30, 1922 in Essex Co., NJ; m Edith M. _____, who died before Aug 30, 1922. Bryan Ward Tichenor was a resident of Irvington, NJ, as revealed by the Newark Directories, from 1878 to about 1887. He studied law in Newark, 1878 to 1881 and afterward was a stenographer and lawyer. He then moved to Prescott, AZ. A newspaper of the area ran a sketch about him in 1892 which is, in part, as follows:

AR

> Mr. Tichenor graduated from a High School at thirteen and began to read law at 14 years of age. At twenty-one he was admitted to the Bars of the Court of Chancery and the Supreme Court of his native state, and received at the hands of the Bench unusual favor. He was the youngest man ever appointed to the responsible positions in that state of Supreme Court Commissioner and Master and Examiner in Chancery, both of which conferred large judicial powers. Mr. Tichenor acquired and used as an aid to the practice of law the art of stenography, and, without conscious effort, became a rapid writer. This with his comprehensive knowledge of judicial proceedings made him master of the profession of court reporting.
> In the winter of 1886 Mr. Tichenor came to Arizona on a government commission, and was engaged in its execution in the northern part of the Territory for about three weeks. While there he became infatuated with the climate and vast possibilities of the, to him, new country, and in June of the same year returned with his wife to make Prescott their home. His skill as a court reporter becoming known, he was tendered and accepted the appointment of official reporter in all three judicial districts of the Territory. Since then, Mr. Tichenor has reported most of the important cases tried in Arizona...

CCG & NYDir It is not known when he left Arizona, but he was living in New York, NY, 1896 to 1913. He returned to New Jersey, date unknown, and died a legal resident of Essex Co. His will written the day before he died, and because he knew he was dying, named the following: sister, Ida; sister-in-law, Emma L. Moore, wife of Walter D. Moore and sister of his deceased wife, Edith; brothers, Minturn H. Tichenor and Herbert W. Tichenor, deceased, and his widow, Jennie; Jennie's daughters, Eddie and Helen; Mrs. Charlotte Harris, Gertrude, and Jessie, children of his brother, Minturn. Also named in the will but relationship not given were: Grace Lee, Edith Sharwell, Helen Weber, Rolland W. Tichenor, George A. Tichenor, Gertrude E. Tichenor, Charles M. Tichenor, Robert M. Tichenor, Hester F. Tichenor, guardian of Jesse Tichenor, infant, and others.

They settled on a farm in northeast OH near Chardon, and near his brother, John T., and later lived in Rockford, IL. He was a justice of the peace and sheriff. His great nephew, William Henry Ballard, remembered him and his farm: "Uncle Warren's farm was a few miles out of Chardon, near a little cross roads village called Hamden. He was a tall lean man with shaven cheeks and a chin whisker which, as I remember it, was about a foot long. He had a dry Yankee wit, but was very dignified and no one ever took any liberties with him. He had a large and fertile farm of nearly three hundred acres, a large house, I have no idea how many rooms, with large barns... There were always extra plates on his table and no tramp, peddler or chance traveler stopped at meal time and did not sit down at the table for the meal. If night was falling they had a room and bed, and the only stipulation was that they knelt with the family before going on their way." Warren and Orpha Ballard had no children.

TGB & JTH MARY ELIZABETH[7], b July 14, 1840 in a log cabin on her father's pioneer farm near Richburg, NY; d Apr 22, 1918 in Richburg, NY; bur beside her husband in the Richburg (NY) Cem. She was known as Polly and that name is on her grave stone. Grandson, John T. Horton, remembers her "as a very pleasant looking woman with a fair complection, sandy to reddish hair and a good figure. She was of merry temperament, and rather often sharp and witty in her comments." She married John Hatch, Jr., son of John and Prudence (Potter) Hatch, June 14, 1860. John Hatch, Jr., b Feb 14, 1832 in the Town of Athole, Warren Co., NY; d Dec 29, 1902 in Richburg, NY; bur in Richburg Cem. A prosperous farmer, John Hatch, Jr., retained his farm in the Town of Clarksville and moved with his family to Richburg where he profited from the great oil excitement of the early 1880s. He did a lucrative business in selling hay, oats, and other grain to the teamsters who hauled rigs and gear from drilling site to site in the oil field.

Children (Hatch):

1. Wesley Herman[8], known as Herm, b Feb 12, 1863 on his parents' farm; d Nov 1891; bur in the Richburg Cem according to Masonic rites; m Beatrice Roberts Apr 9, 1890. He grew up in Richburg, NY, and as did his sister, Cora. He had considerable talent as a thespian and played many parts on the amateur stage. Something of a musician, he played the cornet in the village band. Having learned from experience how to handle the tools of the trade, Herm Hatch recruited a team of oil well drillers and began to sink wells as an entrepreneur. The business prospered, in part, because he worked along with his crew in the drilling rig through weather fair and foul. Luck as well as labor accounted for some of his success. Oil was struck repeatedly. Exposure to wintry weather caused him to fall sick of a pulmonary ailment which soon worsened and he died after less then two years of marriage. He had no children.

JTH Cora Hatch grew up in Richburg and during the great oil excitement of the 1880s, she was prominent in a circle of young people drawn from the better families in what had been once a wild and somewhat lawless boom town. In her circle of friends the production of stage-plays was a favorite pastime. In these she, a young woman of extraordianry good looks, often played a stellar part. She did so well that her father became afraid that she would go on the professional stage. In his judgment that was no career for a respectable woman and he ordered her to cease her thespian activities.

Children (Beatty):

1. Robert Leland[9], b Dec 21, 1900 in Bolivar, NY; d 1968 in Huntingdon Woods, MI; m Evelyn Whalley Sept 9, 1924. He grew up in Buffalo, NY. At an early age he enlisted in an old Buffalo infantry regiment of the New York National Guard and on the eve of our entry into World War II, he went with the regiment into the federal service. A lover of guns, rifles, and other firearms, he became an ordinance expert. After long tours of duty in both the United States and Europe he retired from the Army with the rank of Lt. Col.

2. Florence Maude[9], b Feb 1906 in Bolivar, NY; m Edward Volk Aug 27, 1952 while he was still in the Armed Service of the United States. He, d July 1, 1983. Florence Maude Beatty, an alumna of the Albright Art School of Buffalo, NY, had a long and successful career in the art department of a prominent printing and publishing firm in Buffalo. She is now retired and lives in the town of Tonawanda, a suburb of Buffalo.

3. Myrta Adelle[8], d in infancy.

4. Jeanette[8], b Nov 2, 1878 in Richburg, NY; d Oct 26, 1965 in Buffalo, NY; m Milton V. Horton Jan 1, 1902. He, b Aug 25, 1871 in Weston, NY; d Jan 24, 1938 in Buffalo, NY. As a young man he looked after his mother's ancestral farm near Richburg, NY. He was not, however, a farmer by calling but an accountant who had received his business education in Buffalo. For several years he kept books for the Beatty and Jordan Machine shop owned by his brother-in-law, Samuel A. Beatty, and cousin, Leroy Jordon. He moved with his family to Buffalo where he became an accountant in the famous Pierce Arrow Motor Car Co. After the decline of the company he retired because of poor health.

Politics was one of the major interests of Milton V. Horton. He was twice elected supervisor of the Town of Wirt. That position made him ex officio a member of the governing board of Allegany Co., the Board of Supervisors. That was approximately 1908 to 1912. In 1908 he was a member of the Republican County Committee where he worked hard for the election of Taft to the Presidency. In 1912 he deserted Taft to become an ardent supporter of Colonel Roosevelt whom he admired this side of idolatry. Other public men of his time whom he admired were Elihu Root, Charles Evans Hughes, and Calvin Coolidge. He did not admire Herbert Hoover and in 1928 cast his last vote for the Presidency for Al Smith.

If motherhood and housewifery were Jeanette Hatch Horton's serious vocations, she had other interests. In her later years she held a job as a persuasive saleswoman in a department store. Earlier in life, like her sister, Cora, she displayed talent as an amateur actress, especially in the role of a comedienne. She sang a resonant and melodious contralto. She was an ardent woman suffragist and a great admirer of such feminist leaders as Susan B. Anthony and Carrie Chapman Catt. She, her mother, and her mother-in-law belonged to a suffrage club in Richburg which dedicated itself to the study of American history and current public questions. She had the sympathetic support of her husband and both were gratified when the Woman Suffrage Amendment became part of the fundamental law of the land.

Children (Horton):

1. John T.[9], b Sept 29, 1902 in Bolivar, NY; m Evelyn Blanch Williams June 18, 1935 in Buffalo, NY. She, d Aug 23, 1983 in her 77th year in Gainesville, FL. She became the first woman officer of the prestigious firm of the Title and Mortgage Guaranty Co. During the days of the New Deal she joined the local staff of the Home Owners Loan Corporation. She was a member of the Buffalo Fine Arts Academy. She served a term as president of the University of Buffalo Woman's Club and a term as president of the local chapter of the American Association of University women.

They have one son, Richard C., born in Buffalo, NY, Feb 2, 1940. He is a veteran of the war in Vietnam. He lives in Arlington, VA, and is employed by the IBM Corporation. He and his cousin, Anne Horton Lisca, are the only great-great-grandchildren of Polly Tichenor and Enoch Ballard, who pioneered in the forest around Richburg, NY, almost a century and a half ago.

3. Jean Elizabeth[9], b Nov 14, 1912 in Richburg, NY. She never married. After a career as a saleswoman that carried her from the states of the Great Plains to those of the Rocky Mountains, she now lives in retirement in Denver, CO.

At a bend in the road the stranger appeared out of the woods and shot him. His sister, Mary Elizabeth, went to PA to nurse him but the wound proved fatal.

DANIEL[4], d 1784; m Jane (or Jean) Hedden, dau of John and Hannah (Riggs) Hedden. There were several Daniel Tichenors in NJ, contemporaries of the subject of this sketch. It is not possible to determine which data applies to whom in every case. The will of his brother, Ezekiel, mentions 3 acres in the "Congar lot" which belonged to his (Ezekiel's) brother, Daniel. Daniel's will, written May 13, 1784 and proved July 16, 1784, named the children below.
Children (Tichenor):

1. Josiah[5], d Dec 1799. He received all of his father's real estate and personal estate except three cows and a set of curtains by his father's will.
2. Hannah[5], under age 18 in 1784. She received 100 pounds to be paid by her brother, Josiah, when she became 18, and one cow and a set of curtains, by her father's will.
3. Rhoda[5], under age 18 in 1784. She received 100 pounds to be paid by her brother, Josiah, when she became 18, and one cow, by her father's will.

JEDEDIAH[4], d 1800 or 1801; m Anna Camp. She d Oct 24, 1815. He died intestate, and Moses Tichenor and David Tichenor were the administrators of his estate. Jedediah Tichenor bought 20.4 acres of land in Newark Mar 30, 1754 from Silas and Abigail Halsey. It was on the "Southward Side of the Road, the Westward of Two-Mile Brook" and bounded "Northerly by said Highway, easterly by the land of John Tichenor, Southerly by the land of Silas Halsey, westerly by the land of Nathaniel Camp."

On Feb 2, 1762, "John and Esther Tichenor for and in Consideration of the Natural Love and affection which we bare unto our beloved Son Jedediah Tichenor and for the better maintenance and Livelyhood of him the Said Jedidiah hath Given ... [him] all that mesauge or tenement Situate in Newark Joining to the highway Northerly, Southerly by J [or I] Pierson, Easterly by Obadiah Bruen, Westerly by his own Land, by Estimation, three or four acres." On April 16, 1773, Ezekiel Tichenor, brother of Jedediah, made a quit claim deed to Jedediah for all of his interest in "Land lying and adjoining the House of the Said Jedediah Tichenor, Bounded North by the road East by Land of Obadiah Bruen west by Nathaniel Camps Land and South by the Land of Isaac Pierson & Eliphelet Johnson. Also four acres of fresh meddow at Tompkins Point Lying Below the great Ditch on the South Side of the Lot and also the Lot of Salt Meadow Down Below Joyning Uncle Daniel Tichenors Meddow by Canfields Creek..."

His work on the highways is recorded: one day Nov 5, 1785 and one day May 29, 1789, and also "credited by a plank for the bridge, tallied at a day's work Nov 17, 1787." This was possibly the way of paying his road tax. Alex Eagle's account book shows "soling slay" Jan 20, 1780, and making "grate whel spendel" Jan 10, 1780 for Jedediah Tichenor and he being credited by one bushel of wheat.

Ess-O, A 254

The inventory of Jedediah Tichenor's estate Jan 10, 1801 included farming implements, a loom and carpenter's tools. A petition to divide his land named the following heirs: Moses, James, David, Hannah & Nancy Tichenor, children of John Tichenor, deceased; Isaac, Sarah, & Mary Ann Tichenor, children of Moses Tichenor, deceased; Elsie, daughter of Peter Tichenor, deceased; Stephen Tichenor; Comfort Young, Ann Tichenor, Sarah Tichenor, & Mary Tichenor, daughters of Jedediah Tichenor.

NJA-P Isaac, Sarah, and Mary Ann inherited lot #2 in the division of the land of their grandfather,

L2 756 mortgages to their property give their residence as Orange Tp from 1815 to 1820 and Newark
O2 326 Tp in 1822, 1829 and 1834. According to Connecticut Farms Presbyterian Church records, B3 80 Jemima Tichenor asked for membership June 4, 1814. Their children, Moses, Sarah Ann and R3 241 Mary Camp were baptized June 17, 1815 (?), and daughter, Henrietta, June 15, 1816.

HOC 247 In a sketch about him in an Ontario County, NY, history, Isaac M. Tichenor is described as 248 of "French descent and educated by a French tutor. After a few years spent on a farm, he went into the shoe business in Newark, NJ, which he followed until about 1837, when on account of ill health, he was ordered by his physician to find a quiet home in the country. He was an ardent student of nature, and after inspecting the country all about, permanently located on the west shore of Canandaigua Lake, where he bought the farm now occupied by F.O. Chamberlain. He was there about twelve years,and then bought the farm where the rest of his life was spent. Tichenor's Point on the lake is named for him... He was a strong Republican. He was also a soldier of the War of 1812, and at his death was one of the last survivors of the war." The second farm is (in 1893) "a beautiful place of 175 acres, which has become a very popular summer resort. Immediately in front of the old homestead is a camp of the Natural Science Club."

OCH The first farm he bought in Ontario Co., NY, was bought in 1834 and sold in 1842. The date
Cen-Ont, of the second one is not known but the 1850 census gives his real estate valuation as 1850 193 $10,000 and his occupation as farmer. Living in his household were: Jemima, 62; Moses, 40 and a farmer; Isaac W., 21; Sarah 32; Mary, 30; Almira, 25; and Harriet, 27, all Tichenors and born in NJ. Three others, perhaps hired help, were also in his household. The 1840 census shows the family living in Canandaigua, Ontario Co., NY, also. They had eight children according to the Ontario Co. history mentioned above, which named only Henrietta D., Harriet P. and Almira, the only ones living in 1893. If we assume those named in the 1850 census to be children, the available copy of the Connecticut church record is in error as to dates.

RT-T 20 JOSEPH[3], b probably between 1680 and 1690 in Newark, NJ; m Elizabeth _____: d 1750. After his death, Elizabeth married Samuel Wade before Nov 6, 1751. Joseph Tichenor left Newark and moved to Morris Co., NJ, in 1725 to 1730. In 1731 he acquired land in New Vernon--a few miles south of Morristown--from two attorneys who were agents for John Alford in selling a large section of land which he had received from the Council of Proprietors of West Jersey in 1715. These men were citizens of Essex Co. in which Newark is located, and it is probable that arrangements for the purchase of this land were made in Newark by Joseph and several other pioneer familes. A second tract of land was purchased in 1739. He also acquired land in what is known as "Turkey Pasture" from the heirs of William Penn. Turkey Pasture is in the Great Swamp, now a wild life preserve.

HMC 10 30 In the records of the First Presbyterian Church of Morristown we find the words, "confest for disregarding the lot" by Joseph's name. This referred to a casting of lots to settle a dispute over establishing a church in Morristown. The people of Morristown, or West Hanover as it was named then, worshipped at the Presbyterian Church at Hanover which was established by 1718. By 1733 the population of Morristown (not offically named that until 1740) had greatly increased, and the desire became general to have a church of their own. When the eastern portion of the parish opposed the move, the church resorted to the casting of lots, which resulted against the proposed division. The lot, notwithstanding, a Morristown church was organized and a confession for disregarding the lot was PCM 232 required of those who had a part in it, Joseph among them. The church records also show that he renewed his covenant April 24, 1743 and became a communicant in Sept 1749.

CCG & NJA-W, #74N Joseph and Elizabeth Tichenor had seven children. The first five named below were named in his will written Mar 1, 1750. These children were minors and Joseph did not appoint a guardian. On Nov 5, 1751, Joseph, James and Jane being over the age of 14 asked the court to appoint Thomas Woodruff, Jr. of Elizabeth, NJ, their guardian, which the court ordered. Daniel and Moses were also minors, but under the age of 14 and not entitled by law to choose their guardians.

She died in Hardy Co., WV. Her will dated Oct 19, 1818 is recorded in that county. She, m 2nd _____ Ryan. Her maiden name is believed by descendants to have been Jackson, but documentation is not available.

Mor-D, O 90 — Moses Tichenor was willed 51 acres in Morris Co. by his father. On Apr 1, 1771 Moses Tichenor sold two tracts in "Morristown." One tract 24.7 acres "where on the Moses Tichenor now lives" and adjacent to a road on the east side of Pine Brook. The other tract 25.5 acres was adjacent to Pine Brook and was described as "being part of the tract known by the name of Turkey Pasture." This is evidently Moses, the subject of this sketch, and the land he received by his father's will as the acreage and location (Turkey Pasture) correspond, however, the deed was signed by him alone, his wife not signing it also as was the general rule.

Hamp-D, 5 129 6 60 8 496 All-D, A 244 A 260 — In Sept 1779, Moses Tichenal bought 567 acres in two tracts on Cabbin Run in Hampshire Co., VA. His residence given in the deed was Morris County, NJ. He sold the land in 1783 at which time his residence was Washington County, presumably in MD. Washington County, MD, included what is now Allegany and Garrett Counties. Also, in July, 1792 he sold 180 acres on the "north branch of Potowmack" in Hampshire Co. which he had purchased in July, 1789. His residence given in the deed was Hampshire Co. In the same month, he purchased 300 acres on the Salt Rock Fork of Sandy in Garrett Co., MD. His residence given in the deed was Allegany Co. which disagrees with the Hampshire Co. deed. Possibly he was moving to Allegany Co. at that time. Also, he bought 52 acres in Allegany (now Garrett) Co. known as "Aaron's Lot" located a little above the mouth of the Savage River in 1792. One of these tracts was probably his residence after that date.

A 495 — He sold a tract of 7 1/2 acres in Allegany Co. near the mouth of Gum Spring Run, a sawmill to be built and a coal mine to be operated on it, the deed dated 1794. It was to be jointly owned by the grantee and Moses, each to have half interest. A complete record of his real estate tranactions does not appear to have been recorded. He owned 268 acres at the time of his death, his estate being assessed for that acreage.

WVR — He served in the Revolutionary War. He was listed in a Captain Layton's Co. of Morris Co., NJ Militia in 1778 and was drafted into the VA Militia for a tour of duty to guard the prisoners, taken at the surrender of Lord Cornwallis at York Town, who were confined in Frederick Co., VA. His son, David, was enrolled as a substitute and served from Nov or Dec in 1781 until Mar 12, 1782.

The spelling of Moses Tichenor's name varies from the time he left NJ, but he evidently used the spelling, Tichenal. While no record of his name with that spelling has been found in NJ, there is one Morris Co. deed for his brother, Daniel, spelled Tichenal. We have seen that Martin Tichenor's name ended in "l" in several instances in New Haven Colony records, and in a few cases his sons' names in Newark also end with "l". The spelling, therefore, has a basis in family history. Several spellings ending in one or two "ls" are in use today by Moses's descendants and as far as is known, none spell their name Tichenor.

All-P — The administration papers that have survived of Moses Tichenor's estate mention but do not name his widow. It names [sons-in-law] John Smith, Henry Duckworth and Thomas Pritchard, the latter being the guardian of [Moses's children], Stephen, Margaret and Jane, who were named as minors. Also named were [grandchildren] Betsey and Wm. Smith with John Smith as their guardian.

David Tichenal bought 168 acres in Hampshire Co., VA, in Oct 1807 and sold it in Mar 1810. His residence given in both deeds was Allegany Co., MD. He probably moved to Harrison Co., WV, soon after selling this land. The census shows him living there in 1820. In 1810 he bought 225(?) acres on the west side of the west fork of the Monongalia River at the mouth of Lamberts Run. He deeded this land to his son, David, for the "consideration of maintaining myself and my wife, Mary, and furnishing us with the necessities of life for the ease and comfort so that we may not suffer during our natural lives," in 1844. For this consideration, David, Jr., also received livestock, household items, three stills, blacksmith tools, wagons, guns and books. David, Sr. also bought a large acreage in Harrison Co. in 1825 between the Monongalia River and Rainsons (?) Mill.

David Tichenal's will, written Mar 17, 1842, named wife, Mary; sons, Daniel, David and Moses, and dau, Margaret Little, wife of Josiah Little. The will also reveals that David was living at the time of his death on a tract of land on Westfork River in Harrison Co., (W)VA opposite the mouth of Simpson's Creek. This was also the residence of his son, David, as the 1850 census lists them in the same household. The tract contained 250 to 300 acres and was by the will to go to sons, Daniel and David, after the death of their mother, provided they support John Fox "who has resided with me for many years" if he becomes unable to support himself. The residue of the estate after the death of Mary to be equally divided between all children.

Rebecca Harbert, b ca 1796 in Harrison Co., (W)VA; d after 1860 in AR. After the death of John R., she married William Harvey McMurtrey and had three children, Samuel, James, and Thomas H. About 1819 John R. Titchenal moved his family from Harrison Co., (W)VA to MO. The location in MO is unknown except that he was on the tax rolls in Gasconade Tp. Franklin Co. in 1819. Franklin Co. was very large at the time and included an area which comprises several counties today. He is said to have followed the trade of blacksmith in MO for four years. By about 1823 he had moved his family to the vicinity of Ft. Smith, AR, where he settled and was engaged in raising live stock. The 1830 lists him in Crawford Co., AR, with 12 people in his household. His house stood just below what is now the eastern approach to the Missouri Pacific Railroad bridge. The Titchenal spelling was adopted in this generation and is continued by John R. Titchenal's descendants.

MARY ELLEN[7], b Aug 23, 1815 in Harrison Co., (W)VA; d Nov 27, 1878 in AR; bur Falconer Cem, Sebastian Co., AR; m William Andrew Falconer, son of Peregrine and Eliza Falconer, in 1835 in AR. William Andrew Falconer, b 1809 in Baltimore, MD; d Aug 29, 1848 in Sebsastian Co., AR; bur Falconer Family Cemetery, Falconer Ranch, Sebastian, AR. He moved to the Fort Smith, AR, area in 1829 and entered the mercantile business at Skullyville, Indian Territory. He and Mary Ellen met in the home of Dr. Jonathan McGee in Van Buren, AR, in 1834 and and were married in his home a year later. On May 8, 1838 Falconer purchased 80 acres 4 1/2 miles from Fort Smith, in what is now Sebastian Co., AR, (created in 1851), and soon after purchased 160 acres adjoining the 80 acres. This ranch eventually grew to "hundreds of acres." All of the children of Mary Ellen and William A. Falconer except the first two were born on the ranch.

In addition to ranching, William A. Falconer practiced medicine. He probably learned his profession by studying with other medical men and did not have a medical degree. In a letter to his brother in 1848, he stated that he rode "night and day in my practice." Involved in civic affairs, he was instrumental in getting the Masonic Order established in Fort Smith. He was an active member of the Episcopal church. Bowing to the wishes of his pastor for a church in Fort Smith, he began to build one on his own property the year he died.

When their daughter, Susan Eliza, died at two years of age, she was buried on a beautiful wooded knoll on the ranch. This was the beginning of the Falconer Family Cemetery. William A. Falconer himself was the second to be buried there. Within a rock walled fence are the graves of almost a dozen members of the family. Outside the fence are many graves of neighbors, friends and others. John Luce, great-grandson of William A. and Mary Ellen Falconer, recently won a lawsuit against the Coca Cola Bottling Company over the ownership of the cemetery. That company now maintains a fence around it and a driveway to it. Today the cemetery, an acre in size, is all that remains of the Falconer ranch. There are now no descendants in the area with the Falconer name.

In 1855 Mary Ellen Falconer married Thomas McCarron, who was born in Ireland in 1822. They lived in Fort Smith for a time but later moved back to the ranch. When the Civil War broke out, McCarron thought it best to move the family to Texas. The Falconer men, however, stayed in AR.

After the Union forces took control of Arkansas, ruffians, both red men and white, preyed on the settlers. To combat them, John Perry Falconer organized a company of scouts to hunt down and punish those guilty of crimes against the people. The company operated through the war and afterward was very sucessful in its mission. Falconer became a living legend for his exploits. He and Fanny had three children.

She, b Nov 3, 1818 in Champaign Co., OH; d Aug 11, 1895 in Santa Ana, CA. Both are buried in the Fairhaven Cemetery, Santa Ana. They met in 1838 when he visited friends in OH. While they lived in AR he was engaged in raising live stock. They lived in Sugar Tp, Crawford Co., AR, where their first five children were born, until about 1849 or 1850. In that year they moved to Texas where he took up the mercantile business.

In 1852, possibly lured by the stories of gold, the Titchenals decided to go to CA. The route they took to California is not known, but it is probable that they went by land to San Francisco, and proceeded from there by ship. It is known that their daughter, Mary Ellen, age three, died on the trip while at sea and was buried at sea. They left San Francisco for Mariposa County to mine gold at Indian Gulch. It proved disappointing and they soon moved to Hornitos in Mariposa Co. and became engaged in farming and teaming. In 1855 the family moved to another place in Mariposa Co. and lived 13 years on the Guyun Ranch near Hopeton on the Merced River below Snelling.

On March 4, 1869 the William Henry Titchenal family started for Southern California by way of Ventura and Los Angeles, arriving at Santa Ana, which became their permanent home, on Nov 9, 1869. They bought two lots and followed farming and teaming. Great-grandson, David L. Titchenal, Jr., tells the story of the Titchenals in Santa Ana: "The Methodist Episcopal Church South holds the distinction of being the first religious organization in Santa Ana, which was effected at the home of W. H. Titchenal in December 1869.

BHTF 5 "In 1871, William H. Titchenal bought thirty-six acres of land and erected the first dwelling house in Santa Ana on lots eight and nine. In the Santa Ana Daily Herald of Tuesday, April 1, 1902, a section was devoted to 'Twenty Five Years Ago (1877).' This section contains a picture of the Titchenal House on the south side of Fourth Street, between Main and Sycamore Streets, the first humble dwelling house ever erected upon the townsite.

"The Town of Santa Ana became incorporated June 1, 1886. Its growth was slow, but steady, being built up and supported by the resources of the surrounding county. It was the logical trade center of one of the finest agriculture and horticultural areas of Southern California.

The structure was a fine two-story brick, with seventy-five feet frontage and eighty-five feet deep. Before his death in 1891, he had seen the mustard wilderness, in which he had pitched his tent some twenty years previously, develop into one of the prettiest and most thriving little towns in California."

CRTI David Jackson Titchenal attemped to move to Oregon in 1875 but turned back after his wife became ill in CO. In 1882 the family made the trip, moving from Bates Co., where they lived at the time. As told by a descendant, Christina Titchenal: "...when the Titchenal's arrived in Washington Territory in 1882, they settled on Badger Mountain south of Waterville in a place that became known as Titchenal Canyon... Their trip out west on the Oregon trail was mostly uneventful. Aside from having trouble collecting wages due them from the railroad, the hardest part of the trip was crossing 40 miles of desert between American Falls and Mountain Home, Idaho, without water or feed for their stock." David moved his family to Badger, WA, in 1883. At the time "...it boasted a post office, sawmill, and store that the brothers helped to build." In 1897 the family moved to Wenatchee Valley.

CRTl Lewis Hamilton Titchenal bought 80 acres on Warner flats in the Wenatchee Valley and built a two story house a year before moving there in June 1897. He was very active in promoting improvements in the settlement and lived there the rest of his life. "He went to Olympia to lobby for funds for the building of the bridge at Mission (now Cashmere). He circulated petitions to form a new county as well as soliciting funds for the bridge. The bridge was built in 1898, and legislation passed the law creating Chelan County in March of 1899... Lewis was voted president of the Wenatchee Canal Company when it was formed, and his promotional work for bridges and roads was responsible for the State Legislature to pass a bill purchasing the bridge spanning the Columbia River, making it the first State owned bridge."

Joseph Ray Titchenal, known as Ray, told his life story in a booklet written when he was in his 80s
1 and privately published in his lifetime. It begins: "I was born at Waterville, 1889. My father and mother crossed the plains in a covered wagon from Missouri to Spokane County in 1883. It took them 100 days. Dad took up a homestead at the foot of Badger Mountain. We lived there for nine years before we moved to the Wenatchee Valley in 1897. On the way, I road a horse and drove the cows. Dad bought 80 acres from W. J. Warner, 1 1/2 miles east of Cashmere (Mission). There was nothing on the place but wire fence and the land all sagebrush and sunflowers. Now that we have everything, I am going to tell you what we didn't have.

1 "My mother used to take a team and wagon and ford the river to take cream to the creamery at Mission... We had to haul water from the river in two 52 gallon oak barrels. That was our water supply".

Ray Titchenal began working young. On one job "I drove a team on a slip scraper when I was only 12 years old. I was a big kid and thought I was quite a teamster..." His father had cattle on the open
1 range and Ray worked in the roundup every year in June. "We kids used to look forward to roundup more so than the 4th of July or Christmas... It would take about two weeks for the roundup; lots of work and lots of fun camping out under the stars." With his father's team of horses he took such jobs as working on the county roads and hauling for a telephone company which was putting a line
2 "over Blewett Pass." "I have worked on most of the roads and ditches in the valley with a team of horses... We would work for half pay and half donation, but we got better roads. The pay was $5.00 a day for man and team. We got $2.50."

His life as a cowboy was accented by trips with a string of pack horses, and with horse and cattle
2 drives, which explains the title of his booklet from which we are quoting. "In 1910 I rode for Fred Patterson when his son Guy left home. I gathered all of his cattle and drove them to the Frank Dorn
2 pasture in Ollaha Pasture. Brought them back in the fall..." In 1911 he was 21 years old. "I got on the train and went to Seattle and down to Portland, the first time I was ever out of the state of Washington. I have been all over the state since then on horseback, but it took me 50 years to do it."

This short sketch does not do justice to those 50 years in which he mixed ranching with working for
3 others. In 1919 "I sold my orchard one-half mile east of Cashmere... and bought the Dorn place in North Cashmere." After his second marriage in 1920, "We made our home in North Cashmere for nine
9 years." In 1929 he traded this place for "the T & S Ranch in Dryden... We lived there four years..." Although operating the ranch, he spent much time away from home on horseback "packing" and working 10 for others, "my wife and kids were home milking the cows and keeping the home fires burning." They
11 "moved to town [Leavenworth] in 1935 and in 1938 bought a 250 ranch on Chumstick Creek about five miles north of Leavenworth. He had a Buick touring car as early as 1920, but kept farming with 11 horses until 1948, when he bought a tractor "and sold my team and gave my harness and rigging to [son-in-law] Bill Hansen." He quit dairying and changed to beef cattle in 1953.

The rugged work was mixed with rugged entertainment as the family attended county fairs and rodeos. He won a saddle in a rodeo in Everett, WA, in 1924 "...this horse almost bucked" another rider's,
9 "head off the day before and I didn't know if I could ride him or not, but I did and got first place. He was the toughest horse there... I have won first in different rodeos, but that is the only saddle I ever won. I kept the saddle for 45 years and almost wore it out. An old cowboy friend of mine (Ernest Tonk) painted a picture of it, and it is in the Willis Cary Museum at Cashmere. I gave the saddle to my son, Gerald. He still has it." In a rodeo in North Cashmere in 1927 he won first in "saddle bronc riders" and his daughter, Margaret, was a winner in the quarter mile horse race. In
9 the 1928 Chelan County Fair in Leavenworth, "They had horse races...$500 was the purse. The kids and I got $240 of it. But we had horses in every race."

12 The last pack trip Ray Titchenal tells about was made for his granddaughter, Vera Hansen. She wanted to take two college girl friends on a pack trip up in the mountains. He told Vera he would take them but that they would have to do all the work, for by then Ray's doctor had told him not to do any heavy lifting. They made the trip.

CR July __, 1984 Mountain Horses, in Leavenworth. He was influential in the naming of Titchenal Street in East Cashmere. He met with the city council, after Titchenal Street in Cashmere which ran past the Industrial Park was changed to Independence Way, an action which was taken to unify three streets into one passage way. He reminded the council of a number of firsts by the Titchenals in the area, and made a passionate plea for a street honoring the family. The city council noting that a "frontage road" in East Cashmere was already informally known as Titchenal Way, named it Titchenal Street.

Sr., and Rachel (Davis) Pritchard, Jan 6, 1796 in Allegany Co., MD. The family of Rachel Davis emigrated from Wales. Thomas Pritchard, Jr., b Jan 9, 1768 in Leesburg, VA; d Dec 24, 1846 in Oxford, (W)VA; bur in the Baptist churchyard at Oxford, (W)VA. He married 2nd Mary Moody by whom he had eight children. She is buried by his side in Oxford. According to a Ritchie Co., VA, history, the ancestors of Thomas Pritchard, Jr. "came from England and settled at Jamestown [VA]..." A descendant, Emily Pritchard Cary, has traced the ancestors of Thomas, Jr., back to Westmoreland Co., VA. They are, in ascending order: Thomas, Sr., Christopher, Thomas, Christopher, and Thomas. Thomas Pritchard, Sr., father of the subject of this sketch, lived in Loudoun Co., VA, where he was a large land owner. He was a mason and joiner by trade. Among other construction, he was responsible for the railing in the Court House which still stands and two stone houses on the corner of Loudoun and Wirt Streets in Leesburg, VA, which are now used as law offices.

Thomas Pritchard, Jr., moved from the Glades in Preston Co., (W)VA, about 1832 and built the first mill on the south fork of Hughes' River in Ritchie Co., (W)VA. His was the first settlement in the area. He was given 100 acres of land by Henry O. Middleton to induce him to settle and erect a saw and grist mill. Some of the first lumber in the county was sawed there. The grist mill was water powered and had a capacity of from eight to ten bushels a day, but this was a great improvement over the old hand mill. Presumbly, the children of Thomas, Jr., and Nancy (Tichenal) Pritchard were all born in Preston Co., (W)VA.

QF According to a Queen genealogy, "William B. Queen... was a prominent and successful farmer and stone mason. He lived to be 92 years, 4 months and 28 days old. He was blind for about fifteen years before his death, but shortly before he died he regained his eyesight well enough to read a newspaper and at the same time he was cutting his third set of teeth. It is said by those who knew him well that he was as active in his old age as any young men in their twenties. He would build a chimney and then stand on his head at the top of it. TH JOSHUA[5] b ca 1768 in Morris Tp, Morris Co., NJ; bur Kifer Cem, Swanton, MD; m Elsie Bivins. She, bur Kifer Cem, Swanton, MD. The children named below are identified as siblings by descendants, but there is neither documentary proof nor information from descendants that they are the children of Joshua Tichenal; however, the only logical family to place them in is the Moses Tichenor[4] line. They are not the children of Joshua's only brothers, David and Stephen; and no other family line is known to have settled in western Maryland. Also supporting this circumstancial evidence is the spelling of their names; no other family line is known to consistently use the Tichnell and Titchenell or other similar spelling ending in one or two letters "l."

Ellen Abernathy, d 1862; bur Kifer Cem, Swanton, Garrett Co., MD. In 1852, Moses and Ellen Tichnell sold her interest in land in Hampshire Co., (W)VA, "which in any way belongs to Thomas Abernathy, deceased who was a brother of the said Elen, wife of said Moses Tichnell at the time of his death." The "land came to the said Thomas under his father John Abernathy's will..." Their names at the beginning of the deed were "Moses Tichnell and Nelly his wife." Her name was several times in the deed spelled "Elen" and was signed "Ellen," although she signed with her mark. Their residence given in the deed was Allegany Co., MD, as it was in the 1850 census. The census lists Moses "Tichnall," 41, with the following Tichnalls living in his household: Eleanore, 42; John, 19; Joshua, 16; William, 14; Mary Jane, 12; Sarah E., 10; Hester(?), 8; and James, 5. Eleanore was born in VA and John in MD. None of the other birthplaces were recorded. The census agrees with other sources as to the male members of the family.

She, b ca Sept 1946. She, m 2nd John R. Kerfoot, a grandson of Major Armistead. Presumably a farmer, he bought 50 acres in Allegany Co. (later Garrett Co. when it was created from Allegany Co. in 1872) Nov 22, 1871 which was located on, or adjacent to, Military Lot 262. After his death, Sarah sold coal and mineral rights of the farm which she received by his will, "excepting" land under and about the grave of William to the extent of one half "square acre from the center" of the grave. She also reserved a building "located at the mouth of mines" and formerly used for a school house, "but now occupied as dwelling house" for as long a time as James C. Watson and William H. Loy and heirs need it. The name was spelled "Tichinel" in the deed. The will of "William Titchnell" written Apr 21, 1880 named only Sarah and left everything to her. Presumably there were no children.

The land sold was bought Mar 20, 1868. On Dec 15, 1869, John M. "Tichinel" bought 150 acres, a "tract called Turners Desire", lots 48, 49 and 253. She was the widow of John Warnick and mother of Jeanette Bouse and Gilbert Warnick. Joshua Tichnell owned land in Allegany Co., MD, where he presumably lived for a time. On Dec 16, 1868, he bought "All the tract of land known as Lot number fifty eight" it being part of a tract "known as Barnardstown" in Allegany Co. He settled in Garrett Co., where in 1884 he bought 100 acres, the description of which began "at the original beginning of the tract called Walnut Bottom." Also in 1884, he bought 122 and a fraction acres in Walnut Bottom adjacent to the 100 acres. The Tichnell Cemetery is located on the farm. STEPHEN[5], b June 10, 1772 in Morris Co., NJ; d Mar 6, 1857 in Preston Co., (W)VA; bur Beach Run Hill Cem, Preston Co.; m Lydia Matheny, dau of James and Mary (LaMayne) Matheny, 1802. Lydia Matheny, b July 2, 1785; d May 26, 1866 in Preston Co., WV; bur Beach Run Hill Cem. Prior to 1810, Stephen Titchenall moved from MD to what is now Preston Co., WV, settling on the east bank of the Cheat River at the mouth of Muddy Creek. There he built his log residence, a grist mill and a whiskey distillery. An 110 acre tract was surveyed for him after 1824. The exact date, in the 1820s, is not readable on the copy of the deed available. Presumably this was his residence after that date. A Preston Co. history mentions the Titchnell family in the 1700s : "Beach Run Community was first settled in the late 1700s by Titchnell, Crane, May, Sypolt, and Martin families. It was first named Pleasant Hill which had a Post Office but later the name was changed to Beech Run." It is said that Stephen Titchenell used to remark jokingly: "If you want to raise preachers, raise them in a still house; that is where I raised two good ones." Sons, Daniel and Moses were ministers of the M.E. Church. Stephen's descendants have adopted the Titchenell spelling of their name.

Moses A. Titchenell's occupation is unknown, but perhaps he was a farmer for a time. Two-hundred seventy-seven acres in Preston Co. which he and Almira sold in 1874, exact location unknown, was the "farm that grantors now live on." Among other real estate he owned were 171 acres which he and his wife sold in 1874 or 75, and 100 acres which they sold in 1878. Both parcels of land were in Pleasant Dist. The first mentioned was adjacent to "Gurmans (?) old Saw Mill", and land of Peter E., Silas, and Joel Titchenell. The second was land he had bought from Joel Titchenell. The 1880 census names the following (children) in their household: Fuller C., age 20; Sarah C., 12; Lillian J., 9; Moses A., 6; Clarence B.(?), 4; and Laura E., 2. Moses A. Titchenell served two hitches in the American Civil War: from mid 1861 to Jan 17, 1863 in the 7th WV Infantry; and from Mar. to June, 1865 in the 17 WV Infantry as a first lieutenant.

One hundred six acres was divided off to Noah, the other three brothers owning the remaining 287 acres jointly. In 1868 the brothers sold "all the Red Oak Timber" on their part to be made into staves for $498.29, they to have the privilege of making staves at five dollars a thousand, the staves to be 45 inches long, one inch thick and average five inches wide. Also they were to get $8.00 per thousand for delivering them to the shop of Nutter and Jones, who had bought the timber. In his late years, Stephen Titchenell sold his land to some of his children. One farm, possibly the homestead, he deeded to Joel for the consideration 100 549 that he care for him and Lydia the rest of their lives. In 1894 his parents deeded Joel Titchenell a farm on the Cheat River below the mouth of Muddy Creek, possibly the homestead, for the consideration that he "properly keep and maintain" them for "their natural lifetime and give them decent burial"... He later deeded the farm to his brother, John W., for the same consideration. Joel Titchenell served in the American Civil War in the 17th WV Inf. from Feb 14, 1865 to July 7, 1865. He was made guardian of Addie Mabel and Tina E. Titchenell, minor children of of his brother, Noah, after Noah's death. In 1900 Addie Mabel was living in his household. It stated concerning James: "I give to my well beloved sons, James and Daniel, the remainder of my land next to the house to be divided equally between them only James is to begin next to Joseph." Joseph had received 56 acres on the west side of his father's land. No other data concerning James has come to light.

RT-T 22 JOSEPH[4], b near Morristown, NJ, about 1744; m _____ Day. Day is a well-known family in New Jersey, having come originally from Milford at the time of the settlement of Newark. They held a plot of land (lot #21) near that of Martin Tichenor. Members of the Day family migrated to Morris Co. and other sections of the state. There were also members of the Day family connected with the Morristown Presbyterian Church at the time Joseph and Daniel were members. However, there seems to be no record of a marriage between Joseph[4] and one of the Day daughters. He may have left the Morristown vicinity before this time, and had moved northward near Greenwood Lake in Passaic Co., NJ.

RT-T 23 A house at the foot of Greenwood Lake, near Hewitt, in West Milford Township which was owned by Joseph Day Tichenor, son of Joseph, may have been acquird by Joseph. If so, the date is not known. According to Mildred Roe, a descendant who wrote a genealogy of his descendants, the house was for many years known as the Tichenor homestead and was (ca 1965) still standing and had been kept up as a beautiful pioneer home. "Joseph Day Tichenor, according to his will of 1838 owned the property."

TSSL, May 31, 1987 According to Greenwood Lake historian, Steve Gross, the house, now known as the Cooley homestead, "is thought to have been built in 1774, but may date to 1754, according to other accounts. For many years it stood alone. The house and 100 acres of land were in the hands of a Joseph Tichenor in 1827 or 1828 when it was bought by Isaac P. Cooley who married Tichenor's daughter, Elizabeth [Eliza]." Recently an attempt to preserve the house has (May 1987) failed and it is scheduled to be demolished to make way for a condominium development.

* Most of the history of the descendants of Joseph[4] is taken from the History of Certain Roe and Tichenor Families in the U.S.A., by Mildred Roe. She had this to say about the connection between Joseph[3] and Joseph[4]: "Joseph[4] about whom there is ample family data, is in all probability the son of Joseph[3], son of Daniel[2], since dates and geographical information check, however, one item of final conclusive evidence is still being sought. The only other possible connection might be with Joseph[3], son of Samuel[2], instead of Daniel[2]." No new evidence has been found to prove the connection, however, the possibility of the connection to Samuel[2] has been proven unlikely (see page 40).

Mary H. Tichenor, with the family, moved to Edwardsburg, MI, in 1852. She attended Hillsdale College, 1857-58, where she met James. Hillsdale was one of the first co-educational colleges, and had very strict rules of which the following are examples: "Ladies and gentlemen are not allowed to walk or ride in company with each other without special permission from the President of the College and Principal of the Female Dept." "Ladies and gentlemen may meet each other in the reception room or any other room by special permission from the President of the College and Principal of the Female Dept." Anna Blake, b Feb 24, 1839; d Apr 10, 1908; bur in the Tichenor lot at Oak Ridge Cemetery, Buchanan, MI. John Blake was born Sept 20, 1808, probably at Loop Creek, now WV, near Mt. Hope, the son of William and Sarah (Blake) Blake of VA. He died Oct 19, 1876 near Buchanan, MI. William Blake's father, Thomas, was born in England and came to America with his father, Theophilus, in 1764.

Anna Blake was good looking, vivacious and a very able young person, who taught school for a couple of years before her marriage. Judging from her teaching notebook, mathematics (algebra) and geography were her favorite subjects. She carried on in a splendid fashion after George died before the last child was born, bringing up the children, managing the farm, increasing the holdings and building new barns and settling in new homes, as well as taking an active share in the affairs of her church, her neighborhood and her Grange. She was elected "lecturer" of the Grange and wrote "papers" which were given for members of the Grange and for the Missionary Society of the Presbyterian Church in Buchanan, which she had joined when marrying George, a Presbyterian. She visited relatives in other states; attended district and state meetings of the Grange; went to Chicago often. She went to an Exposition in New Orleans in 1885 and New York City in 1891 via Cleveland and Niagara Falls, and to the World's Fair in 1893. She was Methodist before her marriage and was interested in the camp meetings of the Methodist Church. She became quite crippled with rheumatism and moved to Buchanan to live her last years.

George Edward Tichenor settled at Edwardsburg, Cass Co., MI, about 1852 with his father, mother and sisters. He taught school in Edwardsburg and helped his father on the farm, which was at the edge of town. He and Anna were married at a double wedding with her brother, Buren. They settled on a farm in Berrien Co. and there the first four children were born. The farm, later owned by their son, Fred, was covered by two land grants from the USA of 80 acres each to Wm. T. Noel in 1833 and Joseph Stephens in 1839. This land located in section 18, township 32 north of range seven east, was purchased by John Blake, Anna's father, in 1853 and 1855. George subsequently bought the land.

She loved card and table games; did all kinds of handwork, oil painting, china painting, embroidery and knitting. She was skillful in amateur dramatics and often participated in local plays and readings. She read widely and loved poetry. She was famous for her delicious "feasts" and warm hospitality. They were divorced in 1917. He remarried and lived in Bloomfield, NJ. She lived with her daughter, Mildred.

31 Eli J. Roe was the seventh son of Eli and Margaret (Martindale) Roe and was born on Portage Prairie, IN, May 23, 1832. He grew up on his father's farm where he was born. At age 17 he took up the carpenter's trade. He moved to Buchanan, MI, when he married and continued in the carpenter's trade a number of years after which he manufactured fanning mills, a business which was destroyed by fire in 1862. He then went into manufacture of other wood products and bought a saw mill in 1872. The mill business grew until at one time he owned six mills. He also owned a farm on which he lived after retirement from business and there he died. Susannah Witter was born in southern Indiana, near College Corners, Oct 24, 1835, the daughter of John Whitter and his second wife, Susanna Stieman, who was born in SC. Her grandparents were Christopher Whitter, born in PA, and Mary Ullery.

RT-R 27 Eli Roe, born July 25, 1800, in Mason Co., KY, the son of Charles and Barsheba (Watson) Roe, married Margaret Martindale of Wayne Co., IN, where both families were living at the time. She was born in Warren Co., OH, and was one of a family distinguished for musical talent. Eli and Margaret Roe moved to Henry Co., IN, in 1823 and in 1830 to St. Joseph Co., on Portage Prairie, north of the present site of South Bend, IN. Later they sold this farm and bought another farther north. In 1856 they retired from farming and moved to Buchanan, MI. Both were active members of the Christian Church. Margaret was the first woman on Portage Prairie to sign the temperance pledge. None of her children ever drank, doubtless the result of her home training.

26 Charles Roe, the son of William and Mary (Feke) Roe was born in Oyster Bay Township, Nassau Co., Long Island, NY, Sept 27, 1771. He was a farmer and shoemaker. Barsheba Watson, was living in Mason Co., KY, when she and Charles were married. She was born in MD, and was the daughter of Michael and Mary Watson. Charles and Barsheba Roe probably lived in Mason Co., KY, where they owned land before moving to Montgomery Co., OH, about 1804. He helped to build the Baptist church there. They next moved to St. Joseph Co., IN, where he bought a farm of 200 acres about five miles north of South Bend. They were buried on the farm.

22 William Roe, like his father, John Roe, Jr., was a farmer and shoemaker and lived in Lattingtown, Oyster Bay, NY. He was a soldier in the American Revolution and sometime after that war, settled in 19 Mason Co., KY. John Roe, Jr., was the son John Roe, Sr., and grandson of David Roe, an early settler
18 of Long Island, NY, who had taxable property in Flushing in 1675 and had possibly lived there a year or more before that date.

They were Presbyterians and the births and baptisms of most of their children are recorded in the Morristown Church register. Several years before the American Revolution, Daniel Tichenor purchased a farm in Morris Co., where he lived 15 or 20 years. He served in the Revolutionary War in the Minute Men and Militia. On Mar 2, 1776 the Provincial Congress of NJ adopted an "Ordinance for Incorporating the Minute Men lately Raised in this Colony into the Body of Militia." After this ordinance was adopted, the company of Captain James Wheeler, of which Daniel was a member, petitioned the Congress as follows:

33 "The Petition of Capt. James Wheeler, Officers and Privates of his Company of Minute Men humbly sheweth __

"That your petitioners in obedience to the Resolutions of your honorable House, did at the considerable Expense equip themselves as a minute Company being armed and accourted, and also went to the Expense of puting themselves in a uniform of Dress, and continued as a minute Company for upwards of 34 four Months, and were always ready and willing to do any Duty that was imposed on them, and were still desirous of continuing in that Capacity, but being informed that the Minute Companies by a Resolution of the Congress are to be dissolved--do now humbly beg that you will take into Consideration the Service and Expense your Petitioners have been at--and establish them as a Company of Grenadiers to the North Battalion in this Township, and allow the officers to retain the Men that enlist as minute Men under them & who are still desirous of continuing together--If you should decline granting this request it would be a means of breaking up a Company who has required Reputation as a well regulated and disciplined Body--Your Petitioners are emboldned to make this Petition from a Sense, that the Integrity and Justice of this House will lead them to deal with honor and equity to every set of Men under their Care and Jurisdiction--"

Daniel Tichenor was one of sixty signers of this resolution. The response to the resolution is not

Susanna Edson was the daughter of Samuel Edson, qv. above. (8) Edward Forbes and Elizabeth Howard, who were the parents of Elizabeth Forbes. Edward Forbes was the son of John Forbes of Duxbury, MA, who was one of the first proprietors of West Bridgewater, MA. Elizabeth Howard was the daughter of John Howard and Martha Hayward, who was the daughter of Thomas Hayward, qv. above. John Howard came from England, settled in Duxbury, MA, then in West Bridgewater, MA.

CH 202 Anna Byram was first married to Peter Condit by whom she had three sons, Edward, Byram and Lewis. Byram Condit moved to Ohio Co., KY, in 1805 and established a ferry on Green River which was known for years as Condit's ferry and is now known as Point Pleasant. About 1817 or 1818 he drowned at the CH 208 ferry on a stormy night attempting to cross the river. Edward Condit spent his whole life in Morristown, NJ. He was a member of the NJ State Legislature from 1828 to 1830. For many years he was Morris Co. clerk and a judge of the Court of Common Pleas. The appellation "Judge" remained with him the rest of his life. Lewis Condit, an M.D., had a long career of public service. Among other services he was a member of Congress from NJ for 18 or 20 years, and was a trustee of Princeton
NJHSP, University from 1827 to 1861. He visited the Tichenors in KY in 1795, making the trip on horseback, 109 and keeping a diary of the trip, but unfortunately for family historians, not of his visit. He made the trip again when he was 80 years old. His house in Morristown is still standing.

An account of the family's move to KY was given by James Tichenor, Daniel's son:

JT "In 1790 he [Daniel Tichenor] exchanged his farm in Morris Co., with Capt. John Howell for land on (1856) Green River in Ohio Co., Kentucky and in Sept. 1790 removed with his family to Kentucky. He was greatly disappointed respecting his new purchase. The Green River Country was a waste wilderness--
Mor-D, the habitation only of Indians and beasts of the forest, not a white family within 50 miles. During his life he never deemed it safe to take his family there and thus a valuable home in New Jersey was
A 367 lost to him and his descendants. Of this tract he never took possession in person but bequeathed it 370 to his sons, some of whom afterwards removed there.

"A day having been designated for their departure, the Rev. _____ Hillyer of the Presbyterian Church in Madison, then called Bottle Hill, of which Mr. and Mrs. Tichenor were members, preached a sermon at the house on the occasion, to a very large assembly of friends and neighbors convened to bid farewell and to express their wishes and earnest prayers for a prosperous journey and safe arrival at their place of destination. Much feeling was manifested and many tears were shed at the separation -- and a long procession followed the travellers several miles on their journey.

"The whole company traveled in wagons to Pittsburg where they obtained a boat and descended the Ohio River to Limestone, now Maysville, where they landed and proceeded in wagons to Nelson County and built their cabins on Cox's Creek near Bardstown in the county. In September 1795 Mr. Tichenor bought a lot of land about 60 acres on Plum Run in Nelson Co. where he built a dwelling to which he removed in 1796 and resided there until his death which occurred on the 10th of April, 1804. For many years Mr. Tichenor had been subject to violent attacks of asthma which often seemed to threaten sudden death. During the intervals he enjoyed comfortable health, leading a life of exemplary piety, temperance and industry.

"He laid out a Family Burial ground on his farm in Nelson County in which his remains with those of his widow, many of his children, grandchilden and neighbors have been deposited. [See Thomas P. Bryant[7], page 428, for action by descendants to preserve the cemetery.]

"In November 1804, 7 months after her husband's death, Mrs. Tichenor visited New Jersey and spent the winter and spring with her brothers and sisters and her three sons by the first marriage. She travelled on horseback, accompanied by her son, Jonas, to Wheeling, at which place by previous appointment, she was met by her oldest son, Edward Condit, and proceeded with him to Morristown. In May 1805 she returned home accompanied by her son, Byram Condit, and his family of 5 or 6 children. Three other families removed at the same time, Vis: Uzal Condit, Daniel Prudden, Abraham Lindley and Daniel Lindley. They all settled on Green River in Ohio County, Kentucky in a village called Point Pleasant. Jared Tichenor and his brother, Jonas, reside also in Ohio County with many others of the connections and descendants....

"Mrs. Tichenor resided on the farm of her husband during the remainder of her life which terminated on the 8th of July 1826 at the age of 76 years. Sometime previously she had a fall by which the neck of the thigh bone was broken rendering her a cripple for the residue of her life. Two of her sisters Nel-W, had been crippled in the same manner at about that point of life."

Nel-D, 4 137 The land on Green River for which Daniel Tichenor traded his farm in NJ was a 2500 acre tract. In 1799 he bought another 150 acres from John Howell which joined this tract on the west. The deeds to these tracts are recorded in Nelson Co. He bought about 300 acres in two tracts in Nelson Co., on Plum Run in 1796, getting the deed for it in 1803, the year before he died. Three of his sons also acquired land in Nelson Co. Timothy bought 40 acres adjacent to the farm of his father, who deeded some of his land to Joseph and Daniel, both of whom bought other land joining these tracts. Sarah's husband owned an adjacent farm; thus their farms were all contiguous. After Daniel's death in 1804, the land on Green River in Ohio Co. (Ohio Co. having been formed in 1798) was divided according to Daniel's will which gave 600 acres each to Timothy, Daniel, Joseph and Jacob, and 250 acres to James. The farm in Nelson Co., went to the seven youngest children after the death of their mother, who received it by the will. By 1814 all of Daniel's children were married except Elizabeth, who did not marry. The sons were becoming settled in KY for life, and their descendants were soon to become the largest branch of the Tichenor family.

Ohio County became by 1850, second only to Essex Co., NJ, in Tichenor population. The first generation to be born there all lived close enough together to know each other personally. Most, if not all, were members of the Walton's Creek Baptist Church. Timothy, Jared and Jonas and their wives
OCOD 69 were charter members. An Ohio Co. history mentions the Tichenors as among the families who were "the most zealous and active members and worshipers at Walton's Creek." The church, which was organized in 1814, and had a rapid growth beginning in 1820, played an important part in the lives of the members.

WCCH 8 "It seems that the social, moral, and economic part of the people's lives, as well as the spiritual, was completely centered around the church. Every problem, regardless of its nature was settled in, through, and by the church. The church made an effort to discipline disorderly members, to correct unscriptural teachings, and to adjust individual differences. This occupied much of the attention of the church. To say that the church was rigid in the enforcement of discipline is to put it mildly.

"At every business meeting the moderator would call for the peace (Fellowship) of the church. If the church was at peace the business meeting proceeded as usual, but if the fellowship was out of harmony, the offended brother would lay in a complaint against the offending brother or sister. The church would then take the matter up, and if the offending brother 'gave satisfaction,' that is, made satisfactory acknowledgment to the church, he was forgiven and the church was at peace again.

"If the offending brother was not present at the meeting, a committee was appointed to see the individual and 'cite' him to attend the next meeting and answer the complaint. In the majority of cases the individual would 'give satisfaction' and be restored to the fellowship of the church, but this was not always the case. On numerous occasions after hearing the case, or upon a refusal of the offending party to attend and answer to the complaint when 'cited,' they were excluded from the church.

WCCH 11 12 "Discipline was meted out to members for excessive drinking, heresy, fighting, harmful gossip, lying, stealing, slander, cursing, gambling, failure to pay debts, neglecting church attendance, and immoral relations with the opposite sex."

The first revival meeting in Ohio Co. and possibly the whole Green River country was conducted at Walton's Creek in the winter of 1837. The revival then spread all over the Green River country. The first pastor of Walton's Creek, Elder Benjamin Tolbert, served until 1832. His wife taught him to read after they were married. "He was a forceful preacher, and considered no good done when he preached unless someone laughed, wept, or got mad." He was one of the church's most successful HAT pastors and was much admired by the congregation. Timothy Tichenor's son, Benjamin Tolbert, was probably named for him.

The Bloomfield Baptist Church in Nelson Co. played an important part in the lives of the Tichenors on Plum Run. Two sons of James Tichenor, Isaac Taylor, who had an important place in Southern Baptist history, and Joseph Lapsley, were apparently named for pastors of the church.

Probably none of Daniel's children had an opportunity to attend school in KY. James is known to have learned to read and write after he was grown. That this is also true of Jacob is indicated by records, on which his name appears, in the Spencer Co. Courthouse, the earlier ones being signed by his mark, the late ones by his name. Others learned at some point. The first records of the Walton's Creek Baptist Church are in Jared's handwriting which is said to be as plain as print. Silas, Peter, and Jonas signed their wills with their names; however, signing of the will by their mark may only indicate that a person was too infirm to write, not that he had not known how. The school established on a lot taken off the farm of Daniel Tichenor, Jr. in 1830 may have been the first school attended by the Tichenors in Nelson Co.

Family cemeteries were very common in early KY. Daniel Tichenor's descendants are buried in a number of them, only three of which bear the Tichenor name: the Daniel Tichenor Cemetery in Nelson Co., the Aunt Jane Tichenor Cemetery in Ohio Co., and the Benjamin Tolbert Tichenor Cemetery in McLean Co. Jared Tichenor and part of his family were buried on his farm in Ohio Co. but were later moved to the Centertown Cemetery. Other family cemeteries bear the names of relatives.

JOHN T.[6], d before May 1842; m _____. They were living in Ohio Co., KY, in 1830 and probably before. They were probably living on the 600 acres which his father, Joseph, received by his (Joseph's) father's will. Joseph's will states that the place was improved and that John was to get 120 acres, including the improved part, if he so chose. After John T. Tichenor's death, there was a sale of his personal property at which his daughter, Ann, bought many items. The bidding at this sale was in bits (units of 12 1/2 cents) indicating either that the old practice of cutting a one dollar coin in eight pieces or bits for the purpose of making change was still in practice in Ohio Co., or that people still thought in "bits" although other coinage was in use.

Spe-m, 1 20 before Sept 1871 when John W. Murphey, Rachel W. Murphey and Emily Pittenger, sold their interest in the estate of "the late Susan Tichenor of Clark Co., IL."

Cla-D, C 644 9 111 Cen-She, 1820 135 Cen-Spe, 1830 332 Cla-P, Box 55 That Shelby and Spencer Counties, KY, were the residences of Lewis Tichenor until he moved to Clark Co., IL, is suggested by several records. He was the bondsman for the marriage of his daughter, Eliza, in 1827 in Spencer Co. (Possibly the part of Shelby that became Spencer Co, in 1824). The 1830 census shows his residence to have been Spencer Co., and he bought a small tract of land and sold another in Spencer Co., in 1832. The date he moved to IL is not known, but a deed by which he bought 100 acres in Clark Co., IL, in 1840 gives that county as his residence. That he was living in IL before 1840 is suggested by the marriage of his son, Thomas, the year before in Edgar Co., IL. Lewis's occupation was probably farming. He received 120 acres in Ohio Co., KY, by his father's will and owned this tract and 100 acres in Clark Co., IL, at the time of his death.

He owned land in Nelson Co., and was probably a farmer, engaged to some extent in the milling business. He owned one of the first horse-powered mills in Nelson Co. He did not make a will, but his children living at the time were named in a deed by which Timothy bought the interest of the other children in the Daniel Tichenor farm after Daniel's death. This record, in part, is as follows:

Which 162 acres is a part of a preemption a 1000 acres located surveyed and patented in the name of Paul Froman, the aforesaid decedent, Daniel Tichenor, at his death having left seven children, to wit: the aforesaid Thomas, William, Ebenezer, Daniel, Mary, who intermarried with Christopher Gordon, Timothy and Collyer, who all of the first part sold their undivided interest in and to the aforesaid 162 acres of land to the aforesaid Timothy Tichenor at the price of $12.00 per acre.

Another deed recorded in Nelson Co, reveals that Daniel married a second time. This deed "by these presents doth bargain, sell, alien, convey all the right title and claim of all and every species of land, money or property that she the said Nancy Tichenor is intitled to as widow of said Daniel Tichenor, decd, to the above heirs of the said Daniel Tichenor." Kate had two small sons, Edgar Stanton and Silas Bodine, by James Byram Tichenor. She died May 11, 1911 and was buried in the family plot, but her remains were later moved to rest beside her husband's in the Bloomfield Maple Grove Cemetery. This family lived on a parcel of the original family farm in the Plum Run section. This was a home that was always filled with fun and happiness. It seemed to have the right combination of older people and youth. Silas, mentioned above, and John Samuel, older brother of Charles Madison, lived with them.

Charles Madison Tichenor was a farmer and a well known builder and architect. Many of the beautiful colonial homes in Nelson and Spencer Counties were built by him. To mention a few, most of which are well preserved today (1965): the Wes. Wilkerson home, the Hugh Stiles home, the John Stith home, the John Dugan home, the Stallard Sisters' home, and the Jesse Stone home on the Lillie Pike. Charles Madison Tichenor served an apprenticeship under Otho McGruder, a well known builder of his day. The Nel-W, 22 19 Conn Moore house is an outstanding example of his work. His will, written Oct 15, 1909, named sons: T. Irvin and C. Ernest, and two step sons, Edward S. Tichenor and Silas B. Tichenor.

He and his wife and children are buried in the Bardstown (KY) Cemetery. Taylor William Samuels was the son of William Samuels, who was born in Cumberland Co., MD, in 1779. The Samuels were among the first distillers of bourbon whisky.

T.W. Samuels began making whisky around 1840 and had a long career as a distiller and built up a solid loyal trade. W.I. Samuels founded and was owner of the T. W. Samuels Distilling Co. of Deatesville, KY, and it remained in the family until Prohibition. When Prohibition ended in 1933, the Samuels distillery, after nearly a hundred years of operation as a family enterprise, found itself in need of "outside money" to help it get back in operation. In the refinancing, T.W. Samuels[9], grandson of W. I., became a major stockholder but without control of the company. His job was vice president in charge of production. Ten years later, the controlling group sold the distillery to other interests. In 1953 T. W. Samuels[9] bought a distillery at Loretta, KY, which he named the Star Hill Distillery, and went back into bourbon making. It is (1977) one of the few remaining family-owned distilleries.

My Esteemed Friend:

Received your favor of the 3rd inst. from Beale, about your future emigrating to the valley of the Mississippi. June would be the best month of travel, after 15th would have considerable moonlight. Advise not go by way of Maryland, the tributaries make well up into the land. There is scattered Indians, at Nanjemoy, and Chicomuxen who are not friendly.

You would have to cross the Potomac and further up river you go the stronger the current.

Would suggest you cross over to Coan, or Machodoc. Have wagons well covered, and plenty of straw and grass, as passes are rough for your wife. Several families are going West. Will leave our farm at Nomini; all congregate at farm. I am sure will be very congenial, and go out together. I have instructed Lias to furnish you with mouldlers, also having Beale, our caretaker, with plans of route, by way of Turkey Pass. Will find abundance of good fresh water and abundance of game.

Tell Gilbert and Stephen I will keep my promise to them.

My best wishes to you and family, and pleasant successful trip. Let me hear from you.

Sincerely yours,
G. Washington.

ANC AILT Sdx-Nel, 1880 Albert Lucas Tichenor's farming operations in Nelson Co. included raising fine horses. The following notice appeared in a local newspaper, date unknown: "The fine trotting horse, Bill Rodifer, owned by Mr. A.L. Tichenor, of Nelson Co., is dead. When he was 5 years old he trotted a mile 2:24 1/2, quarter in 33 seconds. This horse was estimated to be worth $6000. He was a colt of Black Hawk Chief and for his chances was considered one of the fastest horses in the country. Mr. Tichenor is one of the best horsemen in this part of the state."

Mary Rebecca Beam was born in the family home in Nelson Co., KY, on road 162 between Bloomfield and Bardstown. When she was small the family moved to a log house, owned at the time by her cousin, John Samuel Tichenor[7], on the old Tichenor farm. The house was a few hundred yards from the Tichenor Cemetery. She attended the Plum Run School. When she was 13 years old they moved to a place below Fairfield about seven miles from the log home, where she attended East Fork School. The house burned when Mary Rebecca was about 16 years old, the family losing nearly everything. They then moved to Bloomfield, KY, where her mother ran a rooming and boarding house. When she married, she and her husband lived in Louisville, KY, where their daughter was born. They were separated and she moved to Florida with her parents. She lived next in Rockford, IL, where she sold the product of the California Perfume Co. now the Areon Co., before moving back to Kentucky and marrying a second time to Samuel Bryant Neal, who she had known since they attended the Plum Run School together.

Samuel Bryant Neal was born about two miles from the town of Chaplin, in Nelson Co., KY. In Chaplin he attended the Methodist church. When he was six years old, his parents bought a farm on Plum Run Road from Albert Lucas Tichenor[7] (grandfather of Mary Rebecca Neal), which had been owned before him by his father, Thomas Tichenor. Samuel Bryant Neal grew up there and attended the Plum Run School. In time he and his brother began farming a farm on Plum Run Road which his great-grandfather, Samuel Wilkerson, bought for his mother. It was to this farm that he brought his bride in 1918, and there he lived the rest of his life. After his death, Mary Rebecca continued to live on the farm with her son, Sam, until moving in Dec 1986 to the Federal Hill Manor, Bardstown, KY, where she celebrated her 98th birthday the following month.

Anne Tichenor, b July 31, 1806; d Mar 28, 1872. Both are buried in the Bell Cemetery, Ohio Co., KY. Collier was engaged in the flouring and carding-mill business to some extent, in connection with farming, in Nelson Co. He moved to Ohio Co., and was the only one of his father's sons to settle there. According to one source, he moved about 1830 "with his wife and family to Ohio Co., where he bought a partially improved farm near the present site of Point Pleasant." The land to which he moved to was probably the 600 acres he inherited from his father, part of the 2500 acres which his grandfather, Daniel, bought from John Howell. Collier's father died before making a deed and Collier sued his father's heirs in 1849 for a deed. He bought other land in Ohio Co. Also, Anne's father gave them 86 acres in 1853.

In 1870 Collier and Ann sold one acre to the West Point United Baptist Church, of which they were devoted members. In 1860 they sold a small lot of land, adjacent to the church, to the Common School District #13 "for a valuable consideration" which probably means that they gave the land to the school. They gave land to their children, Martha Jane, Silas Noel, James A. and possibly others. In 1880, Collier, a widower, had his son, James A., and wife and son living with him; also, daughter, Susan, and nephew, M. Henry, age 15.

WILLIAM[6], d Aug 28, 1871, at 74 years, 11 months and 24 days of age in Gibson Co., IN; bur White Church Cem, Gibson Co., IN; m Charity Lagrange, dau of Aaron Lagrange, Jan 30, 1817 in KY. She, b ca 1896 in KY; d after 1880. Her parents were born in NJ. He owned a tract of land on Plum Run in Nelson Co., KY, where he lived until 1833-36 when he moved to Gibson Co., IN, with his brothers, Ebenezer and Daniel. He sold his land in Nelson Co., in 1838, the deed giving his residence as Gibson Co., IN. He bought a farm in Gibson Co. IN, date unknown, which he owned at the time of his death. It was in two tracts. One was that part of the NW 1/4 of Sec. 22, Tp, 2, range 11, which lies on the west side of Marsh Creek. The other tract was the east 1/2 of the SW 1/4 of Sec 16, Tp, range 11. In Oct 1871, his widow, who retained a lifetime interest in the farm by his will, leased the farm to her son-in-law, Henry J. Mangrum. The Mangrum family was living with her on the farm at the time and also in 1880. The census of that year, lists Henry J. Mangrum, age 51, a farmer in Patoka, Tp, born in IN. Living in his household were his wife, Hannah, 52, born in KY; daughter, Louisa B., 14, b in IN; and George B. Hanks, a servant; and mother-in-law, Charity Tichenor, 84, born in KY.

EBENEZER[6], b ca 1799; bur White Church Cem, Gibson Co., IN. His birth and death dates are not legible on his grave stone. He married Susan Conner Feb 28, 1826 in Nelson Co., KY. In their marriage record "surity," Thomas S. Wright, made oath that Susan Conner, niece of his wife, is over the age of 21. After Susan's death, Ebenezer Tichenor married Margaret Barker. He owned a farm in Nelson Co., which he sold in 1837 after moving to Gibson Co., IN, in 1833-36 where he settled in Montgomery Township. From a Gibson Co. history: " He acquired a rough piece of unimproved land, the soil being wet and almost uncultivable. Here he stayed for a while, finally securing land near White Church, in Patoka Township, southwest of Princeton, where he built himself a log cabin and started to clear a permanent home. He was a hard working man and succeeded in improving his farm into one of the best in his locality and where he lived the rest of his life. Politically, he was a Democrat, while his religious membership was with the General Baptist Church, holding membership in this church in Patoka Township." The same history gives Ebenezer's wife's name as Susan Bull, contrary to the marriage record.

Gib-Or, 3 78, 90, 268, 364

Ebenezer Tichenor died intestate. The distribution of his estate May 21, 18_0 named the following heirs: Daniel N. Tichenor, Jacob C. Tichenor, William B. Tichenor, Elizabeth Symonds, Mary Jane Hall, and Wesley Johnson. The date on the document is not legible. He appeared in the 1860 census, so his death is after the date of the census. Data from the 1870 census is not available.

Ebenezer Tichenor, m 2nd Margaret, known as Peggy, Barker. She was born ca 1806 in PA. The 1850 census lists Ebenezer Tichenor in Patoka Tp, Gibson Co., IN, age 51, a farmer with $2000 in real estate, and born in KY. Her age was 22 as was George's which conflicts unless they were twins or there is a mistake in the census record. Also Hannah's marriage record has not been found.

Tichenor took his brother and sisters back to KY, according to a 1914 Gibson Co. history, "and lived for a while with a family by the name of Brewer on Green River [in Ohio Co.], and later with an uncle, Collier Tichenor, for a while. He had no opportunity to secure a school education and learned mainly by habits of observation of men and events. Subsequently he came back to Gibson Co. and worked out at farming labor until after his first marriage, when he bought his father's old homestead farm, on which he has since lived and to which he added until he is now the owner of three hundred and fifty-one acres in Patoka, Township, located near White Church, and which is one of the best agriculture tracts in the township... Nel-D, 21 388 HGB 656 657 Daniel Tichenor owned land in Nelson Co., KY, on Plum Run which he sold in 1837. He and his family moved to Gibson Co., IN, in 1833-1836 and settled on a farm west of Princeton on the Owensville Road. A Gibson Co. history gives the following account of their settling there: "Daniel Tichenor was a mill man... they were among the first settlers in that vicinity and secured wild land which they cleared and where they made their home for many years. Later on Daniel Tichenor added another farm to his possessions and devoted his entire attention to farming for the rest of his life. Two brothers, William and Ebenezer, accompanied him to Gibson County and obtained farming lands near him. They too were successful farmers and prominent men in the community and all were highly esteemed. Daniel was originally a Democrat in politics, but later gave his support to the principles of the Republican party. His religious sympathies were with the Free-will Baptist church, of which he was a consistent member."

Gib-D, 19 252 F 428 F 556 X 124 Apparently the living children of Daniel and Jane Tichenor were named in a Gibson Co. deed dated Nov 8, 1877. The grantors on the deed were: Emily Tichenor [widow of Daniel], William N. and Elizabeth Tichenor, Henry T. and Julia Tichenor, Timothy N. and Elizabeth Tichenor, Jonah G. and J. Jane Tichenor and Mary E. Ayers, all of Gibson Co., IN. The grantee on the deed was Richard Lagrange [husband of Daniel's daughter, Hannah]. This is obviously one child buying out the interest of the others. It poses a question, however: was Mary E. Ayres, Daniel's daughter, Mary Elizabeth? If so, she, qv., had another marriage than the two we have from other sources. Also interesting in this regard is the fact that William N. Tichenor, qv., was the guardian of some Ayres children in 1877.

She was living in 1892 when she sold property in Gibson Co., IN. A Daniel Tichenor and Emily Carland got a marriage license in Vanderburg, Co., IN, Jan 19, 1843, but their marriage is not recorded. Presumably they are the subjects of this sketch, and something prevented the marrying official from recording the marriage. Daniel and Emily Tichenor had one child, James Madison, b July 2, 1846, who died at 28 days of age.

All available records give Daniel's name as Daniel only. His name as Daniel Nelson, recorded in Descendants of Martin Tichenor: A History in the Making, 1977, by the writer is probably a mistake.

William Nelson Tichenor received only a common school education in the early schools of Gibson Co. and at the age of 14 was apprenticed or "bound over" to Thomas Ewing, a blacksmith of Princeton, to learn the trade and remained with him until he came of age. At that time he was given forty dollars in cash, his earnings for his season of apprenticeship. With the money he purchased himself decent clothing and started in the blacksmith business for himself. He later bought out Ewing and operated the shop for about 14 years, then purchased a 300 acre farm one half mile west of Princeton on what is now (1914) known as West Broadway. He built a house and improved the land and carried on general farming and raised and sold fine livestock. He also bought and shipped stock and operated quite a dairy where his wife made and sold great quantities of butter and other milk products. He was a man of public spirit and took an active interest in the affairs of his community and country. He served as township trustee for several years and also county treasurer two terms. He supported the Republican party. In 1883 he retired from the farm and moved to Princeton where he served on the council. After his death his wife continued to reside at their old home on West and Emerson Streets. The house was one of the landmarks of Princeton and was built by Dr. Walling in 1852.

In 1877 William Nelson Tichenor was made guardian of Horace O., William E., George W., and Abigail Ayres; and in 1880 he was guardian of Harry R., Jessie M., Arthur M., and Herbert E. Embree. What relation these children were to him is not known. His will, written Aug 22, 1901, named wife, Elizabeth; sons, Henry and Oliver; and mentioned, but did not name, granddaughters, the children of deceased son, Albert.

Carmel, IL, in association with his brothers. They were also engaged in the flour mill business. After the death of his wife at the age of 33, he married Mary Miln Walling, widow of Dr. Willoughby Walling. He died at age 89. Nancy Jones was the daughter of Col. Charles Jones and Eleanor Warrick. The Warricks were natives of KY. Capt. Jacob Warrick, Eleanor's father, was killed at the battle of Tippecanoe.

James Albert Tichenor was for many years regarded as one of the leading men of Gibson Co. He was one of the largest and most successful farmers in that Co. and in addition to general farming, raised high grade livestock. He was a public spirited man and gave much time and means to promoting any cause that benefited his community. He took a great deal of interest in the Gibson Co. Fair Association and did much to make it a high class exhibit. He was influential in politics and from 1894 to 1898 was chairman of the Republican central committee. His religious affiliation was with the Presbyterian church. His death preceded his father's, and his daughters inherited his part of his father's estate which included 80 acres of land.

She is buried by the side of Jacob. He married 2nd Fanny Bryant Dec 22, 1802. He came to KY in 1790 with his father's entire family. He eventually settled in Spencer Co., KY, where he lived the remainder of his life. He was named administrator, with his half brother, Peter, and his stepmother, Anna, of his father's will; and was present at the proving of the will in 1804. He received 600 acres of land in Ohio Co., KY, by his father's will, but probably did not move to Ohio Co. He bought 50 acres in Shelby Co., KY, in 1796 which was their residence when he and wife, Fanny, sold it in 1807.

Jacob Tichenor was a soldier of the War of 1812 and served as a private in Capt. William E. Young's Company, First Regiment of KY, Aug 27, 1812 to Oct 31, 1812. He bought land in Spencer Co., KY, (created in 1924 from Shelby, Bullitt, and Nelson Counties) in 1830 and 1833. In 1834 he sold his 600 acres of land in Ohio Co, giving his residence in the deed as Spencer Co., KY. The 1850 census lists him in Spencer Co, age 77, a farmer with real estate valued at $7000 and born in NJ. There were three Pittengers living in his household, namely, Nancy, 47; Susan, 20; and Richard, 15. Jacob's estate, settled in 1853 included eleven slaves, who were divided among his heirs. He named three children, James B., George, and Nancy Pittenger, in his will which was written in 1850. Collier heirs were included in the distribution of his estate, indicating that he had a daughter, who married a Collier. The 1830 census enumerated eight in his household, four of whom were under the age of 20. This may have been the family of his daughter, Nancy. She and two children, as we have already seen, were living with him in 1850.

* In my book Descendants of Martin Tichenor; A History in the Making, 1977, I listed Nancy as the child of Jacob Tichenor and Fanny Bryant. A History of the Pittenger Family in America, F. Hiner Dale, 1942, does the same. However, this is now believed to be a mistake. The list of Jacob Tichenor's children above is taken from The Boswells of Shelby Co., Ky, Vol II, by Eula Hasskarl, 1978. Mrs. Haskarl points out that "Nancy is 47 years old on the 1850 census which was taken in September, and the 1860 census in June, she is 57. Thus we know that she was born before June 1803." She could have been born sooner (as early as Sept. 1802) and probably was. Mrs. Hasskarl states ..."It is logical to assume that Nancy was born between September [the earliest date possible] and December of 1802 [the date Jacob married Fanny], and perhaps her mother, Nancy Boswell Tichenor, died in childbirth."

CWB & Cen-Ohi, 1810 443 TIMOTHY[5], b Jan 16, 1775 in Morris Co., NJ; d 1856 in Ohio Co., KY; m Elizabeth Humphrey, dau of John and Betsy Humphrey, Apr 20, 1797. John Humphrey owned land on Nolin River in Hardin Co., KY, and had a distillery. He died in Hardin Co. in 1815.

1830 1840 Nel-W, A 788 WCC 1 HOD 7 Timothy Tichenor's primary occupation was presumably farming, but he had a sugarbush and ran a grist mill after moving to Ohio Co., KY. He also had a still which was licensed Aug 25, 1817. He bought 40 acres of land on Plum Run in Nelson Co., KY, in 1796. He received 600 acres off the south end of his father's land in Ohio Co., KY, by his father's will, and may have moved there in 1805 or 1806. The census shows him living there in 1810 and he lived there the rest of his life. He built a house near the center of the farm. He and Elizabeth were charter members of the Walton's Creek Baptist Church which was organized in 1814.

16 17 16 Timothy Tichenor left the church in 1823 because of a quarrel he had with another member. The manner of his leaving seems worth recording in some detail because of the bearing it has on the practice of the Baptist Church of that time on hearing and adjudicating grievances between members. It is recorded that Timothy brought two charges against Brother Thos. Ashby. In March 1823 the church "took up the matter of dealing brought by Bro. Timothy Tichenor against Brother Thomas Ashby for first agreeing to take 25 or 30 apple barrels and afterward denying the bargin and not taking the whole of the barrels. The charge not substantiated and Bro Ashby acquitted." At a meeting the following May there was doubt as to whether the church had voted on the charges. "The church being convinced that a vote had not been taken at the March meeting therefore took the same into consideration whereupon an investigation was entered into upon the merits of the case between said brethern." The church found the charges and Timothy's attitude unjustified "whereupon we exclude him from our membership."

16 16 17 In the second charge "Brother T. Tichenor states that he is dissatisfied with Bro. Ashby concerning a Twenty Dollar bank bill which one or both of them received at Darlington which bill is said to be counterfeit and in consequence thereof he wants Bro. Ashby to lose five dollars of said money. The parties being fully heard, the church is of the opinion that Brother Ashby is not bound to pay the said money." At a church meeting in April "Brother T. Tichenor professed to be agrieved with the decision of the church at the last meeting respecting the $20.00 bill and requested a rehearing of that case which was granted. The church then agreed by the consent of the Brethern Tichenor and Ashby to send to Beaver Dam church for a committee of five brethern to come to our next meeting to settle the difficulty between the brethern." This committee reported at the May meeting: "After hearing the statements from both parties together with some testimony detailed from others we are of the opinion after weighing all the circumstances that Brother Ashby should lose five dollars of the before mentioned bill."

Ohi-Or, "Old" Timothy Tichenor was active in the affairs of his county and community. An old order book records the following in the June term, 1807: "ordered that Timothy Titchenor cut the road of which he is now overseer 30 feet wide and keep the Same clean and Smooth agreeable to Law." The road is not named. In the August term he was given another job as overseer, for which he was, however, soon "discontinued." In the latter commission, it was "ordered that Timothy Titchenor be appointed overseer of the road leading from the Mortons ferry road to opposite Cornwells landing on G[reen] River to cut out the same 15 feet wide from its intersection with said Mortons ferry road near the Black Bear Pond, to Walton's Creek and that he have for his hands all those who live on said creek or its waters to assist him."

HOD 117 WCC 1 3, 5 10 Timothy Tichenor was a member of the jury for the trial of William Smeathers for the murder of Andrew Norris Apr. 11, 1809 in Ohio Co. Before he left the Walton's Creek Baptist Church, his name is found in the church minutes a number of times: serving on a committee "to see to the laying off of the church grounds for the meeting house and graveyard.": on a committee of finance, and serving in other capacities.

Ohi-D, E 527 F 118 H 427 H 428 Cen-Ohi, 1850 52 Two hundred acres off the west side of his farm was sold in 1824 to pay debts. In 1829 he mortgaged most, it would appear, of his person property, including two stills, to his son, John, to cover a $400 note and two smaller notes. In 1840 he sold 100 acres of his farm to John for $140, perhaps to pay the debt. In the same year he deeded the remainder of his farm to his daughter and son-in-law, Anna and Jacob H. Igleheart, who lived near by, for the consideration that they care for them as long as they live. The use of the house and garden was reserved. Also any "ores" found on the land were reserved to be the propery of all of the children of Timothy Tichenor or their heirs. The 1850 census lists him, age 75, living alone.

A year later he was employed as baggage master on the Illinois Central Railroad, on its run between Rockport and Louisville, KY. He later moved to Louisville, where the family lived until 1894. He quit that job to take up farming and in 1895 they moved to a farm near Narrows, KY, which had been owned by Naomi's father. JOHN[6], known as Jack, b in 1799 or 1800 in Nelson Co., KY; d ca 1855; m Sally Blevins Oct 15, 1823. Both are probably buried in the Walton's Creek Baptist Church Cemetery. Alney C. Ashby[9] who researched the John Tichenor and many other families wrote the following in his file on John Tichenor: "...north of the grave of Jarred Tichenor the Civ. War Vet., son of John and Sally Blevins Tichenor, I find a stone that at first seemed to have no inscription. But by looking closely I find as if scratched with a nail, the name, Sally Tichenor, no dates. There was another Sally Tichenor who married Aaron T. Tichenor, and they are buried at the south east corner, and have a large double monument. So this monument mentioned is beyond a doubt the monument of Sally the wife of John called Jack, there is room for several graves between her and Jarred's grave and only one small sand stone marker in the space. So I think we can safely say that John called Jack, is buried beside his wife, and perhaps others of their family are here also." The 1850 census lists John Tichenor, age 50,

They owned, however, 100 acres on Pond Run Creek in Ohio Co. from 1867 to 1888. The 1870 census gives his occupation as "hand on railroad." He was listed as a carpenter in that census. Complete data on his family is not available, however, there are several records concerning a William R. Tichenor in Ohio Co., KY, some or all of which may pertain to the subject of this sketch. Deeds recorded in Ohio Co., KY, show that in 1861 William R. Tichenor and Sarah J., his wife, sold a lot in "Centerville," KY, and again in 1864 William R. and Jane, his wife, sold a lot in the same town. The birth of William Tichenor, child of William Tichenor and Sarah Blevins is recorded in Ohio Co. The marriage of William R. Tichenor to Julia Leach, Apr 6, 1876 is recorded in Ohio Co., KY. Also in Ohio Co. is the marriage record of William R. Tichenor to "Becca" J. Richardson Dec 8, 1896. The 1900 census lists William R. Tichenor, born Mar 1830 in KY, living with wife, "Rubeca (?) Cen-Ohi, 1870 The 1870 census record, Ohio Co., KY, of "Wm. Titchenor" age 40 and a farmer, with $100 in personal property and $400 in real estate, may be William R. Tichenor. In the census, the following Titchenors were living in his household: Sarah J., 37 (?); Elijah G., 19; William A., 15; Isaac G., 11; and Laura B., 9. Also Nancy J. Turley, 16, "Cook and Washer" lived in his household. Both his age and the age of William A., his son, correspond to the ages of the subject of this sketch. With no confirmation that this is the family of William R. Tichenor, only those known to be his children are listed below.

At about the age of twelve, Jacob Henderson Igleheart went with his parents to Ohio Co., KY, where his father bought wild land in the southwest part of the county on Green River, and subsequently improved a farm upon which he resided until his death. Jacob Henderson Igleheart received such education as could be obtained at the schools of the KY frontier. After becoming of age, he bought land near the old home place, improved it, and lived on it about 10 or 12 years. He and Anna were then given her parents' farm, where they lived the remainder of their lives. The farm was deeded to them for the consideration that they take care of her parents for the rest of their lives (see page 282 for details). They were devoted members of the General Baptist Church, in which he was a regularly ordained minister for more than twenty-five years. He was also a member of the Masonic fraternity. Both are buried in the Igleheart Cemetery, Ohio Co., KY.

Rolla Tichenor was a merchant and steamboat owner. On Oct 12, 1854 he gave a friend power of attorney to handle his business. George Humphrey and Margaret Tichenor lived for a few years 1 1/2 miles east of Liberty, MS, on what was known as the John Webb place. He practiced medicine in Liberty and surrounding territory about the close of the War Between the States. They were members of the Liberty Baptist Church as were her parents. Margaret Ann Thurman was a first cousin to the American statesman, Allen Grandberry Thurman and is said to be a niece of Colonel William Whitley, Kentucky's celebrated Indian fighter.

The following is verbatim from a short biography of George Humphrey Tichenor, except for the first paragraph which is incorporated in the above sketch:

HAC 443

> Dr. Tichenor enlisted in the army in the spring of 1861 in the Washington Co., "Dare Devils," a cavalry troop assigned to McNairy's Batallion, as orderly sergeant, Company B, Second Tennessee Cavalry. On May 30, 1862, he was ordered to make a forced march to protect Booneville, Miss.,

with three companies under Capts. Parrish, Martins, and Macknight, to face 3,000 to 5,000 Federals. By strategy of marching and countermarching and making no show of fighting, the Federals thought they were trapped, and stampeded, leaving ammunition train, ordinance stores, and prisoners. The command was next ordered to go to the front as advance guard for Gen. Armstrong's Div. of cavalry which command captured Iuka, Miss., with large amount of supplies. On Sept 20, General Price ordered Tichenor to take charge of one division of the commissary wagons, and on Oct 12, 1862, he was severely wounded in battle near Tuscumbia, Ala., and his military service was suspended until Feb 4, 1863. Soon he was ordered to middle Tennessee, as recruiting officer of the Second Tennessee Cavalry, then within Federal lines. Capt. Tichenor, with recruits operating between Spring Hill and Columbia, Tenn., harrassed the Federal army stationed at Franklin, Tenn.,
HAC 445 capturing by strategy, quantities of supplies, wagon trains, and prisoners, causing the Federals to retreat into Franklin. Due to his ingenuity he gained a reputation in Tenn. similar to Morgan and his men in KY.

During the war, he was wounded four times. Being a chemist and medical student licensed to practice, when not in active service, he made gunpowder for the Confederates and gave medical and surgical service in hospitals. He was the originator of antiseptic surgery, making the prophecy of Sir. James G. Simpson, also a protastant against the abuses of old surgery and physic, come true; vis, "An era when practitioners would look upon the cure of certain maladies as simply a series of chemical problems: stop bleeding in amputations and other wounds, not by septic ligatures, or stupid needles, but by medication and healing by first intention."

He was discharged from the army at Canton, Miss., where he was provost marshall and recruiting officer; he was also in charge of the hospital there.

In 1873 "The Island," in Old River, on the Mississippi River between Adams Co., Miss., and Concordia Parish, La., was the rendezvous of Murrell's, a desperate leader, who was uniting all dissatisfied elements for the purpose of establishing a Utopia by means of murdering the plantation owners first, then dominating the cities. Capt. Tichenor, at the head of selected men recruited in Natchez, defeated and dispersed Murrell's army in a battle about 35 miles below Natchez. For this last service, he was delegated as surgeon for disinterring and burying the remains of Jefferson Davis in Richmond, VA.

Dr. Tichenor and Dr. Cowens, Chief Surgeons on Forrest's staff, organized the "Medical Officers of the Army and Navy of the Confederacy Assn.," for the purpose of preserving Confederate medical data and military practice of medicine and surgery.

Being chairman of the committee on credentials while he was major-general of the Louisiana Div. U.C.V., he induced the Louisana Legislature to publish its military record in book form.

For many years he was commander of the Confederate States Cavalry Assn. and surgeon general of the Louisiana Division, U.C.V., also surgeon on the staffs of various commanders-in-chiefs of the national associations, exerting his influence in the compilation of Southern history, literature and chivalry, being chairman of the committee to erect a monument to the women of the South, the only country to officially honor its womanhood.

He reviewed President Roosevelt's "Rough Riders" before they embarked for the Spanish-American War, and his opinion as to preparedness was given with other military men aboard the presidential yacht to Secretary Daniels before the United States entry into the World War. He attended union encampments advocating uniting and advancement of common interest.

His wife compiled "Tributes of Southern Leaders" and deposited the records in the museum at Richmond, Va., the largest recorded tribute in the world.

Dr. Tichenor was nicknamed "The man who made the Mississippi River", due to his study of this and other singular rivers and is accredited with changing the engineering policy of the government, opening the Southwest passes, and the building of the spillway, as opposed to the all-levee fallacy. He advocated these changes persistently in the New Orleans papers, Waterway Journals, St. Louis , Mo., and before various engineering, press and state legislative bodies. As representative of New Orleans he attended the Trans-Mississippi Congress at its last meeting in Houston, Texas, and was made chairman for the day, in honor of his scientific achievement in proving the government's engineering fallacy. He began his first observation while surgeon on the Mississippi River Commission below Red River.

Dr. Tichenor was a regular licensed physician of the states of Mississippi and Louisiana. His contribution to medicine was: inventor of the first inhaler (U.S. Patent Office) for giving medication for the lungs, first successful treatment of spinal meningitis, discoverer of permanganate of potash for bite of venomous serpents, the value of charbon, and Tichenor's antiseptic, recommended by Tulane University and Touro Infirmary, which is the most largely sold preparation in the South.

In the early 1800's at Baton Rouge, La., assisted by Drs. Day and Buffington, he successfully united the severed ulna and radial arteries of a mill hand of Burton's sawmill. He was famous for his mass grafts and was the first to make an artificial anus on a child with occlusion.

George Humphrey Tichenor was in 24 engagements during the Civil War and was four times wounded: at Cornith, MS, Denmark, Meden and Bolivar, TN. His discharge papers describe him as six feet and one inch tall, light complexioned, with dark eyes and hair. He is probably best known for his Tichenor's antiseptic which is a household item in much of the South. He formulated the antiseptic during the Civil War, making it up in camps and on battlefields as needed. He first put it on the market in 1881 and was living at Red River Landing, LA, at the time. A McLean Co., KY, deed by which he sold land inherited from his grandmother, Barbara Humphrey, gave his address as Point Coupee Parish, LA, in August 1884. In 1885 he moved to Baton Rouge, LA, and devoted all of his time to the manufacture and sale of the antiseptic. Late in life he transferred by charter all his interest in it to the Dr. G. H. Tichenor Co., Ltd. which is comprised of family members; and contracted with Arthur, Parker and Irby for them to set up a Company to be known as the Dr. G.H. Tichenor Antiseptic Co., now (1976) at Baronne St., New Orleans, LA. The family's only affiliation with this Co. is the contract.

Thomas Alexander Tichenor quit school at about the fourth grade because he didn't like school and his mother didn't make him go. He loved boats as a hobby, and possessing an engineering skill, he later drew boat plans and built boats himself. They were small but among the finest in performance on the river according to his son. At age 20, he built the first ice plant in Calhoun, and later worked with Hugh Whitaker in the hardware business in Calhoun, KY. He got into the mail boat operation in the Bowling Green-Morgantown run and later in the Calhoun-Livermore run during World War I. He lost money on this due to a pre-war contract, but after the war did quite well as a boom in passengers and traffic arose.

After the mail boats were discontinued due to improved transportation by land, Thomas Alexander Tichenor went into the towing business. His son helped in this operation, and they barged mostly railroad ties but also saw logs, corn, coal, and sand & gravel, navigating at times the smaller rivers where the larger boats could not go. He did well at this, building one boat, operating it for awhile, then selling it and building another. There were three of these, all stern wheel towboats: the Thomas T., the Tom Push, both with gasoline engines: and the Eagle, powered by diesel. He owned a number of propeller driven boats among which were the Caroline, Thomas, Jr., St. Clair, Kalista, Calhoun and Rumsey.

When the Bank of Calhoun went bankrupt in 1927 he lost over $10,000 in deposits but also kept accounts with the Citizens Deposit Bank which remained solvent. He went out of the towing business in 1929 and sold his river boats shortly before the depression. In 1931 he bought a

   Thomas Cherry Tichenor spent his early life in Calhoun, KY. His father moved his family there from Bowling Green in the river boat, Thomas Jr., when Thomas was two years of age. He recalls his father showing him the hull of the old river boat, Kalista, which was partially sunk at the lower landing at Bowling Green in Sept 1931. His father had once owned the boat, which was converted from steam engine to gasoline, and used it on the Bowling Green-Morgantown mail boat run. A picture of this boat, probably taken before it
GRK 36 was purchased by his father, is in a history of the Green River.

   Thomas Cherry Tichenor helped his father operate his river boats until he was nearly through high school. He entered Western Kentucky Teachers College, now Western Kentucky University, Bowling Green, KY, in Sept 1931, and became a biology teacher. He then taught school at Simon Kenton High School in Kenton Co., KY, until World War II, when he joined the U. S. Navy. After the war he worked for the Veterans Administration for a time before finishing graduate work at the University of Kentucky. He stayed in the Naval Reserve for over 30 years. He returned to teaching in 1953 in the Jefferson Co., KY, schools, and worked for a time at the Army Education Center, Fort Knox, KY. He retired as a biology teacher from Moore High School in 1978 after 28 years of teaching in Jefferson and Kenton Counties, KY. Since retirement he has been fulfilling a life desire to write, and has written a novel, Mr. Paddlefish, which is being examined by a publisher. He is (1986) writing a sequel to that novel. He and his wife live in Louisville, KY.

   William Franklin Tichenor was a farmer, mechanic and undertaker. He was known as Frank in KY and Bill after moving to MO. In KY he lived with his family on a portion of the family farm in McLean Co. The house where his two daughters were born was about one fourth mile from his parents' home. In 1914 he moved his family to OK where he became a ranch foreman on the Williams ranch near Marlow, OK. His duties were mostly grooming and showing the then new breed of Poland China hog. The family didn't like their new home and in 1916 began the trip back to KY in a 1910 Ford car with a few suit cases, the rest of their belongings having been shipped to Calhoun. Near Lebo, KS, the car broke down and not being able to repair it for some days, he put his wife and daughters on a train which they took to Evansville, IN. From there they took a river boat to Calhoun where they were met by the girls' grandfather Tichenor.

   When his car was finally repaired, William Franklin Tichenor started home. When he got about 50 miles east of Kansas City, he was broke. On inquiring about work he was referred to the Childs ranch near Buckner, MO. He got a job on the ranch where he worked for a time before returning to KY. He liked the Childs family and MO so much that in 1918 he bought a new Ford and returned to the Childs ranch. He worked there again for a time and then purchased a home in Buckner and worked at the local hardware store. He afterward went into the furniture and undertaking business. He also served as mayor of Buckner and was in his second term as mayor when he died. In KY he was a member of the Antioch Presbyterian church. In MO he attended the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints. His daughter, Freda, recalls his saying that he owed his life to his brother, Robbie, who pulled him out of a rain barrel at the age of three.

By her second marriage to Owen Wm. Peck Feb 14, 1829, Lydia had a daughter, Ellen, who was born in Springfield Tp, Hamilton Co., OH, May 22, 1838, and died Oct 1917 in Wayne Tp, Wayne Co., IN. SARAH[5], is named a child of Daniel and Catherine in the published records of the Morristown Presbyterian Church. She died Feb 26, 1776 at the age of 19. This is probably a mistake. James Tichenor did not mention her in his genealogy and her age makes it very unlikely that she was Daniel's daughter.

PETER[5], b Mar 27, 1777 in Morris County, NJ; d in 1822; m Frances Cotton, dau of John and Susannah (Smith) Cotton, Sept 3, 1797; d in 1822. John Cotton lived in Fairfax Co., VA, and moved to Nelson Co., KY, in 1875. Peter Tichenor's early death left his widow with a large family to raise. His place of burial is not known. However, there is a large rough unmarked stone next to his father's grave in the family cemetery in Nelson Co. One might speculate that it is his grave, as he lived in the vicinity and was the first son in the family to die. Another possibility for the grave, however, is his half sister, Elizabeth, whose date of death and place of burial is not known.

Peter Tichenor was living in Nelson Co., KY, in 1800; in Shelby Co. in 1810 and was again living in Nelson Co. in 1820, the censuses of those years revealing his residence. His name is on a list of the earlier justices of the peace and justices of the "Court of Quarterly Sessions." of Shelby Co., KY. He owned land in Shelby Co. which he sold in 1818. He and his brother, Silas, bought the interest of his sisters, Anna and Sarah, and his brother, James, in their father's Nelson Co. farm in 1818. His residence, as given on the deeds, was Nelson Co. He was co-administrator with his mother and half brother, Jacob, of his father's will. His (Peter's) will, written Sept 28, 1822, was recorded in Nelson Co. He left everything to Frances for the "benefit and support of herself and family", but did not name his children. The children, who lived to be grown and named below, were named by his brother, James.

ZACHEUS[6], b June 27, 1798 in Shelby or Nelson Co., KY; d 1857 in Ohio Co., KY; m Elizabeth Taylor, dau of John P. and Mary (Ricks) Taylor Oct 17, 1816. Elizabeth Taylor, b Nov 9, 1799; d Sept 4, 1850. Zacheus Tichenor was a farmer and was living in Hancock Co., KY, in 1840 and in Daviess Co., KY, in 1850. The census of that year named the following Tichenors in his household: Dorsey, 19; Elijah, 13; John, 74; Elizabeth, 50; and William, 35. It is not known who John Tichenor was.

By 1852 Zacheus Tichenor was living in Ohio Co., KY, where he became a member of the Walton's Creek Baptist Church on Oct 2. Later that year the church record shows that "On motion of the brother clerk agreed that Bro. Zacheus Tichenor be appointed assistant church clerk." The "brother clerk" was his uncle, Jared Tichenor, whose eye sight was failing. He served the church as an alternate messenger to the association in 1854 and as messenger in 1855. Also in 1855, "Bro. Z. Tichenor handed in a petition in regard to" the case of J. Ashby and R. Southard. One family of Zacheus descendants gives his name as Zachariah. The Zacheus spelling is confirmed, however, by several records including his family Bible. His name was recorded simply as "Zach" in his probate record in Ohio Co., KY.

CALVIN[6], b ca 1813 or 14 in KY; probably died in 1854; m Perlina or Parlena Lay (or Leigh) Apr 23, 1836. She, b ca 1816 in KY. They lived in Perry Co., IN, the earliest available record being of his serving on a grand jury there in 1833. He was married in Perry Co. three years later. The 1840 census reveals that he was in Perry Co. that year with two small children in his home and a male about his own age, in addition to himself and his wife. Two, presumably he and the other man, were in "manufactures and trade." In 1848 he, as "Calvin Tichenor, J.P." made a report having to do with fines, etc., to the Perry Co. Board of Commissioners. In comissioners' records March term 1851 we find: "Now here comes Calvin Tichenor, Esqr., and makes report herein to this Board of the fines assessed and collected by him and all State cases tried by him since his report at March term of the Board 1850, which report reads words and figures as follows..." Presumably "Esqr." indicates that he was a justice of the peace as other commissioners' records in 1850 refer to him as "J.P." He officiated at marriages in Perry Co., 1847 to 1851. He evidently mixed these duties with farming. The 1850 census lists him as a farmer and named the following Tichenors in his household: Perlina, 34, b in KY; William P., 12; Francis M., 10; Robert W., 8; Travis W., 6; Calvin, 3; and Ann Maria, 1/2, all born in IN, presumably Perry Co. The three oldest children were in school.

Per-D, G 96 E 278 5 585

Calvin Tichenor was referred to as deceased in a commissioners deed, dated Apr 4, 1855, Perry Co., IN. The deed for a five acre lot (sold Sept 30, 1854) off the SW corner of the NE 1/4 of the NE 1/4 of Sec. 5, Tp 6, range 3, was to property of Calvin's estate. His widow, Perlena, bought it. The defendants in the petition to sell the land were "Palina," William, Robert C., Mary F., Francis W., and John C. Tichenor. These would be Calvin's children despite differences in the names as given in the census except for Palina, who was presumably, Perlina.

Per-m, 5 83 6 408 4 17

A complete list of Calvin and Perlina Tichenor's grandchildren is not available. Three other possible descendants whose marriage records are in Perry Co., IN, are: Hettie Tichenor married John Rauscher Dec 31, 1878; Sallie E. Tichenor, married Francis W. Feugaus Apr 22, 1889; and Paulina A. Tichenor married William E. Drumb Sept 1, 1870. This last marriage may have been a second marriage of Perlina. If so, however, the husband did not sign the deed when she sold the above mentioned five acre tract in 1872.

He, therefore, probably had at least five children. Of these only the name of one is known. No further data on Ira Tichenor has been found.

George Carter Tichenor was educated in Terra Haute, IN, according to one source, in the common school, and according to another, in an academy, and learned the trade of painter. At the age of 19 he decided to go west. In early March, 1858, he went by stage and rail to St. Louis and by steam boat to Keokuk, IA. He was unsuccessful in finding a job, and his money running out, he tried to get passage on a steam boat for Fort Des Moines by offering to work for his passage. He was refused and had to pay ten dollars to become a passenger. The trip took eight days and nights and he arrived there April 19th. He later recalled that after paying two bits to have his trunk taken to the Collins House and paying for his room at the rate of $2.25 a week, he found himself with only a two cent piece in his purse, which he spent for a cigar.

court. When the Civil War began, he left that office and entered the Union Army in 1861 as a private soldier in the Tenth Iowa Infantry. He quickly won attention by the superiority of his service and in 1862 was commissioned adjutant of the Thirty-ninth Iowa Infantry. He was cited for "coolness and bravery" at the engagement at Parker's Cross Roads. In early 1863 he was appointed aide-de-camp with the rank of captain on the staff of General G. M. Dodge. He was with General Dodge in all his battles and campaigns until the general was wounded in the battle in front of Atlanta in 1864. He accompanied the general home and in 1865 resigned his position under him to accept promotion as aide-de-camp in the regular army with the rank of major. He saw a great deal of service in battles with the Indians on the plains and mountains and was subsequently brevetted first lieutenant colonel then colonel in the regular army.

At the close of the war, Tichenor returned to Des Moines and went into the lumber business with his brother-in-law, Charlie Getchell. The business, on Seventh St. between Locust and Walnut, was known as Getchell and Tichenor. When Tichenor resigned from the firm in late 1870, it became Getchell and Sons.

He was appointed postmaster of Des Moines in April 1867. In 1868, in the contest between General Dodge and the incumbent for a seat in Congress, he gave his support to his old war friend who won. In 1871 he was reappointed postmaster of Des Moines but soon after resigned. In that year he was elected alderman for the Second Ward in Des Moines and was reelected in 1872. There was a movement at the time to build bridges over the Des Moines and 'Coon Rivers. He was chairman of the bridge committee which saw to the building of the first iron bridge across the Des Moines which was at Walnut St. A wooden truss bridge was built over the 'Coon River at Seventh St.

TRAL

In 1873, George Carter Tichenor went to Chicago and engaged in business. In 1878, the failure of a bank left him penniless. He then returned to politics and began a career of national service when President Hayes appointed him that same year to a special agency in the Treasury Department. He was connected with that branch of the government to the end of his life, working with both political parties. In the ten years following this appointment, he was given many important matters to investigate both in this country and in Europe and acquired great knowledge of tariff systems. In the words of J. S. Clarkson, who followed Tichenor as postmaster of Des Moines, and eulogized him after his death in an article in a Des Moines newspaper, The Register and Leader, he was "easily and quickly the accepted standard authority and expert on all tariff questions in this nation, and for the legislative as well as the executive branch of the government. He had no peer in his chosen field."

TRAL

Protection vs free trade was a major political issue. In the last years of the Cleveland administration, Republican leaders "were all actively engaged in trying to devise the legislation that would bring the Republican party back to power. In 1887-88 Colonel Tichenor prepared for Senator Allison and the senate finance committee, under Allison's suggestions, what was first known as the Allison tariff..., as the substitute for the Mills Bill. Thus the Allison bill and the Mills bill were officially placed in Tichenor's hands for final examination as to the actual merits of each before a bill was finally submitted to congress." The bill as prepared by Tichenor was passed in 1890 as the McKinley bill, the bill that "made McKinley president."

TRAL

President Harrison, elected in 1889, made George Carter Tichenor "assistant secretary of the treasury in name, but secretary of the treasury in fact so far as tariff and custom laws were concerned." His appointment was widely praised by the press. "The Springfield Republican, the leading Mugwump newspaper of the United States, hailed it as 'the selection of the most expert tariff man in the whole country.' The Washington Post approved it as being the choice of one 'who knew more of the custom laws than any other man in the world.' The New Orleans Item (Democrat), said 'the wisdom and the sound business sense of the appointment cannot be questioned: his vigilance, shrewdness and entegrity have been demonstrated to the fullest degree...'"

The custom administrative act which became law June 10, 1890 created the general board of appraisers. President Harrison appointed Tichenor to the board "which is the supreme court of the customs service"... The board elected him its chairman, a position he held until his failing health compelled him to resign it.

George Carter Tichenor was the chief architect and revisor of subsequent tariff bills. In 1894 his assistance was asked by congressman William L. Wilson, chairman of the ways and means committee of the house, then Democratic, and others, in the preparation of the Wilson bill. "In the winter of 1895-6 both McKinley and Hobart [who were, in 1896, nominated for president and vice-president] were urging Col. Tichenor to settle himself to the work of a bill to revise the Wilson bill. The Dingley bill followed. "...Col. Tichenor began the preliminary work on it in March, 1896, while Mr. Dingley himself did not begin his work on it until in January 1897, and then on what Tichenor had so fully prepared for his use." In a letter to Tichenor Mar 6, 1896, Hobart admitted that "...the method of levying duties, is so intricate and delicate a subject that I have no clear personal opinion upon it. But I will swear by what you say about it, and when your plan of tariff is promulgated in 1897 it will go through." Among other letters Hobart wrote Tichenor, one of Nov 18, 1896 in answer to a letter from Tichenor to him said "'I am deeply impressed by the facts you set forth and the remedies you propose. You should write President-elect McKinley as fully as you have written me. Your letter shows such grasp of the existing situation, and you, better than any other man, understand the question more clearly and can more quickly and wisely adjust matters to the needs of all parties concerned, including the government, that I shall gladly give to your carefully written and exhaustive letter the practical attention and direction it deserves.'"

TRAL

"The exhaustive letters that Tichenor wrote to Hobart, to whom the president-elect seemed to have turned over the direction of the work of revising the tariff, are so profound in their practical wisdom and so clearly the letter and the spirit of the Dingley bill in advance that they should some day be printed. For they are models in statement and marvels in statecraft. No true and explicit history of the McKinley campaign in 1896, and of the preparation and enactment of the Dingley bill can ever be written without these letters from Tichenor being included."

TRAL

During this time George Carter Tichenor was ill, but "He met daily and nightly with the subcommittee in Washington as they were maturing this [Dingley] bill for its passage in the senate although his physical condition was such, through a long and wearing illness, that he had often to be carried in and out of the room, and his weakness so great that a lounge had to be provided for him to lie upon during the sessions. The physical man had failed under the cruel disease that involved the spine, but the indomitable will and the clear mental ray of the man never failed..."

He suffered from the disease the last 15 years of his life and in the last years, although paralyzed from the neck down, continued his work. He dictated to his stenographer and TRAL secretary, but they could not make for him "the mathematical calculations necessary for the intricate figures of the customs and administrative acts. All these involved calculations that he would make by mental arithmetic: with all animated life apparently departed from him, he would execute these involved problems in his mind. His feats of memory that he thus exhibited for years were simply phenomenal."

In the fall of 1901 he was compelled to quit work and spent his last winter in California. He

After her husband's death she probably moved to Hardin Co., KY, where one of her daughters lived. Thomas and Ann Bennett are the ancestors of many Tichenors, five of their 11 children having married Tichenors. Sarah and Margaret Bennett married Jonas and James Tichenor respectively, who were the brothers of Jared. Thomas Bennett II married Mary Tichenor, dau of Timothy, who was a half brother of Jonas, Jared and James. Jane Bennett married Daniel Tichenor, who was the son of Timothy.

Samuel Tillett died in 1790. His will dated Aug 20, 1790 and proved Sept 10, 1790 made bequests of 13 slaves and a tract of land in Fairfax Co., VA, to his heirs. He named 10 children. He made bequests to the children of his daughter, Ann, they being the only grandchildren named in the will. The property they received came into the hands of their father and his settlement to them March 12, 1811 is recorded in Ohio Co., KY, in a deed of that date. Jared and Martha Tichenor moved to Ohio Co., KY, possibly in 1806 the year he bought the first 400 acres of a large acreage of which he became owner. In March 1807 his stock mark is recorded in the Ohio Co. Order Book as "a crop off the left ear and an underbit in the right ear." In June 1907 he was on a committee of five "to review the nearest and Best way for a road from Green River opposite to Jno Comwells Landing on said River, to Intersect the road Leading from Mortons ferry to Hartford and make Report thereof to the Court as the law directs." In March 1808, it was "Ordered that Uzuil Condict and Jared Titchenor be recomended to the Governor of this state as fit Persons to fill the office of Justice of the Peace..." He evidently became a Justice of the Peace as he performed marriage cermonies from 1820 to 1828.

WRB Ohi-d Nel-m — THOMAS[6], b in Nelson Co., KY, in 1805; d Dec 24, 1854 in Ohio Co., KY; m Fanny N. Bryant[6], (see page 428) dau of Aaron and Anna (Tichenor) Bryant, Mar 13, 1826. Fanny N. Bryant's maternal grandparents were Daniel[4] and Anna (Byram) Tichenor. Thomas Tichenor was ordained a Baptist minister at the Walton's Creek Baptist Church Jan 29, 1843, and was pastor of several churches in KY. He owned a farm of at least 437 acres in the Matanzas neighborhood of Ohio Co., KY, 137 1/2 acres of which he bought the year he died. His widow owned 100 acres of it until 1880 when she deeded it to her daughter, Harriet, qv. The children evidently recieved 237 1/2 acres as revealed by deeds where by some of them sold their interest in that acreage "known as the estate of Thomas Tichenor." The description of a tract of land which his father sold in 1858 mentioned "200 acres of Thomas Tichenor which he lived on in his lifetime." He is listed in the 1850 census as a farmer with $800 in real estate. Named in his household were the children named below except Martha Ann who was probably married and living elsewhere.

Taught School for a time and studied medicine under Dr. J. C. Hoover of Owensboro, Kentucky, after which he attended medical school in Louisville and Baltimore and graduated in Chicago in 1891. Practiced in Ohio and Daviess County ever since. Elected to State Senate in 1909." Also written on this page, apparently as a separate statement, possibly by another person: "Senator, 1910, 1912." This evidently was written before he moved to FL. By others we are told that he was an 1891 graduate of Kentucky School of Medicine, Louisville, KY. He practiced at Beda, Centertown, and Hartord, KY, before locating at Crescent City, FL, about eight years before his death.

Sdx-Ohi, 1900 Cen-Dav, 1910 The 1900 census gives two locations in Ohio Co. for Benjamin F. Tichenor; Rosine and Centertown. Perhaps one was his residence and the other his office. In 1910 he was living in Daviess Co. His wife, Mattie, and the son and daughter named below were named in the census of both years. His occupation was given as farmer in 1910. Perhaps he was a part time farmer as he acquired land from his parents in 1874 and 1875.

Sanford Tichenor's father gave him 105 acres of wild land near Condit's Ferry, now Point Pleasant, where he improved a farm on which he lived until his death. He bought 150 acres from his uncle, James Tichenor, in 1850 which he later deeded to his daughter, Ardena. This land was part of the land which Daniel Tichenor[4], father of James, bought from John Howell in 1790. His other real estate included 83 1/2 acres bought from William S. and Jane Condit in 1851, and 300 acres on Grassy Creek bought in 1853. Sanford Tichenor was for several years an officer in the State Militia. He and his wife were members of the United Baptist Church, in which he officiated as a deacon for many years. He was a member of the Masonic fraternity. DLF SALLIE AMELIA[8], known as Minnie, b Dec 23, 1868; d Feb 16, 1937 in Hartford, KY; m Isaac Foster, son of William and Sarah Jane (Carson) Foster, Mar 22, 1888. Isaac Foster, b Oct 9, 1863 in No Creek Community, Ohio Co., KY; d July 15, 1930 in Hartford, KY. Both, bur Oakwood Cem, Hartford.

William Foster was born in Newry, County Down, Ireland, and came to America with his parents, Richard Robert and Nancy (Mary) (Beatty) Foster and his brothers in 1828. He moved to Ohio Co., KY, in 1849 where his younger brother, Isaac, had moved in 1835 with his foster parents after the death of his mother. William Foster had six children by his first marriage to Susan Bennett, who died. Sarah Jane Carson was the daughter of Lindsay Robinson, a double first cousin of the famous frontier scout, "Kit" Carson, and Elizabeth Stevens, daughter of Thomas and Ann (Nancy) (Warfield) Stevens. Warfield Stevens settled in Ohio Co., KY, from MD in 1800.

Isaac Foster was an architect and carpenter. He also operated grocery stores during his lifetime. Sallie Amelia (Brown) was named for both her grandmothers, but evidently did not like either of her given names as she went by "Minnie" all her life and that name is on her gravestone. For many years she operated the New Commercial Hotel on the square in Hartford, KY. Her hotel dining room was a favorite eating place in Hartford. During the "big" flood in Kentucky in Feb 1937, flood waters got up into the basement of the hotel. She contracted influenza and then pneumonia as a result of wading around in the water and died, a victim of the flood. She was an avid basketball fan.

Byron Lee Foster, m 2nd Lucy Evelyn Cannon of Shelbyville, TN, dau of Zachariah and Mary Suffrona (Moore) Cannon, Aug 31, 1921. Lucy Evelyn Cannon, b May 21, 1903 at the Canon family farm in the Singleton community of Bedford Co., TN. After Byron's death on May 28, 1956, she married a second time to Edgar Paul Carroll in 1957. They continued to live at the farm near the Pleasant Grove Community until 1936 when she sold the farm and built a new home at 112 Burrum Dr. in Shelbyville, TN, where she presently (1980) resides. Edgar Paul Carroll is now deceased.

Lucy Evelyn Cannon's paternal grandparents were Almond and Ellender (Powell) Cannon and her maternal grandparents were John Fletcher and Emma Amelia (Shoffner) Moore. The Cannons, Moores, Shoffners, and Powells were early settlers of Bedford Co., TN., beginning in the early 1800s.

Byron and Evelyn Foster had a unique wedding. They were to be married at the minister's home, but when they arrived at his house they found the minister in his front yard. He said "I can marry you here." So they were married while seated in the front seat of a Model "T" Ford, the witnesses were in the back seat, and the minister stood by the side of the car.

Byron Foster became construction superintendent for Gould Construction Co. of Nashville, TN, a position that he held for a number of years until that company ceased operation during the depression years in 1931. During this period he supervised construction projects (mainly bridges but some buildings) in three states: KY, TN, and AL. In KY he had projects at Brandenburg, Cadiz, Catlettsburg, Pineville, Sample, and Smithland; in TN at Dover, Jellico, Knoxville, Nashville and Shelbyville; and in AL at Birmingham, Killen and Selma. In 1932 he and his wife bought a farm in the Hart's Chapel Community, five miles north of Shelbyville in Bedford Co., TN. They lived there until late 1944 when they bought a larger farm eight miles southwest of Shelbyville near the community of Pleasant Grove. They built a new home on this farm in 1946. They were living at this location when Byron died after a series of 13 heart attacks that began in 1953.

During the last 20 years of his life while he was living at Shelbyville, Byron Foster continued to supervise construction projects. These included the high school and hospital in Shelbyville, a

His father deeded him 150 acres on Rough Creek in Ohio Co. in 1852. He and his wife sold this the following year, the deed giving their residence as Daviess Co., KY. Deeds dated 1856 and 1860 to land he bought and sold in McLean, Co., on Buck Creek, gave that county as his residence. McLean Co., was created in 1854 partly from Daviess Co. so this may not mean that he had moved. Deeds dated 1878 and after give his residence as Daviess Co. The 1880 census named the following children in their household in Daviess Co.: Mattie L, age 30; William, 20; Benj., 19; Jacob, 17; Julia V., 14; Charles M., 12; and Archie, 9.

Manley Berry Tichenor, was a farmer, and according to a Daviess Co. newspaper, lived at Tichenor's Station, now Nuckols, Daviess Co. for many years. Before 1883 he purchased 260 acres of land in the community that later became Thurston. The town of Thurston and the Thurston School were built on his farm. A member of the Baptist church since joining at Walton's Creek January 27, 1838, he served as clerk, 1854 to 1876 at the Buck Creek Church. His clerkship was noted for faithfulness. In the twenty years that he served, only three times was he absent from the business meetings of the church. In 1889 he, his wife and the following named three children, Martha Lee, Charles M, and Archa Davis, became charter members of the Yellow Creek Baptist Church. He was first deacon and a member of the building committee.

Sdx-Dav, 1900 Dav-D, 74 6 Ohi-D, TNM

In 1900 his daughter Julia and husband Jefferson D. Burton, were living with him. A 1902 Daviess Co. deed reveals that he made "certain advancements to his children" by selling children, C. M. Tichenor, Ben Tichenor, and Julia Burton each a tract of land of something over 20 acres for $1000 with which he gave $500 to each of the following sons: W.J., S.C., and A.D.; and daughters: Delia Ashby, Lydia Atherton, and Sally Sosh.

PD July, 28, 1975 Atr Aug 16, 1978 2. Thomas Hager[9], b Feb 10, 1923. He, known as Tom, has been a puppeteer for more than 40 years, a career which began while he was still in high school when he did Puss and Boots at the Nashville Public Library. After high school he studied at the George Peabody College for Teachers, Nashville, TN, and served in the US Army from 1943 to 1945. He gave his first marionette show in New York, NY, as a teen-ager.

Tom Tichenor was a puppeteer at the Nashville Library, 1947-60. He was children's director of WKNO-TV (educational television), Memphis, TN, 1957-60, creating among other programs a weekly series of folk and fairy tales. He designed and built the puppets for the popular 1953 movie, LiLi, and later (1961-62) for the Broadway musical, Carnival, which was based on the movie. He was a performer on "Birthday House", WNBC-TV, New York, NY, 1964-67, and has since been a puppeteer at the Nashville Public Library.

Tom Tichenor has redecorated his house in Nashville to resemble an early English manor complete with wood beams and fireplace. The house has been taken over by dolls, stuffed animals, marionettes, and puppets. At Christmas the house is decorated much as a similar house in England would have been during the Charles Dickens period. Hundreds of people pour through the Tichenor manor every Christmas. In 1977, Tom developed the "Tom Tichenor Land of Make Believe" in Nashville. It is entirely made up of his creations and collections and is housed in the same structure as Loretta Lynn's western clothes shop and is open to the public.

He is the author of Folk Plays For Puppets, Tom Tichenor's Puppets, and Smart Bear, pub by Abingdon, Sir Patches And The Dragon, pub by Aurora, and Tom Tichenor's Christmas Crafts, pub by Lippincott. He has also written plays for children's theaters and is a contributor of plays, poems, stories and articles to magazines. He is a member of the American Federation of Television and Radio Artists, Screen Actors Guild, and the Actors Equity Association.

He, b in England; d 1833; bur Tichenor Cem, Nelson Co., KY. His mother's maiden name was Coffin. He immigrated to the United States when a mere lad. At the time he married Sarah, he owned 200 acres on Cox's Creek in Nelson Co., KY. He bought 100 acres adjacent to Daniel Tichenor on Plum Run in Nelson Co., KY, in 1795, and another 199 acres on Plum Run in 1807. At the time of his death he owned 200 acres on Plum Run which was adjacent to land of Timothy, Joseph and Ebenezer Tichenor, among others. It is not known if the Langsfords ever lived on this place. He sold 100 acres on Plum Run in 1805. He bought other land in Nelson Co. in 1825 and 1831.

Nicholas and Sarah Langsford were living on a farm on Simpson's Creek in Nelson Co. at the time of his death as revealed by an 1849 deed by which Daniel Langsford bought the interest in 143 1/2 acres on Simpson's Creek, it being described as the farm upon which Nicholas Langsford resided at the time of his death. James Thomas and family were living in Columbus Tp, Adams Co., IL, Sept 23, 1869, when he wrote his will. He was age 74 then or when he died. Abigail Thomas and sold them a five acre tract. Also, in 1837 their residence was given as Adams Co., IL, in a deed by which they sold their interest in 200 acres on Plum Run, Nelson Co., KY, of her father's estate to Lewis Langsford. Again in 1840 their residence was Adams Co., IL, in a deed by which they made Lewis Langsford power of attorney to receive money due them from her father's estate. The 1850 census lists them in the Town of Liberty, Adams Co. Jacob was age 50, and a farmer with $2500 real estate valuation. Anna's (as Ann) age was given as 44. Living in their household were Connors: Daniel, 12; Elizabeth, 5; and George, 19, all born in IL. The 1860 census gives Anna's age, probably a mistake, as 50. Catherine, age 16, was living in their household in that year. Presumably they continued to live in Adams Co. Their children were married there.

Langsford, sold by commissioner, 69 1/2 acres of land from his estate to Nicholas B. Langsford. Confirming evidence that Lewis C. of this record is the subject of this sketch is not available, but the acreage of the land is exactly that of a tract the subject bought in 1837. Three minors, Ann Mariah, Sarah Katharine (or Catherine) and James H. Langsford named in guardian reports May 8, 1948, may have been the same children (Fanny a nick name for Ann Mariah?). The report showed that E.C. Tichenor, their guardian, received money for them from the estate of Sarah Langsford, Jr. and/or Sr. (?). Children of Lewis Langsford, subject of this sketch, if he had any, would be heirs of both his mother and sister, who died single, after his death.

One James NcNealy was apprenticed to Jonas Tichenor May 21, 1845. Details of why he was are not available. WAW their marriage, he and Martha moved from their farm to Stony, TX, a small place in Denton Co., about 12 miles from Denton, where Martha's brother and step father had moved a few months before. Martha'a aunts, Lydia Kirk, Rhoda Coleman, and Sophia Tichenor also lived there. William and Martha lived there two or three years before moving back to Charleston to a 50 acre farm on the Cooper road which his father had given them and on which he built a small house. He had taught school in Stony and continued to teach near Charleston, teaching 10 years in all. During part of this time he studied medicine under Drs. Laine and Bennett. In 1885 he went to St. Louis to medical college and about 1889 to one in Louisville, KY. In later years he took post graduate work at both Galveston, TX, and New Orleans, LA. A few months after returning from the school in St. Louis, he sold the farm and moved to Charleston, TX, and after renting a house for a few months, bought a home, a log house on 27 acres of land, on which they lived the rest of their lives and on which they died.

WAW William Alpheus Wood was a charter member of the Delta Co. Medical Association which met at Cooper monthly. He attended it and the State Medical Association whenever possible. His daughter, Minnie, recalled that he was one of three doctors (usually) in Charleston and "had most of the practice. Others doctors came and went.... There was no hospital anywhere close and nurses were almost unknown. There wasn't even a drug store and he had to keep his own medicines. He had all sorts of expensive instruments that are not found anymore outside of hospitals. He even had an X-Ray machine..." He took several medical journals and kept up with the latest discoveries.

WAW Martha Angeline often went with her husband to help with the sick. She made all of her children's clothes. Minnie remembered "Ma was like a girl while I was home. She always seemed to be happy..." she loved to dance and sing. "when I was a little girl and we lived on the farm, neighbors often came in after supper to hear Ma sing. She... knew lots of songs of different kinds. After we moved to Charleston and bought an organ, our house was a regular meeting place." The door was open to everyone. "Most of our cousins would rather stay there than at home."

LLLF, v I 303, 432 MAGNOLIA ANN[8], b Sept 9, 1868; d Sept 24, 1964; bur Livermore (KY) Cem; m Cincinnatus Lindley, son of Henry John Coffman and Ophelia Martina (Timmons) Lindley, Mar 18, 1897 in Rockport, KY. Cincinnatus Lindley, known as Nat, b Oct 3, 1863 near Point Pleasant, KY; d May 15, 1931; bur Livermore (KY) Cem. He was a farmer and lived near Point Pleasant, KY. He became a member of the West Point Baptist Church, Ohio Co., KY, late in life. A Lindley genealogy describes him as "a man of splendid physique, being over six feet tall and weighing two hundred pounds."

LLLF, v II 27, 177, 179 Ophelia Martina Timmons was the daughter of William Timmons and Jemima A. Condit, who was a Lindley descendant. Henry John Coffman Lindley lived near Point Pleasant, KY. He was a farmer and one of the wealthiest men of Ohio Co. He was the son of Daniel and Sarah (McGill) Lindsley, who settled near Point Pleasant.

Daniel Lindsley was one of a party who moved to Ohio Co., KY, from Morris Co., NJ, in 1805, the group being led by Byram Condit whose wife, Mary Lindsley, was an aunt of Daniel's. Daniel Lindsley was indentured to Uzal Condit, his uncle by marriage, who was also in the party moving to KY. He (Daniel) was the son of Jacob and Abigail (Prudden) Lindsly. Byram Condit had served as administrator of the estate of Jacob Lindsly who died in Morris Co., NJ, about 1802, leaving wife, Abigail, and six young children of whom Daniel was the oldest. Jacob's early death probably accounts for Daniel being indentured. Jacob Lindsly was the son of Philip and Mary (McFern) Lindsly of Morris Co., NJ. Philip Lindsly, a descendant of Francis Lindsly of CT and NJ, was a soldier and wagoner from Morris Co., NJ, in the Revolutinary War.

Magnolia Ann (Ashby), known as Mag, attended Bethel Baptist College for women, Russellville, KY. She taught school in the Ohio Co. public schools before her marriage. She was a member of the West Point Baptist Church.

Martha Jane Tichenor, b Dec 14, 1827 in Ohio Co., KY; d Oct 3, 1876. Both, bur Bell Cem, Ohio Co., KY. In 1853 they were living on a farm in Ohio Co. which her father gave to them in Aug of that year. This farm joined the farm on which her parents lived, and was part of and located on the west side of the land Daniel Tichenor4, grandfather of Collier, bought from John Howell in 1792. Lewis C. and Martha Jane Tichenor were also living in Ohio Co. in 1850 and 1860 as revealed by the census of those years. Living with them in 1850 was Ophelia A., age five months. In 1860 Sudie [Susan] J., age two, was living with them. As far as is known, only Susan Jane, of their three children, had children. Ophelia A. probably died before 1860 as she was not named in the census of that year.

WCC 57 60 63 Ohi-D, U 59

Lewis C. and Martha Jane Tichenor were members of the Walton's Creek Baptist Church, and in 1852 he was on a committee "to act as solicitors and collectors for the church," on a committee in 1854" to ascertain how much can be raised to repair the meeting house or build a new one...", and in 1855 on a committee to "take a subscription to see what can be raised" for shingling the meeting house. Lewis C. Tichenor was a Baptist minister and also listed as a farmer in the 1860 census. The history of his ministry is not known except that he was pastor of the Beaver Dam Church in 1873. In Aug 1867, they sold the farm which Martha's father gave them, possibly moving in that year.

4. Thomas P.[6], b Dec 3, 1821; m Eliza B. MacDonall. The only available records concerning them are from the Nelson Co., KY, deed books. A mortgage Jan 20, 1841 recorded in Nelson Co., reveals that he, being indebted $250 to Isaac Bryant, mortgaged to him one bay horse about four years old, two bedsteads (?) and furniture, one bureau (?), also a quanity of cups & ware including knives & forks, plates & dishes, also a dining table, one __? table and glass, one chest and all

It was adjacent to the Fairfield and Samuels Depot Turnpike and the Bloomfield and

He also sold 26 acres in 1870 "being part of the land owned by Aaron Bryant at his death lying on the Fairfield and Samuels Depot Turnpike." This is an incomplete list of his real estate transactions. His name was also on a deed to keep the Tichenor Family Cemetery in Silas Tichenor was, presumably, a farmer, but also served as constable in Nelson Co. The order books of that Co. reveal his appointments as constable in 1818, 1830, 1833, 1837, and 1841. He remained on the farm which his father bought in Nelson Co. He and his brother, Peter, bought the interest in the farm held by their sisters, Sarah and Anna, and brother, James, in 1818; and he alone bought the interest held by his brothers, Jonas and Jared in 1823. He made a will in 1835 but did not name his children in it. He made his "brother, James Tichenor, of Spencer Co., my sole Executor." James was also appointed guardian of his minor son, Silas M. All of Silas's children were members of the Bloomfield Baptist Church and during their lives were exemplary members of the church. All of the sons were elected officers of the church and each one of them was appointed or elected to some civil office of trust or profit in the commonwealth.

Edward Condit Tichenor was prominently identified with the business of the county and was magistrate for nearly fifty years. He assisted in surveying the Pike from Louisville to Nashville. He surveyed and located the Highgrove, Fairfield, Bloomfield Pike and Plum Run roads from near Fairfield to Bardstown. His surveyor's compass was one of the finest in Nelson County, made by William Sampson, the first silversmith in Bardstown. He was wonderfully vigorous both mentally and physically at the time of his death and notwithstanding his great age could write a most beautiful hand. His children were all born in Nelson Co., KY.

He was a confederate soldier in the American Civil War serving as a private in Co. B, 14th KY Regiment, under Morgan's command. The date he entered is not known. He was captured near Buffington Island, OH, July 19, 1863, and was paroled at Camp Douglas, IL, and forwarded to City Point, VA, and freed March 14, 1865 in a prisoner exchange. He ran unsucessfully for sheriff of Harden Co. in 1871. He was a stockholder in the Bank of Sonora and taught the Baracas Class of the Baptist Church until his death.

The will of Gabriel K. Tichenor, written Jan 2, 1917, named wife, Jane F., and "my only child, Ruth Caroline Bland", who has a child or children. He had previously given her 80 acres of his farm and "want her to have the rest." A codicil to the will, dated Jan 15, 1921, specified that his wife was to give Haywood Bland any and all farming tools she does not need. Presumably he was Ruth Caroline's husband. Jane F. was presumably a third wife unless Jennie was a nick name for Jane F.

An Elizabethtown and Hardin County history (1979) mentioned a "Dr. Ruth Tichenor from the Sonora section... The writer believes she was practicing in Miami, Florida at the time of her death a few years ago." It is not known if she was the daughter of Gabriel K. Tichenor.

Margaret Bennett was the sister of the wives of Jared and Jonas Tichenor, brothers of James (see page 338 for more about the Bennetts and Tilletts). She was a member of the Walton's Creek Baptist Church at the time of her marriage, and moved her membership by letter to the Bloomfield Baptist Church, Nelson Co., Ky, in 1814, where she was a devoted member for 40 years.

Nel-W, A 788 Ohi-D, Q 4 G 48 L 568 Spe-D, G 422 I 63 J 617 I 346 I 430 James Tichenor received 250 acres of land in Ohio Co., KY, by his father's will and although he kept this land for a number of years, he did not live on it. He sold part of it in 1833 and in 1850 sold 150 acres to his cousin, Sanford Tichenor, who lived near it. James and Margaret probably lived in Spencer Co., KY, (part of Nelson Co., which became Spencer Co. in 1824) as early as 1819. In that year he bought 63 acres on Camp Branch of Simpson Creek in Spencer Co. Other land was added to this and in 1847 he mortgaged a farm in Spencer Co. "on Camp Branch being the same tract of land upon which the said James Tichenor now lives, containing by survey one hundred and forty acres", to his brother-in-law, Aaron Bryant. James and Margaret sold this farm, being the "same upon which they now reside", in 1855. He bought land, some of it jointly with his sons, Joseph L. and Thamas B., on Ashes Creek, Spencer Co. in 1846, 1850 and 1852 which may have been their residence after 1855. They moved to Taylorsville in 1861 where their daughter, Martha Ann, cared for Margaret in her invalidism.

K 118 K 119 James Tichenor wrote a short family history, dated June 18, 1858, entitled Reminiscences of the Tichenor Family. In 1875 he rewrote and enlarged this history and began it with this note.

> Believing that my descendants will be pleased to know who and what their ancestors were, and having obtained authentic information on that subject, both from my paternal and maternal ancestors, and knowing that my time in life is short, being in my eighty-second year and the only one of my father's children now living, I propose to commit to writing for the information of those who shall come after me what I know in regard to the above subject, hoping that someone into whose hands the following pages shall fall will transmit them, together with such additions as may be necessary, to future generations.

RBT In 1918 Richard Bennington Teachenor, qv., used this history as a background for a Teachenor genealogy, copies of which are found in several libraries.

Spe-m, (Bond) #1104 James Tichenor's sons all moved to other states and some time after 1868 Martha Ann was the only child he had living near. She died in 1882. He saw some, possibly all, of his living children at a family reunion which was probably held in 1884, two years before he died. The writer, a great-grandson of James Tichenor, recalls his father's telling of being at the reunion. Although the date escapes memory, a marriage ceremony performed by James L. Tichenor, the writer's grandfather, in Spencer Co., KY, in 1884 indicates the date. James L. Tichenor lived in Napton, MO, at the time and the reunion was probably the only time he was in Spencer Co. in his father's lifetime after he left KY in 1868.

In his old age he was about the most popular man in Taylorsville, KY. Lived alone after his mother's death." His mother lived to the age of 105 years, 8 months, and 22 days. (For more about the O'Neals and McKays see page 225.)

Martha Ann (Tichenor) was baptized and became a member of the Bloomfield (KY) Baptist Church in 1828. The deed books of Nelson Co., KY, show that Jared Tichenor bought a lot in the town of New Haven, KY, "together with a wool carding machine and inclined wheel" Dec 10, 1846 and sold it to his father Nov 8, 1848. He was living alone in Shelby Co., KY, in 1850, and was described as a physician in the census of that year.

(Dawson) Cook, in Montgomery, AL, Dec 16, 1853. She, d Feb 9, 1860. He was married four times and survived his fourth wife.

Isaac Taylor Tichenor began school at the age of four. At the age of 13 he united with the Bloomfield Baptist Church, Nelson Co., KY. At the age of 15 he entered the Taylorsville High School. In his second year there he had an attack of measles which left him with infirmities which troubled him for life. At the age of nineteen he began three years of teaching at the Taylorsville Academy. He was assistant to the principal the second year and became principal the third year.

DAB, 18 523 In the meantime, at the solicitation of local Baptists, Isaac Taylor Tichenor began to preach, and his effectiveness soon won for him the title "boy orator of KY." In 1847 he became agent for the American Indian Mission Association and while traveling about in its interest he was called to the Baptist church in Columbus, MS, where in 1848 he was ordained. He served the Columbus church until 1850, then traveled and preached in Texas; was pastor of the Baptist church in Henderson, KY, for a short time, and on Jan 1, 1852 began 16 years as pastor of the First Baptist Church, Montgomery, AL.

RTR 10 For two years during the Civil War he served as chaplain of the 17th Alabama Regiment. He did not confine himself strictly to his prescribed duties. At the Battle of Shiloh "with gun in hand taken 54 from a fallen comrade, he rallied the men at the front and helped lead them to victory. It was an 72 experience which he never tired of telling--perhaps even to the point of tiring some listeners." He was wounded at Shiloh and returned to his pastorate at Montgomery in 1863. In the 17th Alabama Regiment, Thomas H. Watts, his friend and member of his church in Montgomery, was his superior officer. On the "Confederacy's fast day" August 1863 Isaac Taylor Tichenor was requested to preach the special fast day sermon to the joint Alabama state legislature. In this sermon he expressed the prejudice of the time and place and his devotion to the South and its institutions was evident. He defended slavery and said that three hundred years of history showed the inherent inferiority of the colored race, and that they were indeed ordained to a place of servitude.

WRR2 69 In 1864 the legislature of Alabama passed an act requiring the governor to supply the Alabama soldiers, who were prisoners in the United States, with clothing, blankets, provisions and money. Governor Thomas H. Watts appointed Meyer Lehman the agent with Isaac Taylor Tichenor his assistant to make arrangements. A letter from them to General Grant is in part as follows:

"Richmond, January 14, 1865

Lieutenant-General Grant, Commanding U. S. Armies:

69 "General: We have the honor to announce to you that the State of Alabama has appropriated $500,000 for the relief of prisoners from that State held by your Government. The undersigned having been appointed agents for the purpose of carrying into effect the design of this appropriation, most respectfully ask, through you, permission to proceed to the United States on the object of our mission. Having obtained permission from the Confederate Government to ship cotton to the amount of this appropriation, we are instructed by the Governor of Alabama to ask permission to pass it through the blockade...

RTR 58 Whatever else he had to do with those arrangements is not known. In 1867 he was "nominated by the Democrats for governor of Alabama. But he withdrew from the election on the ground that the leading men decided to abstain from voting because radicals from without were in control."

10, 11 In the economic depression following the Civil War, his church reduced his salary from $2,000 per year to $1,200 in 1867 and the following year paid him less than half of that. He told his congrega-
57 tion that he would resign if not paid which he soon did. He then became president of the Montevallo Coal Mining Co. in Shelby Co., AL, in which he and three others had bought controlling interest, and moved his family to his plantation in Shelby Co. He did some evangelistic work also until becoming pastor of the First Baptist Church of Memphis, TN, in 1871.

54, 55 In 1872 he was appointed the first president of the State Agricultural and Mechanical College in Auburn, and returned to AL. His old friend, Governor Watts, had possibly been influential in his API 11 being appointed. Throughout this period Isaac Taylor Tichenor continued to maintain a position of 13 leadership in the councils of the Southern Baptists, and in June 1882 he resigned his collegiate position and became corresponding secretary of the Home Missionary Board of the Southern Baptist Convention, the headquarters of which were at Atlanta, GA.

RTR, In 1845 the Baptist churches in the South formed the Southern Baptist Convention in a split with the churches of the North and thus became "Southern Baptist." The Convention loosely held the autonomous churches together as a denomination. The extreme poverty in the South following the Civil War rendered the convention weak through a lack of funds. Interest in it was reduced and there was a likelihood of the northern organization taking them over. Under the leadership of Isaac Taylor Tichenor, this trend was reversed. A Baptist historian has said of his 18 years as secretary of the 22 Home Mission Board that "More than any other single human being, he was the center of Southern Baptist renewal and survival... If it had not been for I.T. Tichenor, they might not even have continued to exist."

Tichenor was single when he assumed his duties as secretary. In the preceding 25 years he had buried four wives and three children. He left his remaining children with relatives and was thus able to 65 give his all to his duties. He persuaded the convention to break with the Home Mission Society which in the northern Baptist organization was the counter part of the Home Mission Board of the Southern Baptist. He traveled to every southern state and with his considerable persuasive powers and administrative ability was the leading influence in holding the churches to the Southern Baptist Convention.

In 1899 he retired from active work and was made secretary emeritus. In 1900 he was living at 17 E. Georgia Ave., Atlanta, GA. The census of that year lists daughter, Mary B., son, Walker R., and Sdx-Ful, granddaughter, Annie R. Barnes, in his household. Also two boarders and one servant. His health 1900 soon failed and after protracted suffering, he died in Atlanta.

Louisa was postmaster for a short time at Napton, the post office being a room in the Tichenor house. She taught her children music and played the melodeon in church before the church had an organ.

MBB 362 368 James Lewis Tichenor united with the Baptist church at Taylorsvile, KY, Oct 1846. About the year 1857 he moved to McLean Co. and was licensed to preach at Calhoun, KY, Nov 1858. He then lived with Dr. J. S. Coleman in Ohio Co., KY, for one or two years. Dr. Coleman was a Baptist minister and school teacher and had a fine library. James L. took instruction from Dr. Coleman; and often filled in for him at one of his churches when he was absent, as he was frequently holding protracted meetings at other churches.

In 1861 James L. Tichenor was pastor of the church of Uniontown and Highland, KY, where he remained for about two years. Also in KY he was pastor at Newport, in 1863, at Lancaster in 1866 and Crab Orchard in 1867. In June 1868 he moved to MO where between 1868 and 1874 he was pastor of churches at Richmond, West Port, Dover and Salt Pond, living at Boonville and Dover. In 1874 he bought a small farm in Saline Co., MO, the improvements of which were in the village of Napton, and next door to Zoar Baptist Church. There he lived the the rest of his life. After 1874 he was pastor of Rehoboth (now Slater), Zoar, where he was three times pastor for a total of 17 years, Orearville, Blackburn, Bethel, Fishcreek, Oakgrove and Shackleford.

He subdivided some of his property in Napton and old maps show a Tichenor Street, Tichenor Avenue, and a Tichenor Addition. His optimism in making this addition seemed justified at the time, but Napton ceased to grow and the streets were never marked nor all of the lots improved.

AARON TICHENOR[1] was born in NJ in 1743 and died ca Apr 1826 in Monongalia Co., (W)VA, and was buried beside his wife in the Rich Graveyard 1/2 mile north of Grant School House, Grant District, and one mile fron Hill Top, a small mining town in Monongalia Co., WV. His wife, Elizabeth Ann _____, was born ca 1753 presumably in NJ and died in 1823. He was a millwright and farmer. He first settled on Robinson Run in Clay District in Monongalia Co. and in 1807 bought 195 acres on the headwaters of Flaggy Meadow Run and Terry's Run. In the deed recorded June 1808, his name was spelled Tichenal; and in a deed of trust Sept 16, 1807 for the same land his name was spelled Tichinal. In another deed dated Dec 22, 1815 by which Aaron and wife, Elizabeth, sold 32 1/2 acres in Monongalia Co., the spelling of the name is Teachnor and Teachenor. These spellings did not continue with Aaron's descendants, who remained in WV, all of whom used the Tichenor spelling.

ATPA

Aaron Tichenor served in the Revolutionary War as a private. An account of his service is given in his pension application which is as follows:

> Be it remembered that on this 27th day of October in the year 1823, personally appeared in open Court....Aaron Tichenor, resident of said county, aged about eighty years, who being duly sworn... ...makes the following declaration, that he, the said Aaron Tichenor, enisted for the term of 9 months on the 11th day of June in the year 1778 in Sussex County, state of New Jersey, in the company commanded by Captain Clark in the 3rd or 4th Regiment of the New Jersey Regulars.
> He was in the battle of Monmouth, fought in the year of 1778. After the Battle of Monmouth, the troops remained there at Englishtown a week to bury the dead, and from thence marched to Elizabethtown and remained there during the fall and part of the winter. About the commencement of cold weather an attack was expected at Elizabethtown Point. That he was one of the guards, and for seven days he remained in the situation much exposed to weather without any house to sleep in.
> Sometime in November or December, his brother-in-law who had the care of his (Aron's) family came to camp and requested him to go home, and his brother-in-law with the consent of his officers, remained in his stead for two or three weeks, That after he went home, and at the time appointed, attempted to return to camp, but was unable to get more than seven miles. His Lieutenant at home advised him not to attempt to return because he could not, at that season of the year be any service.
> He is now very tremelous, and unable to gain a livelihood in any manner.
> He was a resident citizen of the United States on the 18th day of March 1818.
> His wife is now about 70 years of age, that for several years she has been afflicted with the Dum Palsley and entirely unable to help her self.
> His occupation was a Mill-right, but he is entirely unable to pursue it.
> He lives with a son who has a family, and with difficulty is unable to support them.

CCG

Aaron Tichenor's parents are unknown, but regarding the search for them, there is one interesting family named in the Charles C. Gardner Collection which quotes the Pierson Genealogy, 1878:

> Nathaniel Tichenor married Ruth, daughter of James and Esther (Williams) Pierson, born 172_ or 173_, of Newark and Hanover. Ruth was named in her father's will in 1761. Children of Nathaniel and Ruth were Hannah, Esther, & Aaron. The Hanover Church record states that the children of Nathaniel Tichenor were baptized June 14, 1752.

The Aaron Tichenor of this family is possibly the right age to have been the subject of this sketch, and he had two sisters and father who have the same names as three of Aaron's children.

Also in regard to families having the same given names, Jonathan of Warren Co., OH, is interesting (see page 571). He had, among others: sons, Nathaniel and Aaron and a daughter, Hannah, while Aaron (of this sketch) had, among others, sons, Jonathan, Aaron, and Nathaniel, and a daughter, Hannah.

Aaron Tichenor, the subject of this sketch, was one of two Aaron Tichenors living in NJ during the American Revolution. All available NJ records probably pertain to the other one (see page 41). The 1790 N.J. census, which was actually taken from 1778 to 1780 tax lists, and which named Tichenors in only Essex and Morris Counties, named only one Aaron Tichenor. He lived in Newark and was presumably the other one. The source for Aaron Tichenor, the subject of this sketch, having been born and lived in NJ, is his pension application.

In one he and his wife sold 77 acres in two tracts on Robinson's Run May 20, 1844. The other dated Mar 23, 1846 was a deed of agreed lines with a neighbor. He, b on Bice's Run, near Pine Bluff, Feb 17, 1847; d at Pine Bluff Mar 21, 1926; bur Pine Bluff Cem. He was the only child of Emeretta Martin (1827-1897) and was born and reared in the home of his maternal grandfather, Thomas C. Martin (1800-1876), whose father, William C. Martin (1775-1847), was among Harrison County's pioneer settlers.

Dow and Millie, as they were known to their contemporaries, spent the first few years of their married life in Ritchie Co., WV, and at Shinnston, WV, and then settled at Oak Point, a small community about one mile from Pine Bluff, where they lived until 1916 when they moved to Pine Bluff. The house they built there in 1916 is now owned and occupied by their great-grandson, Jack Sandy Anderson.

During the American Civil War, Dow Martin served in the Union Army as a private in Co. B, Sixth Reg. Inf. He was mustered into service on Sept. 5, 1864, and was honorably discharged June 10, 1865. For many years he was one of Harrison County's road overseers, a position he filled with great ability. A covered bridge built near his Oak Point home in 1900 was named in his honor since he was one of the bridge's commissioners. Millie was a direct descendant of Col. Charles Martin (no relation to her husband), one of the Upper Monongahela Valley's prominent leaders during the American Revolution period. Col. Martin, who died in 1800, was, in 1773, builder of Fort Martin in Monongalia Co.; was Colonel of a regiment of Rangers; was a commissary for West Augusta; was a member of the Virginia legislature; and served as an early sheriff of Monongalia Co. His daughter, Elizabeth (wife of Norman Randall), was one of Millie's great-grandmothers.

Fredrick Lincoln Sandy, b July 25, 1866 at Pine Bluff, WV; d there Jan 11, 1934; bur O'Dell's Knob Cem near Pine Bluff, WV.

Moses Allen Sandy was the son of Seth M. Sandy, the first Sandy to settle in what is now Pine Bluff, WV, and Emily Shinn whose father, Moses Shinn, owned the mill that gave Pine Bluff its original name, Shinns Mill. Moses Allen Sandy fought for the Union in the American Civil War. He enlisted at Clarksburg on June 27, 1861 and was honorably discharged Aug 15, 1864 at Wheeling, WV. His organization, the 3rd Regiment of Virginia Foot Volunteers, later became the 6th Regiment of the West Virginia Cavalry and fought in battles including Bull Run and Droop Mountain. He was captured by the Confederates, probably in the spring of 1864, but was able to escape, although in doing so he was shot in the leg. He inherited approximately 113 acres of Fredrick Lincoln Sandy was a storekeeper, farmer, miller, blacksmith, and for a time served as the postmaster of Pine Bluff. He and Cora in 1917 purchased the old Isaiah Shinn house at Pine Bluff, a house built prior to 1820. He died there, and the following year (1935) Cora moved into the small house that had been the final home of her parents.

He got land on Terry's Run, Monongalia Co., WV, on which he was living in 1826 by his father's will. Nov 27, 1829 he sold 42 acres of this land to his brother, Jonathan. Later that year he sold 33 3/4 acres, also received by his father's will, to John Brand. His name appears as Aron Teachner in Monongalia Co. in the 1810 census, with one adult female and one female under the age of 10 in his household. It is not known when Aaron moved to Tyler Co., (W)VA, but in 1859 he bought 78 acres and 25 poles on Big Buffalo Creek, a branch of Middle Island Creek, in Tyler Co.

An Aaron Tichenor served in Capt. James Hurry's Company in Col. Henry Coleman's Virginia Regiment (which served in Norfolk) from May to Aug 1814. James Hurry's Company was raised in Monongalia and Brooks Counties. This is probably Aaron, subject of this sketch, considering the advanced age of his father, the only other Aaron Tichenor in Monongalia Co.

Our sole source for the family of Aaron and Delilah Tichenor is the deed books of Tyler Co., WV. On July 19, 1869 they deeded 78 acres and 25 poles on Big Buffalo Creek in two lots of 59 acres and 19 acres to Nancy Baker and Millie Cooper, and on July 26, 1869, they made the following agreement with Nancy Baker and Millie Cooper: "the farm on thee [sic] now reside containing 79 Acres & 25 poles more or less conveyed them Aaron and Delila by deed bearing date on the 19 day of July 1869,... all of the personal property now owned by the said Aaron Tichnor consisting of horses, cattle, hogs & sheep, farming utensils, household and kitchen furniture for and in consideration of the foregoing the said Nancy Baker & Milea Cooper agrees to give unto Aaron Tichnor & his wife, Delila, their suport and the said Nancy Baker & Milea Cooper is to pay all just & lawful debts of Aaron Tichnor to keep them in plenty of good food suitable for old people and cloth them with good clothing suitable to the season during their natural life and call in a Doctor if needed and when tha [sic] die to give decent and respectable burial..."

On Nov 7, 1889, perhaps themselves getting old and having no children, Nancy Winters & "Milly" Cooper of Tyler Co., WV, "daughters of Aaron Tichenor" deed the same land and some personal property to William Rice and J.W. Rice on the consideration that the grantees take care of the grantors the rest of their lives. The Rices may have been relatives. Aaron Tichenor's sister, Easter, married a Rice.

Cen-Whi, 1830 NATHANIEL[2], b between 1770 and 1780; d ca Oct 18, 1831 in White Co., IL; bur probably in the Catlin-Tichenor Cemetery, Heralds Prairie Tp., White Co., IL; m Elizabeth _____. She, b 1775 in VA. She survived her husband and m 2nd Reuben Catlin Oct 3, 1833 in White Co., IL. Nathaniel Tichenor was

1850 living in Ohio in 1808 and 1822 as revealed by the 1850 White Co., IL, census which gives OH as the birthplaces of his sons, Thaddeus R. and Abraham W., 42 and 28 years of age respectively. One

Ad-D, 2 361 record of Nathaniel "Teachenor" has been found in Adams Co., OH: a deed to him for three acres of land on Eagle Creek dated _____. Presumably this was where, or near where, he lived, at least for a Cen-Whi 1830 time, in OH. By 1830 he was in White Co., IL. The census of that year lists in his household: 1 male age 5 to 10; 1 male age 20 to 30; 1 male age 50 to 60; 2 females age 10 to 15; and 1 female age 50 to 60.

Whi-W Nathaniel Tichenor's will written Aug 17, 1831 reads in part: "... Next and it further my will that Elizabeth Tichenor, my loving wife, should pay out of my property to my daughter, Sally Rogers, one colt six months old; to Isaac Tichenor, one dollar; to Christina Washburn, one dollar; to Thadeus Tichenor, one dollar; to Rebecca Rees, one dollar; to Mary Ann Tichenor, one dollar; to Abraham Tichenor, one dollar; and the ballance of my personal property after paying the above, I will and bequeath to her my said wife for ever, in witness I have set my hand, and offered my seal this 17th day of August 1831." Although Nathaniel's name was spelled Tichenor in his will, it was spelled Teachenor or some slight variation of it in the settlement of his estate, and his sons continued using the spelling.

We have no information handed down by descendants of Nathaniel Tichenor as to who his parents were. A search of older records yields convincing evidence that he is the son of Aaron Tichenor of Monongalia Co., WV: (1) He is the right age to be Aaron's son. (2) Aaron's son, Nathaniel, was living in 1826, being named in Aaron's will written that year. (3) There is no record of Nathaniel

CCG in WV, therefore, he was living elsewhere. (4) Other known Nathaniel Tichenors are either not the

OS7 27 right age, or their ancestry is known. (5) The Teachenor spelling of the name occurs in two deeds

OS4 248 of Aaron's in WV, and the spelling of the names of Aaron's sons, Aaron and Moses, was Teachenor in the 1910 census; and (6) although it will not carry any weight in the matter, it is interesting that

Mon-W, 1 25 Nathaniel left his children one dollar each to cut them out of his will. Aaron did the same thing with some of his sons, including Nathaniel. Any lawyer could have told Nathaniel that he could do that, but Aaron's son, Nathaniel, knew it first hand.

It is solely on this circumstantial evidence that the Nathaniel Tichenor described above, and whose descendants are named below, is placed here as the son of Aaron Tichenor of Monongalia Co., WV.

George Washington Teachenor moved from Ripley, OH, in 1854 to IA. He was a drygoods and tobacco merchant. Owing to failing health, he sought the more open life of a farmer. He "entered a section" of land in Taylor Co., IA, upon which he resided for many years. The lure of merchantile life, however, caused him to re-enter it. He was interested at one time in three stores in IA, at Bedford, Clarinda and Fairfield. He moved to northeast MO in 1869, owning farms, timberland and stores in DeKalb and Clinton Counties, until the panic of 1873 dealt him a serious financial blow. He afterwards lived at Stewartsville, Kidder Stanberry, and Worth Co., MO, (1880) and Des Moines, IA, going in 1886 to Kansas City, where he died.

office at Stewartsville; was foreman at Stanbery Sentinel in 1881; and became one of the publishers of the Stanberry News in 1883. He published, in 1882-83, an amatuer paper, the Amateur Exchange, which was later known as the Exchange Journal, and published from Judsonia, AR, and Chicago, IL, for five years. He was elected one ot the vice-presidents of the National Amateur Press Association at Detroit convention, 1883. He moved that year to Georgetown, CO, where he was editor of the Courier from 1883 to 1886, when he returned to Kansas City, where he lived the remainder of his life.

He established the engraving department of the Inter-State Publishing Co. in 1889 and in 1891, in partnership with Mr. E.G. Bartberger, established the Teachenor-Bartberger Engraving Co, of which he became president. Roger Cunningham joined the organization in 1893. It was in 1918 one of the oldest engraving companies in business in the United States. Being one of the pioneers in photo-engraving, Richard Bennington Teachenor, took an active part in standardizing the industry, the company being one of the charter members of the International Association of Photo-Engravers. He delivered the opening addresses at Boston and New York conventions in 1911 and 1914, and had technical papers at conventions at Indinapolis, Chicago and Philadelphia in 1912, 1915 and 1916. He belonged to the Fossils, an unique national club of ex-amateur editors, among whom were Secretary Daniels, Chas. Scribner, and many others, who later became famous. He had been in 1918 a member of the advisory board of Graphic Arts Organizations for eight years and secretary of the Kansas City Printers' Supply Club for 12 years. He was a thirty second degree Mason and Shriner and a Presbyterian. He was in 1918 a member of: the Kansas City Athletic Club, City Club, Chamber of Commerce, T.P.A., Missouri Press Asso., Kansas City Ad Club, and Engravers' Club.

In 1918 Richard Bennington Teachenor published A Partial History of the Tichenor Family in America, Descendants of Martin Tichenor of Connecticut and New Jersey. The book begins with a genealogy written by James Tichenor of KY in 1875 which focused on the ancestors and descendants of Daniel Tichenor[4] of KY. To this genealogy Teachenor erroneously connected Issac Teachenor[3] of Brown Co., OH, to the Daniel Tichenor genealogy as a son of Daniel's son, Jacob (see page 267). Despite this error, both the descendants of Isaac Teachenor and Daniel Tichenor have him to thank for the preservation of their family record.

Teachenor's book is the source of most of the material on the descendants of Issac Teachenor[3] in this book, including, except for his obituary, the above sketch on him which is slightly paraphrased. From his obituary we learn that in 1937 he retired from Teachenor-Bartberger Engraving which, among other things, handled much of the engraving and printing of school annuals in the area; and that many scenes of beauty and industry in Kansas City were reflected in engravings made there.

Teachenor, age 42, as a farmer born in OH and living in District 13, White Co., IL, next door (next household in the census) to his brother, Abraham. Living in his household were the following Teachenors, all born in IL: Catharine, 42; James A, 17; Wesley W., 16; Priscilla, 9; Thadious, R., 6; Catharine, 2; and Thomas F. 7/12. The settlement of his estate reveals that he owned 240 acres or more in White Co., IL. A petition to sell some of the land in 1857 named the following heirs: William Wesley, who was administrator of the estate, Prissey Ann Teachenor, Thaddeus R. Teachenor, Jr., Catherine L., and Thomas F. Another petition Dec 23, 1867 named children: William Wesley, deceased, and his three children, John W., Mary Ann, and George A.; Priscilla Ann, wife of Lycargus Rowe; Thaddeus R. The marriage record of William Wesley and Elizabeth Teachenor is in Gallatin Co., IL, and they were living there at the time of their deaths, however, an 1858 White Co., IL, deed gives that county as their residence. Their early deaths left their children, Mary A., John W., and George A., orphans. Elizabeth's father, Peter Smith, was the administrator of their estates and guardian of the children. The first property owned by the children was from the estate of Peter Smith, who died before 1880. They apparently divided the property, which was in sections 13, 22, and 26, all in township 8, range 8, by deeding certain parts of it to each other in the 1880s. One 14 acre lot in Section 26 was described as lying on the east side of the North Fork Creek or Branch of Saline River.

JAMES[2], was named in his father's will and was therefore living in 1826, the year the will was written. There is no county record concerning him in Monongalia, Harrison, Marion, and some other nearby WV counties unless a deed recorded in Monongalia Co., WV, by a James Tichenor is he. In the deed James Tichenor sold some personal property to Aaron Tichenor in 1896 (see page 455 for details). It is easy to speculate that James Tichenor was selling the property to lighten his load for a trip west, and that Aaron's son, James, made such a trip, as most migration was west in those days.

Supposing that Aaron's son, James, went west, we would expect to find some record of him. In the search for such a record a most interesting one is found in Texas. The estate settlement of James Tichenor is recorded in Hunt Co., TX, in 1833. The administrator of his estate was Lorenzo D. Tichenor. Moses Tichenor, who had a son, Lorenzo D., later lived in the area. Circumstantial evidence is convincing that Moses was the son of Aaron Tichenor (see below). One might suppose that James and Moses were brothers and that a nephew was called on to administrate the estate of James, except for two things: Moses's son, Lorenzo D., was 11 years in 1833; and James Tichenor was "James Tichenor, Jr." in the first court record concerning his estate. His name was, however, "James Tichenor" in all remaining records. We must, therefore, leave James Tichenor's identity a mystery.

MOSES[2], b ca 1790 in VA; d probably before 1860; m Mary Ann _____. She, b ca 1875 in DE, was living with son, Lorenzo D. in 1860 in Hunt Co., TX. The 1810 census lists Moses "Teachnor" in Monongalia Co., (W)VA. Enumerated in his household, under age 10, were one male and one female; and one male and one female in age group 26 to 45. He was living in Bureau Co., IL, in 1840 and living in his household were 2 males ages 10 to 15; 2 males ages 20 to 30, and one male, 50 to 60; and one female, age under 5; 3 females ages 10 to 15; and one female, age 50 to 60. He has not been found in the 1820 and 1830 censuses. A Bureau County history states that Moses Tichenor was among the early settlers in Hall Township, Bureau Co., IL, prior to 1840.

Bur-D, B 388, 385, 386, 387, E 2, 305, 306, Bur-M, A 426, Bur-CC,

The earliest deed recorded to Moses Tichenor in Bureau Co. was Feb 1839. It was for 80 acres in Sec 35, Tp 16, range 10 E., for which he paid $500. In Sept of that year he sold it to his sons, Joseph and William, for $100. However, he bought another tract jointly with one Samuel W. Williams, which evidently was not recorded, which he also sold to his sons, Joseph and William, for $100. This tract which was described in the deed when he sold it to his sons as 160 acres "which land is to be divided Equal to Quality and quantity Between Samuel S. Williams and Moses Tichenor aforesaid it being the Equal half of the" SW 1/4, Sec 29, Tp 16, range 11 E. Also Moses sold another 80 acres (20-16-10 E) to Joseph and William for $100 in Sept 1839. In June 1845 he bought 75 acres (30-16-11 E) for $1000 which he sold in Sept that year to sons, Lorenzo and William E. for $650. On the same date Moses sold 40 acres (31-16-11 E) for $150 to James Tichenor, presumably another son. Moses Tichenor's residence given in the deeds was Bureau Co., IL.

84 Cen-Lam, 1850, Fam 284

Moses Tichenor was evidently having financial trouble and lost 75 acres to creditors in 1848. In 1850, he was living in Lamar Co., TX. The census of that year described him as a farmer, 59 years of age and born in Virginia. Living in his household were Mary A., 63, b in DE; Loranzo, 30, b in IA; and James, 26, b in IN.

Cen-Lam, 1860, Fam 280

Living in Lamar Co., TX, in 1860 was a Samuel "Tichner" and family. The census of that year describes him as a laborer, age 29, born in IL. Living in his household were Margaret, 25, b in MO; and Rachel, 5, b in TX. Samuel's house No. in the census was 280, four houses from Moses (284). It is not known if Samuel was a close relative, perhaps a son of Moses.

There is no information handed down by descendants as to the parents of Moses Tichenor, who is described above and whose descendants are given below. However, his being born in VA, and other data identifies him as the son of Aaron Tichenor of WV, there being no other Moses Tichenor with whom to confuse him. Aaron's son, Moses, was living in 1826 as he was named in Aaron's will written in that year; and there are no county records, at or near that time, of him in Monongalia, Harrison, Marion or other nearby West Virginia counties. Also he does not appear in the census after 1810 in VA.

JOSEPH[3], b 1813 in DE; d 1876; m Sarah Applegate. The 1840 census records Joseph Tichenor in Bureau Co., IL. Listed in his household were: one male and one female under age 5; and one male and one female, ages 20 to 30. Several deeds to his property 1844 to 1854 in Bureau Co., give that county as his residence. Some land he owned jointly with his brother, William, and some of the deeds record their dividing the land. One 20 acre tract was sold by Joseph and Sarah to her brother, Lewis Applegate. The 1850 census lists him in Bureau Co., age 37, a farmer with real estate valued at $2000, and born in DE. Living in his household were Sarah, age 35, born in IN; and Nathaniel, 15; Mary E., 13; Eliza J. 10; Moses W., 8; Melvina, 6; and Lewis, 2, all born in IL, and presumably his children.

WILLIAM E.[3], b 1817; d 1894; m Susanna L. Applegate in Bureau Co., IL. Several deeds to their property 1844 to 1855 in Bureau Co., IL, give that county as their residence. All of the property was land except one item which was lot 20 in Hollowayville which he purchased jointly with James M. Applegate and which he sold in 1855. An 1856 deed gives their residence as Story Co., IA.

The Pences died in Fannin Co., TX. Sources for the birthplace of Lorenzo D. Tichenor disagree. Hun-P, A 73 88 104

There is a mystery concerning Lorenzo D. Tichenor, who in Hunt Co., TX, May 30 1833, was made administrator of the estate of James Tichenor. Some time after this date it was "ordered that Loranzo D. Tichenor as the administrator of the estate of James Tichenor, decd., be authorized to sell at the house of Lorenzo D. Tichenor on the 8th day of October A.D. 1833 and a credit of twelve months all the personal estate of said James Tichenor, Dec'd..." Lorenzo D. Tichenor was then ordered to "sell at the Court House door in the Town of Greenville on the 1st Tuesday in Febry, 1834 all the real estate situated in the County of Hunt..." of James Tichenor, dec'd. Moses Tichenor's son, Lorenzo D., was 12 years old in 1833, and the question arises: would he have been made the administrator of an estate? If there was an older Lorenzo D. Tichenor, no other record concerning him, census or otherwise, has been found; furthermore, no record of Moses's son describes him as "Jr." as one would expect in legal records to distinguish him from an older Lorenzo D. Tichenor.

Bur-D, E 540 Cen-Lam, 1850, Fam 284 Bur-D, N 187

Lorenzo D. Tichenor was living in Bureau Co., IL, Oct 15, 1846 as revealed by a deed of that date by which he sold his 1/4 interest in 80 acres in Sec 31, Tp 16, range 11 E, which he evidently had bought jointly with his brothers. The 1850 census lists him in his father's household in Lamar Co., TX. He was in Hunt Co. in 1852 as revealed by a deed recorded in Bureau Co., IL, Sept 4, 1852 "between Lorenzo D. Tichenor of the County of Hunt and State of Texas of the first part, and William E. Tichenor of the County of Bureau and State of Illinois of the other part. Witness that whereas the said William E. By the later deed Lorenzo D. Tichenor sold his interest in several tracts of land which he and his brothers owned together. This evidently ended his real estate holdings in Bureau Co., IL. He probably continued to live in TX until 1866 or 1867 when he settled in Franklin Tp., Newton Co., MO. He bought 120 acres of land in sections 24 and 35 in Tp. 24, range 30 in Newton Co., in 1869. He sold this land in 1871 but continued to live in Newton Co., where he raised a large family. His widow was still living in Franklin Tp in 1900. Living with her were Sarah Tichenor, b Dec 1874 in MO; Cly (?) V., grandson, b July 1895; and Silva, granddaughter, b Apr 1899 in MO. The children named below were named in either the 1870 or 1880 census or both except Thomas, who was born after the 1880 census was taken. Complete names have been supplied by descendants. Lorenzo D. Tichenor was a farmer.

DESCENDANTS OF DANIEL TICHENOR OF NEW JERSEY AND VERMONT

HT & LAJ & EF & Cen-Add, 1810

DANIEL TICHENOR[1], b 1754 in Morris Co., NJ; d 1814 in Bridport, Addison Co., VT. His wife's name was Jemima. She is named Jemima Bigelow Walton in the DAR papers of descendants. They moved to Addison Co., VT, sometime after May 1797 when their son, Daniel, was born and before 1800 when their daughter, Mabel, was born. He served in the American Revolution as a Pvt. in Capt. Crane's Company, Eastern Battalion, Morris Co., New Jersey Militia, commanded by Col. Silvanus Seely, and was released from duty May 7, 1778.

Daniel Tichenor's parents have not been discovered nor have his siblings, if any, been discovered. His moving to VT at about the time as Zopher Tichenor, qv., who was also from Morris Co., NJ, and had served in Capt. Crane's Co. in the American Revolution, hints at a close association of the two.

Mor-D, C 487

Isaac Tichenor, who is recorded in the 1800 VT census and Martin Tichenor, who sold land in Morris Co., NJ, in 1784 to Zopher Tichenor, may have been close relatives; but we have no confirming evidence that they were. The parents of none of these men are known.

NH

Five children of Daniel Tichenor have been documented. The DAR papers of Natalie Hurd, descendant of Daniel's son, Enos, name another son, William, b June 13, 1813. Also mentioned by Natalie Hurd are four other sons, names unknown, and two daughters, one who married Alexander T. Stewart in Prarie du Chien, WI, and the other married a Dennison of Toronto, ___. Natalie Hurd also stated that William was a roommate of [Abraham] Lincoln. One might suspect, since the birth date she gives for William is that of Captain William of Port Offord, OR, and that he was in the IL legislature when Lincoln was, that two William Tichenors are confused. The children named below are limited to those for whom documentation is available.

Natalie Hurd's DAR papers also give Daniel's name as "Daniel Thomas Tichenor." Military and census records, however, have his name as Daniel only.

Enos Tichenor bought property in Davenport, IA, in 1841, 1843, 1848 and 1850, some of which he subdivided. The deed books of Scott Co., IA, record his selling lots from "Tichenor's Addition" in 1851, and from "Tichenor's Second Addition" in 1855 and afterward; and by 1860 he was selling lots from "Tichenor's Third Addition." A Scott Co., IA, history reveals that Enos Tichenor ran unsuccessfully for sheriff of Scott Co., IA, as a Whig; was elected mayor of Davenport, IA, Aug 23, Harriet Louise (Tichenor) was described in her obituary as a descendant of Betsy Ross of American flag fame. After her husband's death, Harriet continued to live in Prairie du Chien. In Mt. Sterling, WI, she was active in community affairs especially in the organizing and constructing the Congregational church. She expressed her feelings and thoughts in poetry. Twenty-three of her poems were printed in a little booklet intitled "Day Dreams." Most of the poems were about life's cares, death, prayer, and God. One touching poem laments the death of a daughter or granddaughter. It is not known if she had the poems printed. Perhaps it was done by the family after her death. Today she has no living descendants to read them.

"To help my 84 year old husband (I am 67) while away house-bound hours 2 years ago, we started to talk and inquire about the 'old folks.' Well, we certainly accomplished our aim to use up time - but we are completely 'hooked' by this family history 'bug.' We are having such an interesting time and have made such wonderful pen pals, etc. I'm so glad the idea came to me..." Descendants of Daniel[2] and Harriet (Cook) Tichenor have them to thank for the material on their families which appears in this book as their genealogy is the principal source used.

Victor Joseph Tichenor had a second middle name. His father was an active beekeeper and followed the literature closely. He gave his son the name, Langstroth, as a tribute to an apiarist of that name who was important in research circles. Victor Joseph Tichenor moved with his parents to Daneville, WI, in 1913. After his marriage he operated a farm in Big Creek, Sparta, WI, for nine years, then farmed in Little Creek, near Sparta, for 21 years. He was known for his vegetable farming and worked part time during these years on road maintenance in Sparta Township. He was widely known for his humanitarian views, and remembered by many as a "country philosopher." In his later years, he was employed at Oak Forest Sanatorium, Onolaska, WI.

JAMES TICHENOR[1] was born Jan 17, 1772 in NJ; d Apr 24, 1839; bur Newark, NJ; m Abigail Huntington Hedden, dau of David and Esther (Baldwin) Hedden. Abigail Huntington Hedden, b Oct 1775; d Nov 25, 1853. She continued to live at their home at 32 Hamilton, Newark, after James's death. The 1850 census reveals that her daughter, Charlotte, and family were living with her in that year. Her house lot was described as 21 feet front and 90 feet deep in the probate record of her estate. Her heirs, and their share of the estate, named in probate were: Eliza, wife of Bruen H. Congar, 1/8, Esther B. Harris, 1/8, David H. Tichenor, 1/8, Benton H. Tichenor, 1/16, James Tichenor, Jr., 1/16, William Tichenor, 1/8, Charlotte N. Guerin, 1/8, James H. Tichenor, 1/8, Catherine Merry, 1/24, Charlotte Merry, 1/24, and Cecilia, 1/24. The Merry sisters were obviously Abigail's grandchildren. James Tichenor, Jr., and Benton H. Tichenor were obviously Abigail's grandsons, and were brothers, and the sons of one of her deceased sons, John, Oliver or Moses.

James Tichenor held positions of public service in Newark, NJ, where he lived. His name first appears in the town records in 1804 and 1806 as overseer of the poor. He was trustee of the "Free School" 1819 to 1822 and of the "Male Free School" 1823 to 1829 and had also been trustee of the "Highways" in 1822. In 1830 he was on the "School Committee" and was overseer of the road for the "Town PLott." Again in 1831 he was overseer of the roads for the "Town Plott, district 6." The town records show that a motion to authorize payment of money he had advanced in working his district was decided in the negative at the town meeting in 1832. He was engaged in the retail shoe business in Newark and was financially successful. The deed books of Essex Co. reveal many real estate tranactions by James Tichenor in that county. He invested in real estate elsewhere also. Knox Co., IN, deed books record his buying land in 1834 and selling land in 1837. In these transactions he was involved with his sons, William and David H. He owned land in Oregon at the time of his death.

H 290 CCG ESS-D, P4 252 Q2 524

James Tichenor does not appear to have inherited any of his property and wealth, but acquired it all on his own. There is no hint as to whom his relatives are in his many real estate transactions as we have found in some other families: no record of siblings dividing property; no record of property having been previously owned by an ancestor. He did perform services of a kind for which a relative is often called upon. Dorcas Tichenor, widow of Moses, son of Jedediah, left stock to him in trust for her daughters, by her will in 1804. James Tichenor was the executor of the will of Caleb Sayers, Jr. in 1824, and the administrator with Elizabeth Parkhurst of the estate of Samuel Parkhurst in 1834. But whether he was a relative or just called upon because he was a capable and trusted person is not known. If all such services he performed were known, it might make a long list.

The first deed recorded to James Tichenor in Essex Co., NJ, was for 4.93 acres on the east side of a road "called Dark Lane," and otherwise identified only by the the owners of adjacent property, namely, Luther Goble, Obadiah Woodruff and David Nichols. The next two lots were purchased in 1803. One 2.05 acre lot was adjacent to a ditch "called east ditch" on the south east and Back St. on the north west. Another 4 acre lot was on "old ferry road." Both were in Newark Township, which description included property in Newark at the time. Two 1805 deeds were to lots on Mulberry St. Other later deeds and mortgages were to lots on that street also. When he first made Mulberry St. his home is not known, but he was there in 1908 where his son, David H., was born in that year. A lot he sold in 1916 is described as being adjacent to the lot "where the James Tichenor dwelling house stands on the east side of Mulberry St." The Newark Directories list him at 86 Mulberry in 1836/7 after which he was listed at 32 Hamilton which was his widow's residence until her death. His obituary stated that he was a leading officer in the First Presbyterian Church of Newark. The church records show that he and Abigail were members prior to 1801, and that he was a deacon and elder. His picture is said to have hung in the church for years. In his will, written in Apr 1839, he made bequests to his wife and three daughters, Abby Louise, Charlotte, and Esther, the other children having been previously provided for. He gave his wife the house on Hamilton St. in Newark in which they were living.

All references to James Tichenor's ancestry state that he is a descendant of Martin Tichenor[1]. Several published biographical sketches of James and some of his children make this statement, but do not name his parents. Other unpublished statements about his ancestry do name parents but are contradictory and undocumented. A one page hand written undocumented account of James Tichenor's ancestors, entitled, "Genealogy of Wm. Tichenor" is held by the New Jersey Historical Society. The author is not identified and it is not dated. It reads in part: "Wm Tichenor was born June 13, 1813 in the town of Newark, New Jersey was the son of James Tichenor who was the son of Joseph Tichenor, the son of Daniel Tichenor who was born August 1656 in Connecticut and was the son of Martin Tichenor who took the oath of Fidelity to New Haven in 1644..." This is obviously incorrect as James Tichenor, son of Joseph, was a minor [under age 21] over the age of 14 in 1750, the year his father died (see page 106) and therefore born between 1729 and 1736. James Tichenor, subject of this sketch, was born in 1772.

FBT1

Frank B. Tichenor, great-great-grandson of James Tichenor, was interested in family genealogy and corresponded about the matter with other Tichenors. In a letter to R. R. Tichenor, Roanwood, MT, dated June 11, 1918 he stated that James Tichenor was the "son of Joseph Tichenor, who was the son of Samuel Tichenor." He told Richard Bennington Teachenor the same thing shortly after Teachenor published his family genealogy. This line has been used by other descendants of James Tichenor and was used in Descendants of Martin Tichenor; a History in the Making, 1977, by the author. Subsequent research has proven it unlikely that Samuel Tichenor had any living descendants at the time of his death (see page 40). Frank B. Tichenor evidently changed his mind later as he wrote H. D. Tichenor, Peekskill, NY, Sept 25, 1939, that "I branch out from Martin's son, Daniel [rather than Samuel as previously claimed], and you start with his son, John".

RBT 35 CCG FBT2

Having not settled the problem of James Tichenor's parents, his descendants are presented here with him as the first known ancestor.

JOHN[2], b Nov 21, 1802; d before Nov 29, 1853. Only one source of data that can be identified as probably John Tichenor's is the deed books of Knox Co., IN. In 1832 and 1833 John Tichenor bought land in that county from David H. Tichenor. In 1833 the land was mortgaged by John Tichenor and David H. Tichenor and wife, Jane S. No wife signed it with John, indicating that he was probably single at the time. William Tichenor, brother of David H., also bought land in Knox Co. as did their father, James. Being associated with them in this way, John was probably a son and brother. His residence in 1832 was Knox Co., IN, and in 1833, Floyd Co., IN.

JAMES HEDDEN[2], b Mar 23, 1807 in Newark, NJ; d June 18 1883 in Newark; m Lydia Tuttle Nuttman, dau of Isaac and Ruth (Cooley) Nuttman, May 31, 1830. He was baptized in the First Presbyterian Church of Newark; educated in Newark public schools and the Newark Academy. He owned considerable real estate in Essex Co., NJ. More than 40 of his real estate tranactions are recorded in that Co. He also owned property in Curry Co., OR, which he sold to Julia H. Tichenor in 1877. He was engaged in the retail shoe business in Newark, which had been well established by his father, retiring when about fifty years of age, possessed of an ample fortune.

James Hedden Tichenor's life had been always a most active one, and "as a citizen he was untiringly useful to his city, state and nation; public spirited, liberal, incorruptible." During the latter years of his life he joined the Protestant Episcopal Church, and in that faith he died. The 1850 census lists Emma J., age 13, living in the household of James H. Tichenor. She was possibly a child, who died before he made his will in 1883. Presumably all his children were born in Newark, NJ.

DAVID H.[2], b Feb 8, 1809 in a house at the northeast corner of Market and Mulberry Streets in Newark, NJ; d 1899 in Newark; m Jane S. Baldwin, dau of John W. Baldwin, July 3, 1832. Jane S. Baldwin, d Dec 8, 1850. He married 2nd Catharine R. _____, who was born, ca 1814. The following paragraph is compiled (but is not verbatim) from statements made by David H. Tichenor in a published interview Feb 7, 1899.

He was a descendant of Martin Tichenor and was the 6th generation. He lived in Newark all of his life. He was not a regular member of any church but frequently attended services. He was first a Presbyterian, then a Baptist and later a Campbellite. He was a charter member of the Union Hook and Ladder Co., the first organization of its kind in Newark, formed in 1836. He learned the mason's trade and afterward became a contractor. His first contract was for the erection of St. John's Catholic Church on Mulberry St. He was an abolitionist "born and bred, and in the days when it was sometimes disagreeable to be an abolitionist." He was the last man in NJ to buy a slave and give him freedom. He conceived the plan for the Newark Plank Road and helped to survey it. He organized a company to obtain a charter (1849) from the legislature to build a road. He was one of the founders of the Republican party in NJ; met both Fremont and Lincoln, and attended the inauguration of Lincoln. He believed that he got a postmaster appointed at Newark by talking to Lincoln about it.

Nwk Dir 1835 to 1899

The Newark Directories first list him at 89 Mulberry, Newark, the home of his parents, in 1835/37. He then lived at 23 Liberty for about two years and afterward lived at 32 and 35 Ferry in Newark until ca 1849. He then lived at 115 McWhorter for a decade or more and afterward lived at several addresses in Newark. His residence at the time of his death in 1899 was 292 Waverly, Ave., Newark, where he had been living for about 10 years. The Newark Directories give his occupation as mason until ca 1849 and as a coffee and spice dealer from that date to ca 1864. Although he said himself (above) that he lived all of his life in Newark, the Knox Co., IN, deeds to his property there give Floyd Co., IN, as his residence in 1833; and his son, James W., was born in IN according to the 1950 census. He may have considered his sojourn into IN as traveling, his real residence being NJ. His real estate transactions which were almost as numerous as his father's also attest to his residency in Newark. The 1860 census lists him in the fifth ward, Newark, age 51, a coffee dealer with real estate valuation of $6000 and personal valuation of $2000. Living in his household were, among others, the following Tichenors: Catharine, 46; Mary, 22; George 19, a clerk; Fanny, 17, a school teacher; and Harriet, 14. The children named below were named in the 1850 census.

CBH William Tichenor was a sea captain and founded and settled Port Orford, OR, in 1851. He sailed on his first voyage for Europe on May 23, 1825 and returned to the United States in Oct of that year. He then attended school for 18 months after which he spent three months training in navigation. In the spring of 1828 he again went to sea and in the fall of that year went overland to Pittsburg, descended the Ohio River to Louisville, KY, then shipped as mate of the steamer "George Washington", in the New Orleans trade. He continued in that until the summer of 1830 and later that year returned to New Jersey and entered the store of his brother, J.H. Tichenor. Dissatisfied with the life of little action, he went again to the Mississippi and Ohio Rivers, but returned in Aug 1833. After his marriage the following year he was determined to quit the sea and settle down. He moved to Knox Co., Kno-D, IN, in July 1834 where he was elected to many positions of trust. He remained in Knox Co. until 1837 G 426 when owing to the sickness of his wife and child, sold the property which he had bought there and H 297 moved to Edgar Co. IL. In 1842 he visited the east and made another short trip to the sea. He 290 returned to his farm and home in Edgar Co., IL, in Dec 1843 where he took an active part in public I 46 affairs and studied law. He remained there until he went to the west coast. In 1845 he recruited 186 troops for the Mexican War, taking part in raising two companies for Col. E. D. Baker's regiment. He had his affairs arranged for a removal to the west coast when he was urged to run for senator of the ninth district. He agreed to run with the understanding that he would resign at the termination of one session which he did on Feb 19, 1849. He then started for the west coast by wagon train, leaving

After arriving on the west coast, Capt. William Tichenor mined gold sucessfully on the American River with pick and shovel. Still not satisfied, the white sails of commerce again beckoned him to the high seas. He bought the schooner, J.M. Ryerson, and sailed to explore the Gulf of CA and the northern shores of the Pacific, where he was attracted to the spacious bay eight miles south of Cape Blanco in Dec. 1850. Congress had passed the Donation Land Law in 1850, giving heads of families 640 acres of land and to others less. Captain Tichenor made notification and entry in the Surveyor General's office at Oregon City for one section of land, embracing the site which became Port Orford. The following account of his establishing the settlement at Port Orford is from a recent recreation guide to the area.

"Though ships had been sailing past the headlands for centuries (Cape Blanco was named in 1603) it was not until 1851 that the white man set foot on land that was to become Port Orford, the first settlement on the Southern Oregon Coast.

FFM "Capt. William Tichenor of the 400 ton steamship, Seal Gull, which plied the Pacific Ocean between San Francisco amd Portland, had dreams of the gold and timber wealth on the coast and envisioned establishing a settlement here to supply provisions to the miners he felt would flock to the area in search of the yellow nuggets. While in Portland during May of 1851, Tichenor met J.M. Kirkpatrick, who listened to the sea captain's plan and agreed to enlist some men to help with the venture. Kirkpatrick induced eight others to join him and on June 4 they set sail with Tichenor. In Astoria the group elected Kirkpatrick captain of the expedition and they purchased a meager supply of additional arms.

"On the morning of June 9, the Sea Gull dropped anchor in the harbor and small boats were readied to put the settlers ashore. A few Indians were seen further down the beach and Kirkpatick refused to remain until Tichenor agreed to let them take the ship's cannon. With the promise that he would return in two weeks, Tichenor set off for San Francisco and the nine men began setting up their camp on a large island rock [now known as Battle Rock] that rose from the beach. The cannon was placed to command a narrow passageway, the only route to the top of the rugged rock and the camp they had situated among a few trees.

"As Kirkpatrick and his men feared, the following day the Indians made their first attack. Many Indians were killed in the first charge, including their leader, when Kirkpatrick gave the command to fire the cannon. After the Indians were given permission to remove their dead, a new leader approached the rock and was told by sign language that the settlers would leave when the steamer returned in 14 days. Capt. Tichenor, however, was held up in San Francisco by legal problems and failed to return as promised. True to their word, on the fifteenth day the Indians made a second attack. A new chief was killed in the rush and the Indians fell back. They regrouped down the beach where they were joined by more Indians. The Settlers were now low on food and ammunition and agreed to attempt an escape. To fool the Indians who had been left to watch them, they set about falling trees to build a better fort. When the Indians spies saw this they left to report to their chief. Night fell and as the Indians danced around their beach fires, the nine men left "Battle Rock" and went north. After many narrow escapes, and some assistance by friendly Indians, the haggard group managed to reach safety at Scottburg on the Umpqua River about 10 days later.

"In the meantime Tichenor had returned to Port Orford where he saw the signs of battle and surmised the men had been killed. He continued on to Portland with news of the tragedy but soon learned the men had escaped. With renewed faith in his original plan, Tichenor rounded up a well-armed party of 67 men and returned to Port Orford on July 14, 1851, to establish a block house and settlement. A fort was built and segments of the Army were stationed here during the five-year Rogue River Indian Wars...."

FdR 415 to 426 The stationing of troops on his land created problems later and the battle for Port Orford was not over until 1882 when the court ruled in favor of Capt. Tichenor in a case of the "United States v. Tichenor et al, 12 Fed. Rep. 415 (Cir. Ct. D. Oregon, June 5, 1882)." In Sept, 1851 an officer of the United States with Tichenor's consent erected some buildings on the town site, and in Oct. of that year troops were stationed on the site and the general in charge ordered that a military reservation be established. When the troops were withdrawn an agent was placed in charge. Tichenor was appointed collector of customs at the port of Port Orford, and as the collector occupied one of the buildings, and the agent was withdrawn. He then made claim to the building against the United States and was removed from the premises, and an agent was again put in charge. In Oct 1864 Tichenor, always a man of action, and others drove the agent away by force. For this act he was arrested by military authorities and imprisoned "for a considerble time" at Fort Alcatraz. He was released on the promise that he would not "interfere with or in any manner lay claim to the said

FdR 415 to 426 reservation." The government then sued Tichenor in an effort to gain possession of the tract, claiming that he had surrendered all control to the United States. Also land reserved by the president of the United States for a light-house was alleged to be on Tichenor's claim.

The court ruled in favor of Tichenor on the grounds, among other things, that a fort and light house can only be established on public lands and that Port Orford was not public land from the time Tichenor made the donation claim to the land. Also, the conveyance of land to the United States is void unless the purchase was authorized by congress; therefore, Tichenor's permission to the army to station troops on Port Orford did not convey the land to the United States.

The court also ruled that Tichenor's promise not to claim the land further (in return for being released from prison) was not valid because his arrest was without due process of law and any promise extorted from him was void. Thus, the victory for Capt. Tichenor was complete.

CBH OHQ 325 328 William Tichenor was the second captain to receive pilot's papers for the Columbia River. He was twice elected to the territorial legislature, and later, in 1860, to the State Senate from the counties of Coos, Curry and Umpqua. When Currey Co. was created in 1855, "Orford" was first proposed as a name, and then many more members suggested and favored that of "Tichenor," but William, who was then a member of the legislature, declined the honor, and insisted on that of Curry, in response to the wish of many of his constituents in appreciation of Territorial Governor Curry's prompt action in providing for the volunteer company of defenders at the time of the sudden Indian out break. The bill was introduced by Captain Tichenor. The county seat was named Ellensburgh after Ellen, the Captain's daughter. "

CBH OHQ 324 Elizabeth Brinkerhoff Tichenor was from the very wealthy Brinkerhoff family of New York. She "had never had to do house work and when she landed at Port Orford, she had but a few times tried to cook a meal. She was made of that good old pioneer stock and took hold and did the things that the woman of the frontier had to do. She not only cooked the meals for the family, she did the sewing, made the tallow candles, parched the ground coffee, did the churning, made the soap, and the first years had to have a gun near at hand for protection." The Indians were hostile until July 2, 1856 when the five year Rogue River War ended. A letter written by Elizabeth to her son, Jacob, (who was in school in NJ) during the war has been preserved and is in the possession (1976) of Lucille (Tichenor) Tomososki[6]. Port Orford was destroyed by fire in Oct 1868. Only the Tichenor and Knapp dwellings escaped the fire. Elizabeth saved the home as her husband and sons were in San Francisco at the time.

Letter from Elizabeth (Brinkerhoff) Tichenor to her son, Jacob, follows (this copy was made from a photocopy of the original. Punctuation added. The names Pearsonville, Kizer, Seaman, Coguville and Laroue were not clear and may be mistaken):

LTT "Port Orford, March 17, 1856

"My dear Son,

"I Should have written to you immediately after your Father's return from Salem but oweing to the great Indian excitement here and your Father leaving home again in less than a week was why I did not write. Now my son I suppose you will be disappointed when I tell you that I cannot come this spring but do not be discouraged for I will come by the fall if the Lord will, if your Father cannot he wishes me to remain until June so as to secure my claim of land and then says it will be to late in the season. I received a letter from Anna and Mr. Dart by the last mail; they said they were going to send for you. I hope this will reach you first, be a good boy and I hope we will all soon meet again. Now my boy I must tell you something about the Indian troubles here. About three weeks ago the Rogue River Indians commenced their hostilities. They have joined the hostile tribes and have destroyed every thing at R. River; killed a great many of your acquaintences. About one hundred men, nine women and several Children saved them selves by getting into a Fort which they prepared which is the only thing standing; it is at Pearsville on the bluff. We have had no news from there for more than a week when two men ventured out at the risk of their lives by night and arrived here in safety. They say if they keep their positions at the Fort they are safe. The Indians have made several attempts but did not succeed but several were killed each time. Troops were sent for immediately who arrived here by Steamer. There were over a hundred started from here yesterday for that place. Ben Wright was killed at _____ Village where he had collected the Indians from the Mouth of the River and all about to prevent all communication with the hostile Indians as he thought. Most of the Volenteers were killed who had been staying at Big Bend all winter but were with Ben Wright at the time, I cannot tell the number. Mr. Warner was killed at his house and house burnt. Old Mr. Seaman was killed; he was there at the time hunting. Mr. Kizer and two Sons were killed. His Wife and daughter were taken prisoners but they have succeeded in getting them. They are now at LTT the Fort. Mr. L_____y came with schooner immediatley to save himself and it, and brought the news. Your Father returned with him the same night with a message from the Major to the R. River if he could not go to the River to go to Cressent City. He could not go in the River on account of the many Indians at the Mouth so he went to Cressent City and sent his Schooner to San Francisco with a message. There were a hundred and fifty troops landed at Cressent City by the last Steamer. Your Father is their guide through the Mountains. Don't be uneasy about us for we have a good Fort here up in the hill where the old Fort was and we all go there every night. The Port Orford Indians appear friendly. They have collected them all together the other side of the Garrison from Coguville down and taken their arms. Your little Sister often speaks of you and would like to see you and then she takes a peep at your gaeertype. Your Father Intended writing to you but was called away in such a hurry. I must stop and get ready to go to the Fort for it is allmost night. Tell aunt Abby I intended writing to her by this Mail but the Steamer is due to day and will not have time. Tell Aunt Lydia to write. I wish you to write Jacob. Get your Uncle to please read this to you if he can make it out. Do not be uneasy about us we will try and come soon for I cannot st___ in Oregon. Sis sends her love to you. Give my love to all.

"Your affectionate

Mother E. Tichenor

"P.S. About two weeks ago eight men started to go to Rogue River in a Whale boat to learn the condision of things there as there is no safety in traveling by land and, in attempting to go ashore the boat capsized in the surf, and six of them were drowned. Ones of the drowned was Mr. Laroue, Silvester Young, old Dick the boatman, and little Billy. The others I did not learn their names."

With Mary and her mother riding the other horse and her father walking they set out for the nearest settlement which was approximately one hundred miles away, Before reaching their destination, however, their remaining provisions gave out. Fortunately, after one day of traveling without food, they met a wagon train heading east to rescue a party of pioneers who were stranded and low on provisions. From them the Englands were able to obtain the necessary supplies to continue their journey.

LWT Jacob Brinkerhoff Tichenor came to Port Orford in 1852 having traveled via the Isthmus of Panama with his mother and two sisters, they being the first white children in the southern coast of the Oregon Territory. He returned to OR in 1861 and finished his formal education at Willamette University, Salem. During the American Civil War he enlisted in Company K, First Oregon Volunteers; discharged as a corporal. He taught school for several years, being the first to teach at Port Orford. In 1885 he moved his family to Roseburg, OR, where he took over the operation of a thousand acre ranch. When the owner of the ranch died two years later, Jacob's contract was terminated. He then took his family to Salem, OR, where he served as secretary of the Prohibition Party campaign. Shortly thereafter he entered into business relations with Hendricks and Saubert, real estate agents, the position he held at the time of his death.

JAMES TICHENOR[1], b between 1779 and 1783 in NJ; d after 1870; presumably buried in Tipton Co., IN. His wife's name is not known. He moved to DE where his son, Timothy, was born ca 1807 and his son, James, was born in 1812. A James "Teachener" living in Milford Tp, Kent Co., DE, in 1810 is presumed to be he as is James "Teachnor" living in Mispillion, Kent Co., DE, in 1820. His residence in 1830 is not known. He was in Cicero Tp., Hamilton Co., IN, in 1839. A deed dated July 5 of that year by which his son, James, deeded him land, the W side of the W 1/2 of the NE 1/4 of Sec 29, Tp 21, range 5, is the earliest record we have of him in IN. In 1850 and 1860 according to the census, he was living with his son, Timothy. A discrepancy in his age given in those years makes the year of his birth uncertain. An early history of Howard and Tipton Counties, IN, named James Tichenor among the early settlers. It is not known if he had other children than the two sons, who settled in Tipton Co. with him. The Teachenor spelling of the name was used some in early Tipton Co. records, and one family uses it today. With this one exception, the Tichenor spelling was in use by the turn of the century by James's descendants. One family adopted the Tishner spelling later.

TIMOTHY[2], b ca 1807 in DE; m Rebecca _____, who was born in VA. We learn from the 1850 census that he was a painter and owned real estate valued at $200. The birthplaces of his children, given in that census, indicate that he was living in the state of Ohio by 1836 and lived there until about 1839. Timothy Tichenor was named in the 1840 census of Cicero Tp, Hamilton Co., (later Tipton Co.) IN, and lived there the remainder of his life. Several deeds to Timothy are recorded in Tipton Co. On May 2, 1851, James Tichenor, Sr., and Timothy Tichenor and Rebecca, his wife, sold 30 acres in Sec 29, Tp 21, range 5. On Nov 6, 1875 Timothy and Rebecca sold 40 acres, the NW 1/4 of the SE 1/4 of Sec 16, Tp 21, range 5. The dates these tracts of land were purchased are not known. They also owned 30 acres in Sec 34 and some lots in Tipton, but these may have been owned only briefly.

JAMES2, b 1812 in DE; d 1882; bur Sumner Cem; m Eliza Smith. She, b ca 1814; d 1882; bur Sumner Cem. James and Eliza Tichenor were living in MD by 1832 as determined by the birthplaces of their children given in the 1850 federal census and were living in IN by 1839 or 40. He bought 80 acres, the W 1/2 of the NE 1/4 of Sec 29, Tp 21, range 5 in Tipton Co. Aug 1, 1838, which suggests that they may have been living there in that year. He deeded part of this to his father July 5 the following year. He and his father owned land in Sec 29 but it is not possible to determine land owned by the son from land owned by the father in every case. Land owned in Sec 20 was by the son as indicated by a deed Aug 20, 1884 for 180 acres, the E 1/2 of the SW 1/4 of Sec 20, Tp 21, range 5, in which the grantors were J.W. Tichenor and Mary E., his wife, William B. Tichenor, unmarried, James A. Tichenor and Mary E., his wife, Theodore E. Tichenor and Mary, his wife, and Jonathan G. Tichenor and Ella, his wife. This presumably was land inherited from their father, who had died before this date.

JONATHAN TICHENOR[1], b June 25, 1741 in Essex Co., NJ; d in 1815 in the home of his daughter, Susannah Clark, m in Cinninnati, OH; bur Presbyterian Cem, Lebanon, OH; m Rebecca Stratten June 4, 1767 in Morristown, NJ. Rebecca, b. Mar 18, 1743. She was presumably a widow. Jonathan's granddaughter, Hannah (Tichenor) McBurney recalled her mother saying that he married Rebecca Bearse, whose mother's maiden name was Catherine Baker. Jonathan Tichenor, m 2nd Mary Newel, a widow, Oct 5, 1793 in Hamilton Co., OH.; and m 3rd Sarah Taylor Feb. 20, 1810 in Warren Co., OH. Mary Newel had a grandson, Samuel Newel, who preached at Lebanon Presbyterian Church 1814 to 1853. Jonathan Tichenor served in the Revolutionary War from Morris Co., NJ. He is known to have lived in Morris Co. in the 1760s and 1770s and presumably lived there until he moved to the Ohio Valley in the 1880s. He was assessed for 50 acres in 1768 in Morris Co. A Morris Tp, Morris Co. census in 1771-72 lists in Jonathan's household: one male under the age of 16, two males age 16 to 50, one of whom was married; and one female under age 16, one 16 to 50 and one 50 to 80. The register of the First Presbyterian Church in Morristown, NJ, records the following: Jonathan Tichenor, m June 4, 1867, Rebekah Stratten; he became a Communicant Nov 1, 1864, "moved away;" She "Renewed Covenant" June 25, 1769. Children: (1) Hannah, baptized June 25, 1769 (2) Caleb, b. Feb. 12, 1771; baptized Mar 24, 1771 (3) David, b Feb. 6, 1773; baptized Mar 21, 1773 (4) Sarah, b Apr 26, 1775; baptized May 4, 1775.

Jot

Jonathan emigrated to the Ohio Valley about 1786 and probably lived in KY for a time, then at Ft. Washington, which was founded in 1788/9, at the present site of Cincinnati. By 1790 they were at or near a settlement called Columbia, five miles up river from the fort, and later lived a few miles up the Little Miami River. His name is on the tax list of Columbia Tp, Hamilton Co., Aug 22, 1796. About 1797, he moved to Turtlecreek, Warren Co., OH, and made his home on a tract of 120 acres lying north of the present (date of this source unknown) Shaker Hill school house, for which he received a deed Apr 21, 1802. His son, David, received a deed for 160 acres in the north part of the same section the following year. Jonathan helped to organize the first Presbyterian Churches at Cincinnati, Turtlecreek & Lebanon, OH.

On Oct 16, 1790, he and seven others united in an effort to establish a Presbyterian church for the two settlements of Columbia and Cincinnati. In 1792 it ordained a pastor but was "unorganized" due to small membership. It was in the seat of war with the Indians and progressed slowly, having only 19 adult members on the 5th of Sept, 1793, when they, all being present, elected two deacons and five ruling elders, one of whom was Jonathan Tichenor. After peace with the Indians, many families moved from Columbia and other settlements near the Ohio up the Miami Valley. Jonathan settled in the Turtlecreek Valley west of the site of Lebanon.

The Turtlecreek Presbyterian Church, one mile south of Union Village, was the first of the denomination in Warren Co. and soon became one of the strongest in the Miami country. In the spring of 1802, Richard McNemar moved his family to Turtlecreek, purchased a farm and was settled as pastor of the church. He had been one of the most eloquent preachers in the great Kentucky Revival. He brought to Turtlecreek the methods and doctrines of the revivalists, who soon became known as Newlights. Nearly all of the Presbyterian churches in the Miami country were disrupted by this revival. Nearly the whole of McNemar's congregation followed him into Newlightism. In the spring of 1805, one year after the organization of the Turtlecreek Newlight Church, McNemar became a Shaker, taking with him a large part of his congregation. This was the first society of Shakers in the western country. Jonathan Tichenor, one of the elders, was the first person at Turtlecreek to object to McNemar's doctrines, and was the only elder, who did not go with the Newlights.

The Lebanon Presbyterian Church was organized about 1805, the first session being elected Dec 3, 1807, when Jonathan Tichenor was chosen one of the ruling elders. The members of the church were from the Turtlecreek Church west, and Bethany east of the town, which also had been disrupted by the Newlight revival. The earliest date at which the church is named in the Warren Co. records is Sept

WA-D, 1 280 JoT

7, 1806, when John Shaw deeded to Jonathan Tichenor and Abner Smith one acre west of town "for the only proper use, benefit and behoof of the Lebanon Presbyterian congregration forever." This acre became known as the Presbyterian graveyard and Jonathan is buried there. He remained a ruling elder of the church and lived on his farm west of Lebanon until his death.

NATHANIEL[2], Feb 23, 1782 in Morris Co., NJ.; d Sept 18, 1825 in Warren Co., OH; bur in Lebanon, OH; m Abigail Penton, dau of Isaac and Hannah (Thorne) Penton, Jan 5, 1813. Abigail Penton, b May 7, 1793 in Philadephia, PA; d Feb. 22, 1876 in Lebanon, OH; bur in Lebanon Cem. She was a Baptist. Her paternal grandparents were Joseph and Abigail Penton. Her parents died of yellow fever when she was about 9 months old. She was raised by her father's sister, Rebecca Penton Horn, and her husband, Adam Horn, who brought Abigail to OH about 1810. Abigail moved to Lebanon, OH, about 1836. Her will, written Oct 11, 1876, named son, David P. Tichenor, and grandson, Alfred Karney, to whom she left 40 acres of land in Montgomery Co., IA.

Nathaniel Tichenor was a farmer and a Presbyterian. He served in the War of 1812 and received a land grant in IA for his service. The 40 acres his widow left to the grandson in her will was part of that grant. She had previously sold the rest of it. According to his daughter, Hannah, Nathaniel helped to blaze the first road from "Roundbottom" to Lebanon. He became owner of the farm of his brother, David, who died without posterity. On June 19, 1815, "Aaron Tichner, Edward Woodruff and Hannah, his wife, Icabod Clark, and Susanna, his wife, Catherine Boothby... brothers and sisters of David Tichner," deeded their interest in the NE 1/4 of Sec 18, Tp 4, range 3, to Nathaniel. His son, David P., became owner of this after Nathaniel's death. Nathaniel's property included lot 262 in Lebanon, OH, which he bought July 28, 1825. This lot was sold several years later by "Abigail Tichenor, David P. Tichenor, Ann Eliza Tichenor, A.G. McBurney and Hannah, his wife," all of Warren Co., OH. Several deeds recorded in Warren Co. show that after Nathaniel's death, Abigail owned at one time or another, parts of lots 28, 36, 41, and 233 in Lebanon. In the 1860 federal census she was listed in the household of son, David.

About 1814, James McBurney and Andrew Graham moved to Montgomery from Orange Co., NY. They married Felter sisters and agreed to name their first sons after each other; thus, Andrew Graham McBurney and James McBurney Graham.

James McBurney settled in Lebanon, OH, in 1830 where Andrew learned the business of cabinet-making, completing his trade in 1836. For a number of years there was a plaque on a building in Lebanon at HWC 760 the site of the cabinet shop commemorating it. Andrew G., "availing himself of such schooling as was within his reach in Lebanon, and, by self-study, he acquired a good English education and also studied Latin and read Caesar's Commentaries in that language." Governor of OH and served in the office a full term from 1866-1868.

T-HSW Hannah Miranda (Tichenor) was raised a Baptist by her mother, but joined the Methodist church at a revival held jointly by the Baptist, Methodist and Presbyterians in 1837. In 1842 she went into the Presbyterian, the church of her husband's family, which he later joined. When Hannah was quite elderly, she copied family records from several old family Bibles and gave them to her son, William A. G. McBurney. In 1945 the original papers were in the possession of her granddaughter, Miss Nancy Katherine McBurney, Lebanon, OH. Hannah also wrote several pages of family history, part of it as she remembered her mother telling it. The Warren Co. (OH) Historical Society has a copy of this history and the family records.

WALTER TICHENOR[1] was probably born in Essex Co., NJ. He died when on his way back to NJ after a visit to his son, Isaac, in Dryden, NY. According to descendants, his residence was Elizabethtown, NJ at the time of his death. His marriage to Hannah Denman Mar 20, 1782 is recorded in Westfield, NJ, church records. Information handed down in the family, states that the mother of Walter's two sons, Isaac and Caleb, was Hannah Howell, who had two sons by a previous marriage. Another account handed down in the family is that "Walter had two wives. The first was a widow by the name of Denman, who had two sons, Moses and Jacob. His second wife, Hannah Howell, bore him two sons, Isaac and Caleb." Isaac according to a grandson, was born Jan 13, 1783, less than a year after Walter married Hannah Denman. It would appear that she is the mother of Isaac. Could it be that she was Hannah Howell, widow of a Denman, by whom she had two sons, at the time of their marriage to Walter?

Ess-D,
H 758

Whatever the case, all accounts agree that Walter Tichenor had only two sons, Isaac and Caleb. Essex Co., NJ, deeds in 1803, 1806 and 1809 give Walter's residence as Springfield, Township. The land in three deeds was jointly owned with Isaac, who in one of the deeds is referred to as the son of Walter. Some of the land was described as being in Cheapside. Walter's son, "Caleb Tichenor, Jr.," owned property adjacent to Walter. The "Jr." in his name suggests the possibility that Caleb was Walter father's name.

CCG

Walter Tichenor served as a Private, Essex Co., NJ, Militia, and received certificate 471 amounting to 2 pounds :1 :2 for the depreciation of his continental pay during the Revolutionary War.

CRT

Information from descendants of Isaac's son, William, also is that Walter was a soldier in the Revolutionary War and that he was a "descendant of Martin Tichenor, the first Tichenor to come to this country." Hannah will be hereafter called Hannah Howell, keeping in mind that proof of her maiden name is not available.

Their residence, as revealed by the Essex Co., NJ, deed books in 1803, 1806 and 1809 was Springfield Township, Essex Co. By 1818 they were living in NY where a Tompkins Co. deed gives Dryden as their residence in that year. The 1820 and 1830 censuses also give their residence as Dryden. Isaac Tichenor had a tavern business as well as other interests according to information which has been handed down in the family of William, son of Isaac: "Isaac Tichenor bought, about 1848, what was then known as the Half-Way House at Wilseyville, Tioga Co., NY. It was half way between Oswego and Ithaca. The trains and stages stopped there every day for dinner. Bethia Cherry, b Oct 4, 1811 in Montezuma, NY; d Oct 4, 1887 at her home on Clinton St., Irondequoit, near Rochester, NY; bur Mt. Hope Cem (?).

CRT-HW Enos Cherry was the son of Abram Cherry who, from information handed down in the family, was a soldier in the American Revolution. "His military record is not in NY and it is not known from which state he served. It may be Conn. He went through the winter at Valley Forge where he contracted fever and ague, and in a fit of delirum, bit the end of his tongue off. He was invalided at home for a time but Enos, a small boy at the time, couldn't recognize him because he wasn't able to talk plainly. This is all the information I have as remembered from the stories of the war that grandmother told me."

Monr-D, 287 399 William Tichenor kept a drug and general store in Waterloo, NY, before he moved to Rochester, which is believed to have been in 1842. In Rochester he practiced dentistry. His early death left his wife with a family of small children to support. He left no will. However, Bethia's will and other documents, notably an affidavit she made in the estate settlement of her son, Henry J., named her children living at the time. The affidavit, made Jan 10, 1876, states that she was the mother of Henry J. Tichenor, who died Nov 20, 1854 at age 18 and that his brother and sisters were: George F. Tichenor, age 33; Mary E. Tichenor, age 30; Bethiah [Augusta] Tichenor, age 28; and Emily Tichenor, age 26.

Monr-D, 433 7 The will of Bethia Tichenor written Mar 10, 1885, named children: George F. Tichenor; Mary E. Miles of Tenafly, Bergen Co., NJ; B. Augusta Walters of Rochester, NY. The will also named grandson, Mandeville Cornelius Jacobus, who was under the age of 21 at the time. The will gave her residence as Rochester, NY, but her obituary or death notice, two years later, gave Irondequoit as 434 62 her residence. Her property in Irondequoit was described as being in the "Blumenthal Tract" when her children sold it after her death.

He was "Caleb Tichenor, Jr.," of Springfield, Tp, Essex Co., NJ, when he bought and mortgaged a 12.23 acre lot in Springfield Tp in 1812. The mortgage was released in 1816. The lot was adjacent to the land of his father, Walter. It was described as in the town of Livingston, formerly Springfield, when he sold it in 1836, and was adjacent to a house formerly owned by Walter Tichenor.

Caleb Tichenor, moved to Tompkins Co., NY, where an 1818 deed to 410 acres gives his residence as Dryden. The land was in Lot 81, Dryden. He sold small parcels off of it over a period of 30 years. The 1850 census, in addition to his wife and children, listed Hanna Tichenor, age 46, who was feeble minded, in his household. Her identity is not known. She was still living with Clarissa in 1870. Also in 1870 Joseph Cooper, age 89, and Ruth Cooper, age 85 were living with Clarissa. One wonders if they were Clarissa's parents. Isaac's and Clarissa's children are named in a petition for the administration of his estate and in Clarissa's will, written Apr 25, 1891, except Charles H., who was named in the Ithaca Cemetery records.

ZOPHER TICHENOR[1], b Oct 22, 1759; d Apr 4 or 12, 1821, presumably in Bridport, VT; bur Pine Hill Cem; m Elizabeth Baldwin. She, known as Betsey, b Nov 18, 1769, presumably in NJ; d Dec 25, 1841. She owned property in Bridport, VT, at the time of her death which was received from Zopher's estate, but she is believed to have died in Parishville, NY, where some of her children were living.

ZoTM

Zopher Tichenor was probably born in NJ. We first know of him in Morris Co, NJ, as a soldier in the American Revolution in which he served as a "Private, Eastern Regiment, Morris County Militia under Captains Halsey, Crane and Baldwin; on rolls, Captain Isaac Halsey's Company from Parsippany, dated August 19, 1776, and Captain Crane's Company, dated May 7, 1778; in active service under Captain Stephen Baldwin, stationed at Connecticut Farms, NJ, June 7 to 14, 1780, and at the battle of Connecticut Farms, June 7, 1780. Received certificate No. 110, dated May 3, 1784 and signed by Silas Condict, for 2 pounds: 3: 1, for the depreciation of his continental pay in the Morris County Militia."

The name "Tabor" appears on a published list of Morris county men in the military census of NJ in 1793 and he was one of four Tichenor men listed in Hanover Tp in that census. Presumably this is a misspelling or misreading of Zopher's name. We learn of a 10 acre lot which he owned in Hanover Tp in a deed by which Thomas Husk and Elizabeth, his wife, sold it to David Sergeant in 1800. The deed, in part, reads: "...land in Parsippany, in Hanover Tp,... formerly part of that plantation of which Daniel Peer now owns and was conveyed to Zopher Tichenor on the 6th day of Sept. 1784 by Martin Tichenor and on the 17th day of Feb 1791 the said Zopher Tichenor conveyed said premises to said Thomas Husk...." Zopher was administrator of the estate of Lemuel Bowers of Hanover in 1785. His relationship to Bowers, if any, is not known.

Brid-d,

Zopher Tichenor bought property in Brideport, VT, in 1789 while still a resident of NJ, and again in 1795 after moving to Bridport. The deeds to both properties reveal his residence. If he was in NJ in 1793 as surmised above, he moved to Bridport, VT, in that year. An account of a Smith Centennial

SCM

Memorial, Rutland, VT, 1872, possibly paraphrased, gives his residence: "In 1793, Chloe, wife of Hiram Ward and dau of Samuel Smith of Parsippany, N.J., and Bridport, Vt. traveled from N.J. to Bridport having in charge two girls, Catherine Baldwin ae 19, and Polly Tichenor, ae 18. Mrs. Ward went to the house of her brother, Nathan Smith, and the girls to that of Zopher Tichenor, who was brother to one girl, his wife being sister to the other. The girls married Smiths and remained in Vt." Zopher is listed in Bridport in the 1800, 1810 and 1820 censuses and owned property there at the time of his death.

Polly Tichenor (sister of Zopher), b ca 1775; m Isaac Smith, son of Asher and Eunice (Lum) Smith, Mar 13 or 30, 1797; died Sept 1, 1807. Isaac Smith, b Oct 6, 1775, near Morristown, NJ; d Mar 1, 1854 in Seneca Falls, NY; bur Restvale Cem, Seneca Falls, NY. Eunice Lum was the daughter of Daniel Lum. Asher Smith was the son of Samuel Smith and Hannah Allen, a Mayflower descendant. Samuel Smith was the son of Richard, Sr., and Sarah Smith. Isaac Smith and Polly Tichenor had four children: William A., who was living in Elbridge, NY, in 1854; John M., who was living in Buffalo, NY, in 1854; Samuel F., who was living in St. Johnsville, NY, in 1854; and Asher Lumm who died at age 16.

Zopher's parents are unknown but a little can be speculated about his immediate family. We have seen wife was a close relative of Martin. Another Martin Tichenor married Peggy Baldwin in 1815 in Bridport. He was the age to have been the son of the older Martin and lived for several years in Mentz, Cayuga Co., NY, where Zopher's son, Caleb, lived for a time, and near Camillus, Onondaga Co.,

The census of that year listed one male under age 10 living in their household. By 1816 they were living in Mentz, Cayuga Co., NY, where in that year they bought 10 acres in the Town of Brutus. They were still living there in 1820 when they sold this property to Martin Tichenor and Caleb was still there (his name only on the deed) in 1826 when he sold property in Addison Co., VT, to his brother, Samuel. This was property which he received from his mother's estate which his father had willed to her. Their residence after this date is unknown, but one wonders if he did not move to Calhoun Co. MI, where his brother, William B., was living in 1850. The 1840 census lists a Caleb Tichenor in Calhoun Co., MI. This Caleb and one female in his household were between the ages of 50 and 60. Also in the household were one male and one female between the ages of 15 and 20.

His birthplace as VT, as given in the death certificate of his son, Eli D., is contradicted by deeds to the property of his father, q.v., in NJ. It is not known when he moved to NY, but they lived there for some time before moving to Calhoun County, MI. A deed to property in Bridport, VT, which William B. Tichenor sold to his brother, Samuel, in 1827 gave his residence as Orleans Co., NY. His son, Ely D., according to descendants, was born in Rochester, NY, in 1827. Rochester is in an adjoining county to Orleans. The 1830 census lists a William Tichenor in Mentz, Cayuga Co., NY, who may have been the subject of this sketch. William Tichenor of this record was between the ages of 40 and 50. Living in his household, were: one female 30 to 40, and one 5 to 10; 2 males under 5, one each 10 to 15 and 15 to 20. The 1850 census lists Wm. B. Tichenor in Battle Creek Village and Tp, Calhoun Co., MI, age 63, a farmer, born in VT. Living in his household were: Dorothy, 53, born in NY, Alfred, 16, farmer, born in NY, Charles Kellum (?), born in PA, and Lucy Ann Kellum (?), 26, born in NY. The latter two were married within the year. It is not known if Lucy Ann was a married daughter. Alfred is presumably a son. A granddaughter, Laura J. Tichenor, in a letter to Richard B. Teachenor said: "My grandfather [William Tichenor] died in Michigan, where all his brothers lived. They were Charles, Hiram, Sam and Alfred." She was partially mistaken and evidentialy confused great uncles with uncles. Some of William's brothers, including Samuel, are known to have lived in NY. He now teaches "History of Ragtime" in the music Dept. there. He is famous in ragtime music circles as a musician. He and his wife were two of thirteen original members of the Potsdam Baptist Church which was organized June 9 of that year. The church had few members for many years and had no house of worship until 1858. John Tichenor bought several pieces of property in St. Lawrence Co., the deed to the first one dated 1830. The property was in the towns of Parishville and Stockholm. Complete data from his will, which was probated Sept 17, 1866, is not available, but it named his wife, Betsey, and son, Robert B., who was given a 125 acre farm on which he was living in Parishville, NY. Also named were: Emily Sterns, Mary Cook, Margaret Sterns, Lucy Shaw all of Parishville, and several by the name of Rose. In the 1865 NY state census, Betsey stated that she had had seven children.

They were living with his parents in 1850, Emogene being two years of age (past her second birthday) at the time. Therefore, David and Mary could not have been married more than a year or two. Due to discrepancies in the records available, a complete list of their children cannot be made with certainty. The 1865 NY state census states that she had been married twice and had had seven children. In that year Frank H. Tichenor, 14, was living in their household. In 1860, Francis Tichenor, 11, was living with them. These were in addition to those known to be their children. Discrepancies in the ages in these two censuses makes one wonder if there could have been a discrepancy in the recording of these names also, and that these two names were for the same person. If so, and he was their child, it would account for Mary's seven children. They lived in the Town of Parishville, NY, where they owned several pieces of property, some of which had been owned by his parents. One lot was called the "distillery lot." In 1878 and after, her

DESCENDANTS OF DANIEL TICHENOR OF TOMPIKNS CO., NEW YORK

DANIEL TICHENOR[1], b 1821 in Tompkins Co., NY; d Dec 6, 1896 in Lansing, NY; bur North Lansing, NY; m Sally Myers. She, b ca July 1822 in Tompkins Co., NY; d Dec 1869, age 47 years, five months; bur in the North Lansing Cem. Daniel Tichenor was a farmer and stone mason. He lived for many years in a log cabin which is now owned by and stands behind the Cayuga Museum of History and Art, Auburn, NY. The cabin has an interesting history. It was built on Patent Lot 71, Cayuga Co., apparently by Joseph North, before Tompkins Co. was created. It originally stood at the corner of Conlon and Searles Rd. It was not "the usual protective type cabin, rather it was one of grace and elegance. This 18 X 24 foot cabin, constructed of 14-inch square hewn logs, was the finest house in the community, its triangular notched joints making for beautifully squared corners..."

Daniel Tichenor moved it south on Conlon Road from its original location about 1844 and lived in it for many years. His son, George H., was about six months old at the time it was moved. His other children were born in the cabin. The family lived in it until about 1890 when they moved to another place a short distance away. His daughter, Elizabeth Augusta (Libbie), qv., recounted her memories of the family and the log cabin. Her paper, four pages long, has been preserved.

WKL — The cabin was acquired and moved under the direction of Professor Walter K. Long, director of the Cayuga Museum of History and Art. The moving was undertaken by the Auburn Rotary Club beginning in 1958 and the cabin was open to visitors in 1960 as the Millard Fillmore Log Cabin in honor of the thirteenth president of the United States. Although President Fillmore was not born in it, he was born in Cayuga Co., NY, in a similar cabin.

WKL — The cabin made other interesting history as related by Professor Long: "...originally it was part of the Joseph North property holdings. Joseph moved west to Michigan and became a judge, and named the city of Lansing, Michigan. One of his sons became a sharp-shooter during the Barnum and Bailey days, and John Ringling North was an important part of the Ringling Circus story. Actually, some of the circus workers wintered in the cabin which we have. On one occasion, John, a sharpshooter, had his six Indians remain in the cabin during the winter before he took them to Europe; Crazy Horse was one of them. When I first investigated the cabin, I was puzzled that in one end of the cabin the ceiling and the floor for the second story were missing. Later I was told that the tallest man and the shortest man stayed there one winter, but the tall man didn't like stooping as he walked around in the cabin. So he removed part of the ceiling so that his head would protrude to the second floor and he could walk upright..."

Daniel Tichenor's residence was Lansing Oct 5, 1896 when he wrote his will. The will named wife, Amadell, son, Frank Tichenor, and daughters, Sarah Morey, Libbie A. Tichenor and Celia Ross, the latter living in Kansas.

DESCENDANTS OF JOSEPH TICHENOR OF STEUBEN AND SCHUYLER COUNTIES, NEW YORK

HSCNY 192 JOSEPH TICHENOR[1], birth date and birthplace unknown, died after Mar 11, 1878; married Jane R. Scott, daughter of Michael Scott, who moved to Steuben Co., NY, from Maryland in 1905. Jane Scott was the widow of Thomas Sanford and had two sons, John and Thomas Sanford at the time of her marriage to Joseph Tichenor. She died about 1902-04 in Orange, Schuyler Co., NY. They were living in the town of Urbana, Steuben Co., NY, in 1855 and 1863, possibly moving to Orange, Schuyler Co., NY, in 1863 or 1864.

Stu-D 75 155 The earliest record we have of Joseph Tichenor is a deed, dated Apr 2, 1855, by which he purchased a 29 acre, 88 rod lot in Urbana. His residence given in the deed was Urbana and the description of the lot began "at the northwest corner of the land set off to Hannah Tichenor, widow of Joseph Tichenor, dec'd, as her dower..." This reveals that another Joseph Tichenor lived and owned land in Urbana, and that he probably had at least one child. Had he no child, Hannah probably would have received all his land, not had part of it "set off" to her. It is not known if Joseph and Hannah were the parents of Joseph, the subject of this sketch.

86 37 86 43 99 67 99 563 One lot purchased in 1855 by Joseph Tichenor, subject of this sketch, was sold in Nov 1858, both signing the deed, Joseph with his mark, Jane with her name. In that same month they bought 54 acres in Urbana from David Sanford which was sold July 13, 1863. The grantors signing the deed were Joseph "Tichner" and Jane, his wife, Thomas Sanford and John Sanford and Sarah Ann, his wife. On the same day that parcel was sold, Joseph Tichenor bought from John Keeler and wife, Sarah, 140 acres in Orange, section lot 8, great lot 13, reserving 33 acres of the north part which was "this day conveyed by said John H. Keeler to Jane Tichenor and Thomas and John Sanford." The deed to which this statement refers, reveals that Jane had only a life time interest in the property and that after her death, it went to Thomas and John Sanford. These records seem to confirm that Jane had two sons, Thomas and John Sanford, as stated above and as named by Joseph Tichenor's descendants although a county history gave her children's names as Thomas and Mary.

Cen-Stu State Stu-D 27 29 The 1855 NY State census lists Joseph, Jane, Mary and Wm. H. Tichenor in Urbana, whether all in one household or not is not known. Joseph Tichenor was living in Mar 1878 as revealed by a deed recorded in Schuyler Co., NY. The deed records his and Jane's losing a parcel of land in Schuyler Co. to creditors. This was not the property bought in 1863, mentioned above. Jane cared for her grandson, Grattan Veley, who was orphaned when small. He and his family cared for her until her death.

SOURCES

Codes are generally adjacent to the text which they support, particularly a quotation, but space does not always permit this. An ampersand (&) following a source indicates that that source applies to a significant part of the text to the next name in bold print or to the end of the page. These sources are usually individuals.

Codes for county records begin with the symbol for the county followed by a hyphen and symbol for the kind of record, namely: administration, birth, death, deed, guardian, lease, marriage, mortgage, orphan court record, orders, probate, and will. These are followed, if available, on the next line or lines with the book (or books) numbers on the left and the page numbers on the right; or with file numbers as the case may be. In some cases, codes are followed by more than one book or file number. Some birth and death records are from other than county sources, the symbols for which also precede the symbols for birth and death.

The codes for census records begin with "Cen, Sdx, or Mira" and are followed with a hyphen by the symbol of the county of residence. These are followed on the next line by the year of the census which is followed, when available, with book, page or family number in one of the following ways: (1) With the page number of the census on the same line and to the right of the year of the census. (2) On the next line with the book (or volume) number on the left and the page number on the right. (3) The family (Fam) number on the line following the year. (4) Only the year is given if the record is from the soundex (Sdx) or miracode (Mira). In some cases two years are listed on the same line without page numbers.

Codes for newspapers and periodicals consist of symbols for the title followed by dates on successive lines or dates given with the source. Page numbers are given in a few cases.

INDEX OF NAMES

Given names for people having the surname Tichenor, including all variations of spellings are, with few exceptions, followed by the father's name or initials, separated by an open parenthesis. Among the exceptions are the names from English records on pages one and two. This provides that only the page numbers for each individual are listed with his of her name with very few exceptions. The exceptions occur where the given name, generation number and father's given name are the same for one or more individuals.

Names (for the same person) appearing on one page with a generation number and on another without it are, in most cases, listed in the index only with the generation number. Also, where the name of a person is given in full on one page and by initials or part of the name on another are, in most cases, listed only under the full name.

Females are indexed by maiden names when known, and by married names only when the maiden name is not known.

The designations, Jr., Sr., II, III, etc., are generally omitted in the index for names having a generation number.

About the Author

by his children

We believe that many readers will be interested to know more about the man who wrote this exhaustive and detailed history of the Tichenor family. In this sketch -- which he reluctantly agreed to include -- we attempt to briefly describe the personal qualities and major events that have shaped our father's life.

Dad has long been driven to ask questions and to tirelessly seek the answers. He is known for his attention to detail and his ability to analyze and solve problems. These characteristics come together very productively in his genealogical research.

Dad grew up in the farming community of central Missouri. He was born on the Tichenor place, four miles from his current residence in Napton. As a young man he developed a reputation for being handy around farm equipment. Great Uncle Press Shannon, reminiscing about working in the harvest, once said in his characteristically witty style, "Harold hoped that something would break down, so he could take it apart and see how it worked." The old equipment of the depression days often obliged.

Mom and Dad met while attending Napton High School and married after he spent two years in CCC camp to save up a $600 nest egg. They shared an intense interest in children, planning originally to have seven kids, but later decided that four of us were enough. Their skills with children, undiminished by the passing years, are implicitly recognized by our children in whose eyes Grandma's and Grandpa's house competes with Disneyland as a fun place and easily surpasses it as an educational experience.

The Second World War required Dad to spend more years away from home and family. He saw Irene for the first time when she was six months old and for the second time when she was three years old. So many years of forced absence may have quenched any desire to travel Dad might otherwise have had. He has since traveled only for well defined reasons -- to visit family or to research the Tichenor genealogy.

In 1952 Dad quit farming and became a rural mail carrier. This job, from which he retired in 1986, significantly reduced the amount of time he had to spend making a living. For the first time in his adult life he had time to pursue avocations.

Throughout the '50s and '60s Dad had three main hobbies, reading, hunting with treeing hounds, and gardening. Each was pursued with his characteristic thoroughness. Gardening, perhaps, was in his blood from his youth as a farm boy. As children we took fresh garden produce for granted. Grandpa Ireland introduced Dad to the sport of coon hunting shortly after the war. Within a few years Dad became one of the most successful coon hunters in Saline County. He took an interest in the Plotthound breed, raising and training several generations in this line. The sale of furs has for many years paid his hunting expenses and provided a small income supplement as well.

Reading was enjoyed as an end in itself having no by-product of economic value. Two subjects, philosophy and history, dominated Dad's reading agenda. His philosophical studies took him far beyond the ideas of his immediate environment. His readings ranged widely from ancient to modern philosophy, and his answers were found in science rather than metaphysics. The study of philosophy necessarily draws one into the history of ideas. Dad's interest broadened to include world history in general, and that may have foreshadowed his later interest in family history.

The untimely and unexpected death of our brother, Bill, in 1972 stands out as a tragic event in each of our lives. When dealing with such a personal loss there is some small comfort in visualizing the march of generations through the years. This fact may have given Dad the impetus to pick up an interest that had been dormant. In any case his desire to research and write the Tichenor family history became a passion to which he has devoted many thousands of hours.

The completion of this book was threatened in 1980, when Dad was diagnosed as having restricted blood flow in the heart. The condition could have been controlled using drugs, with virtually no up-front risk but with some restriction on physical activity. Dad deliberately chose by-pass surgery. He reasoned that the odds were good for a full recovery; and if he did not survive surgery, he would not have to bury another one of his children.

Dad is in excellent health today, and finally the book is going to press. We hope and believe that his many years of work will contribute to the enrichment of all people interested in the Tichenor family history.

Tichenor Familes in America will be distributed by Harold A. Tichenor, Rural Route #4, Box 1016, Napton, MO 65340, for an indeterminate time.
